Ottawa, February 11, 1919.

Sir,--

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 1st instant enclosing a list of articles for the teacher's residence at Big Cove and reporting that the bedding which the former teacher used was so filthy that you ordered the Chief to burn it.

In reply I beg to say that you may purchase one mattress, one rocking chair, two pairs of blankets, one bed spread, two pairs of sheets, two pairs of pillow slips, four window shades, one toilet set, two yards of table oilcloth and one comforter for the teacher's residence in connection with this school. You should obtain prices for these articles from different dealers and purchase from the one quoting the lowest prices. You will be good enough to forward accounts, in duplicate, properly certified, for the expenditure occurred and you should also forward the prices which you obtained from the different dealers.

The teacher will be held responsible for the proper care of the furniture in her residence.

Your obedient servant,

W. M. Leach
Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

John Sheridan, Esq.,
