AUGUST AMUSEMENTS.

A COMMERCIAL traveller was bragging about the magnitude of the firm he represented. "I suppose your house is a pretty big establishment?" said the customer. "Big? You can't have any idea of its dimensions. Last week we took an inventory of the employees, and found out for the first time that three cashiers and four bookkeepers were missing. That will give you some idea of the magnitude of our business."

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL, for internal and external use, cures all pain.

WHAT words may be pronounced quicker and shorter by adding another syllable to them? Quick and short.

BRUTE FORCE AGAIN.—Edith—"I was so shocked last night. I don't believe I will see George if he calls this evening." Maud—"What did he do?" "Why, last evening he suddenly took hold of me, twisted me around into his arms, and forcibly kissed me a dozen times. I don't believe your little Willie ever insults you that way, does he?" "No, he is a regular gump."

FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY cures all summer complaints.

ON what day of the year do women talk the least? The shortest day.

DUTCH HOSPITALITY.—An Irish soldier, who came over with General Moore, being asked if he met with much hospitality in Holland, "O, yes," he replied, "too much; I was in the hospital almost all the time I was there."

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS is nature's remedy for all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood.

LITTLE Dick got into trouble with a school-fellow the other day and agreed to "have it out" before school the next morning. That evening when Dick knelt by his mother's side to say his prayers before going to bed, he delivered himself as follows, after the usual "Now I lay me": "And, O God, please make me strong as lions an' things, 'cause I got to lick a boy in the morning."

WHY does a Russian soldier wear brass buttons on his coat, and an Austrian soldier wear steel ones? To keep his coat buttoned.

DR. LOW'S PLEASANT WORM SYRUP removes worms of all kinds from children or adults.
