CIL AT ST. JOHN, N. B.

CIL AT ST. JOHN, A. B. The Ninth Convention of the Grand Council of the Catholic Mutual Benefit A-sociation of Canada took place in the city of St. John, N. B., on Tuesday, 4th of September, 1894. The officers and representatives to the Convention assembled at the Mechanics' Institute, Carleton street, at 9 a m., and proceeded in a body, headed by the mem-bers of the local branches and a large number of visiting brothers, under the direction of Grand Marshal Thomas Kickham and the Marshals of Branches 133, 13i and 184, to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Waterloo street. Solemn High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Casey, with the Rev. T. A. Donohue as deacon, Rev. F. McMar-ray as sub-deacon and Rev. E. Corbett master of ceremonies. His Conception O'Brien, of Haliray as sub-deacon and Rev. E. Corbett master of ceremonies. His Grace Archbishop O'Brien, of Hali-fax, His Lordship Bishop Sweeny, of St. John, Fathers Collins, Belliveau, Girard and other priests were in the sanctuary. After the Gospel had been sung, His Grace the Archbishop of Halifax ascend-ed the pulpit, and preliminary to his sermon referred in congratulatory terms to the golden jubilee of Bishop Sweeny, and to the immense amount of good work done by His Lordship in the thirty-four years of his episcopacy. Then he announced his text: "Put you on the Armor of God, that you

The Apostle, said His Grace, after hav-ing taught the Christians of his day the various duties they owed to God and to one another, and after having warned them that they had invisible enemies more powerful than these of flesh and blood with whom they had to wrestle, pointed out the means they should em-ploy in order to gain the victory. They should take the "armor of God" — they should be "girt about with Truth, and having on the breastplate of Justice," and their feet should be "shod with the preparation of the Gospel of Feace." Then he added the words of my text. " In all things taking the shield of Faith, wherewith you may be able to extinguish all the fiery darks of the most wicked one." Many centuries have passed since these words were written; many physical one." Many centuries have passed since those words were written; many physical and political changes have been verified; social habits have undergone important modifications; mankind has risen to a higher plane of civilization and to a more full knowledge of the mysteries of his surgeoundings yet are these words as are surroundings, yet are these words as ap-plicable to-day as they were in the early morning light of the Christian era. ELEMENTS OF HUMANITY ARE UNCHANGED the more or less of knowledge and culture and refinement of manners sink into in-significance before the fact of our com-mon nature. It is human nature itself, and not its accidental qualities, that con-stitutes the grand historic fact of our world, as well as the encircling chain that links each individual to all the rest. The same snares and pitfalls, too, beset our path; and the same enemies lie in wait for our souls. Hence it is as true now as it was in the time of the Apostle that "our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and pow-ers, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirit of wicked-ness in the high places." (Eph. vi. 12.) Consequently our safety and final victory shall be achieved only through the em-ployment of the weapons indicated by St. Paul. the more or less of knowledge and culture in the sad bereavement which has deprived you of a loving brother, the Church of a loyal and an eaclous defender, and the whole Dominion of a devoted and self-sacrificing citizen. Whilst howing to the inscrutable and all-wise dispensation of Providence, we must not fail to record our sad regrets and pay the honest tribute of our tears at the almost irreparable loss which has so suddenly overtaken you and our common country in the death of the Hon. Christopher Finlay Fraser, late Commissioner of Public Works for the Province of Outario. In this general and heartfelt sorrow we fully share, and offer you, our respected and much-loved President, our sincere condolence. The resolution was handed to the first Vice-President, Judge Landry, who suggested that its adoption be voted upon and should be by a siler and standing vote. The Grand President then arose amidst grat silence and repliet: Brothers, your vote has been silent : my tanks shall be silent. The convention the mesolved itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of to the Outario. It having been announced that His Grace welcome, on behalf of the citizens, was delivered by His Worship Mayor Robert-son. His Worship extended the freedo n of the city to the representatives. He considered it a most pleasing duty to do so, and expressed the hope that their visit here would be both beneficial and pleasant. He trusted that the, result of their deliberations would not only benefit St. John, but also the Dominion. He re-ferred in fitting terms to the labors of the Bishop of St. John, and he touched on the romantic scenery of St. John. In con-clusion he thanked the delegates for their kind attention and once more welcomed the difference of the delegates tendered their welcomed them to St. John. The Grand President replied, and on behalf of the delegates tendered their most sincere thanks for the hearty wel-

