

CHAPUIS DE MAUBORG.

The democrats offered, with their carbines at his breast, to spare his life if he would serve under the convention. 'No,' he replied, "I have never fought but for my God and King! despicable cowards, fire away!"

---

LULLI. A.D. 1687.

Died with a halter around his neck, in sign of repentance, singing the hymn, "Sinner, thou must die!" with tears of remorse and agony.

---

QUEEN MARY. A.D. 1587.

"When I die, Calais will be found written on my heart."

---

OLYMPIA FULVIA MORATA. A.D. 1555.

"I am nothing but joy."