

and
ould
ces
in-
ans
but
ing
th.
ad
cir-
rds
my
ise.
rse
r a
so
tly
our ires
o a l in
im-
hus
ne'
the
her
ver,
ows
the
ent
ure
om
and
gns.
WAY

CANOE-TRAVELLING IN NORTH-WEST CANADA

The canoes are made of birch-bark over a light framework, and are consequently very frail. They are, however, light and portable, a great advantage when navigating rivers with falls or rapids. Those places where the canoe must be carried from one navigable piece of water to another are known as portages.