It was shown that there was another clerk present at the time—a Mr. Macready, who had access to the letter prior to its being posted, and who since left the country. John Ward, a Post Office clerk, testified to having received the letter from Mr. Osborne, and placing it in a box kept for the purpose; that the prisoner took all the registered letters out of this box; was told subsequently the letter had no money in it, and acquainted Messrs. #### Canada and the Cotton Trade.

The Lewiston (Me.) journals report that the cot-ton mills in that city have been sending a good many cotton goods to Canada during the past year. Now that higher duties are enacted by Canada some curiosity exists as to the effect. That effect, it is theught will be to diminish the sale of coarse American made cottons, but it will not particu-larly affect the sale of fine goods. The higher prices caused by the increased duties will probably result in a reduction of the present demand, but it is evicaused by the increased duties will probably result in a reduction of the present demand, but it is evi-dent that for many years to come Canada must look to the United States for finer lines of cottons, and little need be feared, tariffor no tariff, in the way of competition with native manufacturers. . ....

"When was Rome built ?" asked a school teacher of the first class in ancient history. "In the night," answered a bright little girl. "In the night," ex-claimed the astonished teacher. "How do you make that out ?" "Why, I thought everybody knew that Rome wasn't built in a day," replied the child.

London Markets.

CATHOLIC RECORD Office, April 23, During the past week the attendance of farmers on this market has been very small, and is likely to be so for some time to come, ploughing and seeding occupy-ing their time. Arrivals of grain are very limited, without any material change in prices. Dressed hogs seem to be completely exhausted, one fancy load on Saturday obtained $5.75, which might be said to be the Saturday obtained $3.79, Which might be said to be the top price. Notwithstanding the low price of hogs this season, the number packed shows a dediciency of about 35,000 against 1877-8, the number in this city alone being considerably less than one-half of last season. Potatoes are plenty at $1.25 per bag. Butter and eggs are assuming their summer quotations. Vegetables and flowers are coming in abandantity. The following is the list of prices: GRAIN

SALTER'S GROVE TO BE FENCED IN AND BEAUTIFIED-ACTION OF THE ALDERMEN THEREON.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen Monday night a petition was read from Mr. Benja-min Cronyn and 90 others, asking for the privilege of enclosing Salter's Grove and converting it into a park for the use of the public free of charge, ex-cept upon twelve days in the year. All proceeds upon the latter occasions to be used in keeping the grounds in repair. The petitioners would also be willing to surrender the Grove at an time when the city should desire to sell it.

Ald. Pritchard moved, seconded by Ald. Greer that the prayer of the petition be granted, subject to a by-law to be prepared by the City Solicitor. Mr. Andrew McCormick was heard upon the sub-ject, and explained that the petitioners intended to beautify the Grove and fence it in. They also in-tended to employ a janitor, and the proceeds of the twelve days referred to would go towrads paying his expenses. Ald. Egan, in the interests of the civ, felt that this matter should go before the Committee. He felt that when the Grove was tied up in the manner felt that when the Grove was tied up in the manner requested, it would be in a similar position to the Fair Grounds.

Ald. Scarrow favored the referring of the peti-tion to the Committee on the ground that it was far tion to the Committee on the ground that it was far too important a question to deal with it hastily. He anticipated a constant clashing of interests so long as the petitioners held the nominal ownership. Ald. Egan asked who would assume the responsi-bility of the Park when it had been completed. He contended that reliable parties should be required to come forward and give some tangible security for the proper carrying out of the promises they make. Ald. Pritchard again addressed the Council, setsupposition that he had drowned himself. The pond was dragged with a view of recovering the body, but without avail. On Saturday last a body was found in the pond which proves to be that of the suicide. He had only been in this country about a month, and had been drinking hard. Robert McLachlin, of Ashton, committed suicide by shooting himself twice in the head with a revolver. He was subject to temporery spells of insanity, and He was subject to temportry spells of insanity, and it is considered certain he committed the act while insane. The affair occured at a hotel kept by Daniel Fanning, where he boarded. Deceased was in com-fortable circumstances, owning a farm in Goulbourne township. An inquest was held, and the jury re-turned a verdict of "Death by suicide while tempor-ory insane".

A fatal accident occured at Millbrook, on the 21st inst. While Mr. Crocker, of the Dominion Hotel, was paying a visit to his farm, a short distance out of town, he engaged in felling a tree. The tree lodged in an adjacent one and Mr. Crocker warned his companion to get out of danger, as there was his companion to get out of danger, as there was a crashing of branches, but failed to do so himself, and the tree falling, he was struck by a broken branch on the head and died in a few minutes, the skull being crushed.
