An Act to authorize the Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas for Upper Canada to admit Peter Taylor Poussett as an Attorney.

[Assented to 12th May, 1863.]

WHEREAS Peter Taylor Poussett hath, by his Petition, set forth that on the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, he was admitted an Attorney of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Westminster, and on the same day he was also admitted an Attorney of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, and subsequently on the usual day for admission of Solicitors in Chancery for Easter term, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, he was admitted a Solicitor in the High Court of Chancery, in England; that he practised as an Attorney and Solicitor for the said Courts from the time of his admission to the month of May, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, when he came to Canada to reside: that by an accidental fire in his dwelling house the several certificates of his admission to practise as an Attorney and Solicitor of the said Courts were destroyed, and that he has procured an extract from the Roll of Attorneys kept in the office of the Master of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, in England: (which extract is dated the third of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five); that in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, he was appointed Clerk of the Peace for the County of Lambton, and is now acting as such Clerk of the Peace; that in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, he was appointed Master and Deputy Registrar of the Court of Chancery for
