

WANT, SALE AND EXCHANGE

All advertisements under this heading will be charged for at the rate of 5c. per word per insertion, six insertions given for the price of five.

This department will be made a special feature of THE GRAIN GROWER from now on, and is designed to better serve the interests of our subscribers by furnishing space where they may make known their wants and get in touch with prospective buyers at a nominal cost. Under this heading will be inserted all miscellaneous advertising, such as Farms for Sale, or Wanted, Machinery, Help Wanted, Articles Wanted and For Sale, Auction Sales, etc.

In this column, as in every part of THE GRAIN GROWER, any advertisement of a false or questionable character will not be accepted, but the space will be confined exclusively to the use of legitimate advertisers who seek help, or wish to buy, sell or exchange Stock, Machinery, etc. A condensed advertisement in THE GRAIN GROWER'S GUIDE should be a business getter for you. Try it and be convinced.

She Had a Better Plan
It was the dreamy hour after the Christmas dinner, and the girls were talking in the hushed tones appropriate to the occasion.

"I've just heard of a new charm to tell whether anyone loves you, and, if so, who it is," whispered Elsie.

"What is it?" queried Sophie, absently fingering her new diamond ring.

"Well, you take four or five chestnuts, name each of them after some man you know, and then put them on the stove, and the first one that pops is the one that loves you."

"H'm," said Sophie, "I know a better way than that."

"Do you?"

"Yes, indeed. By my plan you take one particular man, place him on the sofa in the parlor, sit close to him with the light a little low, and look into his eyes. And then, if he doesn't pop you'll know it's time to change the man on the sofa."

Of What She Died
An old German woman became ill and was taken by her husband to a hospital for treatment. The first day she was there, when her husband called to inquire about her, the doctor said she was improving. On the second day he was told again of "great improvement."

On the third and fourth days the assurance was again "a steady improvement." This was very encouraging to the old German, but when he called on the fifth day he was told that his wife was dead. In his grief he sought his favorite friend.

"Vat's the matter?" asked the sympathetic friend.

"Ach! My wife iss dead," replied the German.

"So? Vat did she die of?" asked the friend.

"Improvements," replied the husband.

"Did you ever think what you would do if you had the Duke of Westminster's income?" Village Pastor—"No, but I have sometimes wondered what he would do if he had mine."

Quite Sufficient
A child-loving man was on his way to Denver to transact some important business. During the afternoon he noticed, in the opposite section of the Pullman, a sweet-faced, tired-looking woman travelling with four small children. Feeling sorry for the mother, he soon made friends with the little ones.

Early the next morning he heard their eager questions behind the curtains of the berths, and the patient "Yes, dear," of the mother as she tried to dress them; and, looking out, he saw a small white foot protruding beyond the opposite curtain. Reaching across the aisle he took hold of the large toe and began to recite:

"This little pig went to market,
This little pig stayed at home;
This little pig had a piece of roast beef,
This little pig had none;
This little pig cried 'wee-wee' all the way home."

"How is that?" inquired the eager man.

Then the foot was suddenly withdrawn, and a cold, quiet voice said: "I should think it was quite sufficient."

"Kind sir, pray give me a shilling for my six hungry children." "Awfully sorry, but I'm not buying hungry children just now; fact is, I've got nine of my own at home already."

Misses—"I'm sorry for you, John, but if your wife has got such a dreadful temper why did you marry her?" Coachman—(the fourth husband)—"Well, mum I had three good characters with her."

Madge—"Is a veil becoming to me when I go out sleighing?"

Marjorie—"Yes, dear; provided it is heavy enough."

QUESTION DRAWER

TO GET POST-OFFICE

E.J.R., Sask.—What course should be pursued when a new post-office is required? What form does the petition take, and to whom should it be sent?

Ans.—The usual course to pursue when a new post-office is required is for the settlers interested to petition the post-master general at Ottawa in the matter. There is no printed or particular form of application, but the petition should give the exact location, section, township and range and electoral district, (Dominion) of the proposed site from nearest post-office, mode, frequency and probable annual cost of mail service and any other particulars that may be deemed necessary. The petition should be sent direct to the department when the matter will receive due attention.

A.K.M., Alta.—Has the elevator man at the local elevator any right to dock me on the wheat when he is merely acting as my agent? The wheat grades 3 R.W. and is thoroughly cleaned at the elevator. I do not object to being docked once, but when the car is shipped to Calgary it will most probably get docked again with the result of a loss of possibly 40 bushels in the car. I may be mistaken, but I am under the impression that when grain is thoroughly cleaned, the elevator agent must pay the full weight without any dockage whatever. Am I right in this matter?

Ans.—The elevator man has no right to dock you, his duty being merely to clean the wheat and ship according to your directions. Of course, at Calgary you are liable to whatever dockage is set by the Inspector.

BREEDERS' DIRECTORY

Cards under this heading will be inserted weekly at the rate of $4.00 per line, per year. No card accepted for less than six months, or less space than two lines.

Under this heading should appear the names of every breeder of Live Stock in the West. Breeders and Breeders everywhere, as you are well aware, are constantly on the look-out for additions to their herds or the exchange of some particular animal, and as THE GRAIN GROWER is now recognized as the best market authority, and in every way the most reliable journal working in the interests of the West, nothing is more natural than for you to seek in its columns for the names of reliable men to deal with when buying stock.

Consider the smallness of the cost of carrying a card in this column compared with the results that are sure to follow, and make up your mind to send us your card today.