His Worship then withdrew amidst applause. Brother John L. Carleton, on behalf of the members of the St. John branches, welcome the delegates. He was pleased to meet the delegates—those irom the "garden fields of Prince Edward Islaud in the east, as well those from the shadows of the Rockies" in the west. He said that every thing that was possible had been done for the pleasure of the delegates and hoped they would carry away pleasant remembrances of this city. Grand President O. K. Fraser briefly replied to Brother Carleton's address in the following terms:
Brother Carleton — What I have already said to His Worship your Mayor I may repeat to you, and say that I thank you for the very kind welcome extended to the delegates to this Convention. When I look and see the smiles on the faces around me, some from the far west, I assure you that they will go to their homes carrying away the kindest recollections of their stay in your city. All I am afraid of is that they will want to come back and have all their Conventions held here. Let me thank you again on behalf of the representatives.
The Convention was then declared opened for businees. constitution and laws and report thereon to the Convention. It having been announced that His Grace the Archbishop of Halifax, and His Lordship the Bishop of St. John had come to visit the Convention, a delegation of representatives received His Grace and His Lordship at the door of the hall and escorted the rev, gentle-men to the platform, where His Grace and His Lordship were presented to the Grand President by Brother J. L. Carleton, of St. John.

The Grand President then welcomed His Grace and His Lordship in the following words:

The Grand President then welcomed His Grace and His Lordship in the following words: My Grace, Your Lordship—It is a very great pleasure, I assure you, that, as a mem-ber of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Associa-tion, I welcome you to this convention. Yes-terday we had the pleasure of hearing your remarks at the Cathedral, when we had the honor and happiness to be present at the holy sacrifice of the Mass, and listened to the low of fervent oratory from your own lips, My Grace. Through the many kindnesses at your hands and at the hands of His Lord-ship, we have frisen to be what we are at present. Although at the outset His Lord-ship did not look tavorably upon our Associa-tion, we are glad to say that he has come to our way of thinking, and I don't know of the country which will tend more to our suc-cess than the bigh compliments from the lips of His Lordship yesterday. Although myself and many of the delegates come from the West—the wild West—and it is sometimes wid—we have long ago heard a great deal of His Grace the Archbishop of Halifax and His Lordship the Bishop of St. John. We have also heard in connection with these names that they carried in this section of the coun-try immense power and weight, not only amongst their own people, but among those who differ from them. We had an example of that yesterday, when the Protestant Mayor of St. John gave his great respects for the reverend gentlemen who were so kind as to say a few words to encourage us in our work. I hope they will aid us in buckling on the yood armour, of which your Grace space yesterday, in good faith, and we will have the assistance of the blessed hierarchy which will spread its wings clear over all men so long as their faith lasts. Archoishop O'Brien them addressed the conventum. His Grace said it afforded him The Convention was then declared opened for business. A committee was appointed to draft a reso-lution of condolence to be presented to Grand President Frazer, respecting the loss sus-tained by the death of his brother, the Honorable C. F. Frazer. The motion to appoint this committee was put by First Vice-President Judge Landry. The Second Vice President M. F. Hackett, M. P. P., said that the loss sustained by the Grand President, besides being a family one, was a great loss to the C. M. B. A. in all parts of the Dominion. This closed the morning session of the Convention. In the afternoon Grand President Fraser presented his report, which was read by the Grand Secretary. In his report the Grand President stated that it was not too much to say that, during the last two years, more events of great import-ance to the Grand Council had taken place than in any corresponding period of its existence.

than in any corresponding period of its existence. Referring to the Special Committee ap-pointed to petition and procure a separate beneficiary jurisdiction he stated that they had accomplished their mission. These latter gentlemen, Brothers M. F. Hackett, Judge Landry, R. J. Dowdall, Judge Rioux, Solicitor F. K. Latchford, T. P. Coffey, J. L. Carleton and Judge Rouleau, are justly en-titled to the gratitude of the association for the extraordinary efforts made, to not only carry out your instructions, but to ally an grouble which alterwards arose as a result of the altereel condition of our affairs. We are also indepted to the valuable, active aid of many of the clergy and private members for the good results obtained. On the 1st of January, 1893, the date at will spread its wings clear over all men so long as their faith lasts. Archbishop O'Brien then addressed the convention. His Grace said it afforded him much pleasure to accept the kind invitation to visit them, and hoped that their work here would be productive of good to the asso-ciation. He knew they would carry pleas-ant impressions of St. John people, and he would be glad to have the pleasure of meeting the association next time at Halfax. His Lordship the Bishop of St. John also addressed the Convention. His Lordship said be was much pleased to meet such a large assembly of Catholics from Canada, meeting together for such a worthy object, and was very much impressed with yester-dav's proceedings. He hoped the result of their deliberations would be of great value to the Association. Although he had said nothing publicly in its favor, they had his best wishes and he had done nothing to dis-courage them here. Mis Grace and His Lordship desiring to leave, at the request of the Grand President, the Archbishop gave his blassing to the Con-vention, after which he retired with His Lordship the Bishop of St. John. indepted to the valuable, active aid of many of the clergy and private members for the good results obtained. On the 1st of January, 1893, the date at which certain of our members thought it vise to separate from this Grand Council, our total membership was 7, 037. To day it is 9,394, being an increase in one year and eight months of 2,357. At the last convention we had but 180 branches, while to-day our branches number 237. The assessments for the year prior to which we procured separ-ate beneficiary were 20, whilst during the first year following they numbered only 14, and for the eight months just past, amount to but 11, indicating that during the present year they will not exceed 15. These figures, showing as they do the remarkable and healthy growth of the association, and the great financial saving to the members, speak fully for themselves, and require no com-ment.

