

"The Sixties." 1855-'70.

By GLEESON WHITE. With numerous illustrations in etching, photogravure and line, by LORD LEIGHTON, MILLAIS, BURNE JONES, WHISTLER, ROSSETTI, POYNTER, DU MAURIER, and many others. Large octavo, printed on hand-made paper and sumptuously bound, $12.00.

"The Sixties" constituted the "Golden Age" of English illustration, and in this volume we have in photogravure, line and etching, numerous examples of the early work of nearly all the men who are now foremost in English Art. The publishers have given the book a superb dress in keeping with its contents, and the value of the book is further enhanced by the fact that but 150 copies could be secured for the American market.

Pacific Tales

By LOUIS BECKE, author of "The Ebbing of the Tide," "By Reef and Palm," etc. With frontispiece photogravure portrait of the author. Crown 8vo, green cloth, gilt top, $1.50.

Mr. Becke has recently been dubbed "The Bret-Harte of the Pacific."

Kalee's Shrine

By GRANT ALLEN, author of "The Woman Who Did," "Under Sealed Orders," etc. Vagabond Library. With frontispiece. Cloth, 50 cents.

A clever story by Grant Allen, the scene of which is largely laid in India.

"Sixty and Six"

Chips from Literary Workshops. Edited by WILL CLEMENS. With illustrations. Holiday edition.

Daintly bound. (In preparation).

A dainty gift book for the Christmas season. In the space of 95 pages will be found sixty-six "chips" from the pen of authors more or less well known.

The Platitudes of a Pessimist

By the author of "The Life of a Prig," etc. Crown 8vo, $2.25.

"Will cause many a chuckle of quiet amusement at the author's pleasant ridicule of people we all know and customs to which most of us are subject."—The Times, London.