- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Did you have beer in that cafe?
- A. Not in my presence, sir.
- Q. Did anyone have beer?
- A. I am not sure. I went out a few times. When I was in the cafe, they had no beer.
- Q. Did Tryansky's girl friend have a beer?
- A. No. She was not in the cafe.
- Q. He picked her up in the street?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Did you have anything else to drink except the champagne?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. When you were coming up Avenue Brugmann, were you on the left hand side of the street with McIntyre and Lowe?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Three walking together?
- A. Cpl. McIntyre and myself with Lowe back.
- Q. Staggering up the street.
- A. Walking.
- Q. Tryansky with an A.I.S. girl, was on the other side of the street?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Visibility was about 15 feet at the scene of the accident, was it not?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. McIntyre started to cross the street ahead of you?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. You followed McIntyre?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. If McIntyre started across the street ahead of you then if you were to cross the street you would start across the street a little previous to the spot where McIntyre crossed the street?