Lizzie Duncan, a young woman who has been snatched back to life. She was in what is termed a "decline" — wasting away by inches before the eyes of her purents, and her sad condition seems to have been known to a number of people. Consequently when she was found to have escaped the threatened death, and to be, apparently, as well as any-one in Glasgow, a tremendous impetus was given to the prevalent talk, and an Echo reporter was directed to make a searching investigation, with the result that strange story was entirely confirmed. — Arriving at 20% Stirling Road, the reporter was conducted into the presence of Mrs. Duncan by a rosy cheeked young "oman, who proved to be Miss Duncan, who looked in no way like an invalid. — "This is the lassie," said the mother. Heaven knows that a wonder has been wrought upon her. Eighteen months ago Lizie began to pine away. The color left her entirely, and she appeared to be a weak as water. One Sunday morning she said, "Oh, mother, 1 canna rise today," D. J. O'CONNOR. It was decided to publish an official organ in the interests of the association and under the supervision of the Executive. Ottawa was selected as the the place for holding the next Convention, in Committee of the Whole, Judge Landry in the chair. It having been recommended by the Com-mittee on Laws that the Grand Council meet on the third Tuesday in August. Brother O. K. Fraser moved that the business be referred back to the Committee on Laws, and a date mentioned, but not finally fixed. The Committee on Laws recommended the fourth Wednesday in August or thereabouts as the date of holding meetings of the Grand Council.

Lizzie began to pine away. The color left her entirely, and she appeared to be as weak as water. One Sunday morning she said, 'Oh, mother, 1 canna rise today,' and before she had got out the words her whiteness became like that I sent for the doctor, who said she had heart disease. When he saw her again she had grown worse, and the doctor said. 'The poor lassie is very far through.' We expected that poor Lizzie would not ive long. There was no color in her face. She was wasting away, her cheek bones sticking through as if they would break the skin. Her arms and legs were just bones. The doctor said, 'Lizzie may stand the winter, but if she does.' that will be all.' One day, however, I chanced to read of several cases in which dying persons had been restored to life by a scientific method-some pills, not like other medicine, but altogether of extraordinary virtue, called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I said to my husband, 'I nthe name of God, let's try Dr. Williams' Pink pills.' Well, before the first box was empty there was an improvement. She persevered, and when she had finished her fifth box she was perfectly well, and there is not now a stronger young woman in the townhead of Glasgow, though at one time she was a living skeleton. You can ask any of the neigbors, "said Mrs. Duncan in conclusion, "or any person on the street and ther will confirm my story."

The Committee on Laws recommended the fourth Wednesday in Angust or thereabouts as the date of holding meetings of the Grand Council. At this moment Judge Landry announced that he would have to vacate the chair, as he was compelled to leave for home in an hour. He stated that he was sorry to be called away, but he felt that the business would be proceeded with Aarmoniously and would be proceeded with Aarmoniously and would be of good value to the association. An invitation to attend a sail on the river St. John was extended by His Worship the Mayor and the Chairman of the Board of Trade of St. John. The Grand President was authorized to appoint a special Committee to consider the question of sick benefits, disability and total disability features, and also the advisability of associate members, and report to the next Convention. In committee of the whole, it was decided that hereafter appeals for aid from the branch Treasury be hereafter printed in the official organ. In reply to another inquiry referring to the re-admission of mebers who have withdrawn from the Grand Council of Canada, Bro. T. P. Coffey moved that they be required to pay the full initiation fee and charges, and undergo the same medical examination as new applicants. The motion was carried. The report of the Committee on Laws was and the full initiation fee and charges, and undergo the same medical examination as new applicants. The motion was carried. The report deals with the Act of Incorpor-ation under the Dominion Parliament. I suggest very great care should be exercised in making changes in the designation of beneficiaries. In several of the provinces the power of an insurer to deal with policies made payable to his wife or children or both has been restricted by special legislation, and a member desiring to make a change should be certain that it is within his power to do so and in conformity with the laws of the Province in which he resides.
