Ottawa, May 12, 1918.

Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th instant in regard to Achille White and enclosing a photograph of this boy.

In reply I have to thank you for your report on this boy and also for the photograph.

The Department approves of your action in instructing the hospital authorities to have a new pair of boots made for him and you will be sent enough to certify the account for these and forward it to the Department for payment.

This boy may remain for the present with Mrs. Ford.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
