" OF INTEREST TO ALL." Longley's Great Western Indian Paneces

1 For Colds and feverish feelings and present 2. For Asthma, Liver Complaint and Bilion

3. r or Larrhora, Indigestion and Loss of, Ap.

4. For Costiveness and nervous complaints. 5. For Stomech affections, Dyspepsia, Piles, Rheamatism &c.

65- Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint cured, and ill Western and Southern bevers prevented, in every case. Loss of appetite, belows affections and indigestion, are permanently cured by its tea. The great points are, it is not bad to take; it does not leave the bowels costive, and never gives pain in its operations. This Panacea will remove all the bad bile from the stomach and gives toue to the system, and keeps off all attacks of maligness tevers. If the stomach is in a healthy state, and the pores of the skin are open, so as to admit of free exhalations from the body, there can be no attack of fever. This other the Panacea will perively perform, and we recommend ail to try this attrile if they wish to ensure health during the year. As a family medicine, it is unparalleled for coughs, colds, all diseases of the blood, and

BIOGRAPHY.

Mempie of Mes. Janet Johnston. Formally of Trelevicton, N. B.

BY HER BROTHER ME. ROBELT CHESTNUT.

Mrs. Johnston, the subject of the following Memoir, was the cargater of Mr. Robert Chestnat, of Hamilton, Lanurkshire, Scotland; and, in the month of June, 1823, having just entered on the 16th year of her age, came to this Country, with her brother Robert, then commanding the ship Waterles. Her appearance at the time was very interesting. With a graceful manner, sweet many friends. Like all her father's family she was educated and brought up in the
