"Filled with imaginative touches, resourceful, intelligent and amusing. An ingenious plot that keeps the interest suspended until the end, and has a quick and shrewd sense of humor."

—Boston Transcript.

"A reviewer would hesitate to say how long it is since a writer gave us so beautiful, so naive, so strangely brought up and introduced, a heroine. It is to be hoped that the author is already at work on another novel."

—Toronto Globe.

"May cause the reader to miss an important engagement or neglect his business. A love story of sweetness and purity touched with the mythical light of Romance and aglow with poetry and tenderness. One of the most enchanting creatures in modern fiction."

—San Francisco Bulletin.

"It is extremely entertaining from start to finish, and there are most delightful chapters of description and romantic scenes which hold one positively charmed by their beauty and unusualness."

—Boston Herald.

"Sentimental, with the wholesome, pleasing sentimentality of the old bachelor who has not turned crusty. . . A Thackerayan touch."

—New York Tribune.

"Captures the imagination at the outset by the boldness of the situation. . . We should be hard put to it to name a better American novel of the month."

—The Outlook.
