CONCERT PROVED A FINE SUCCESS

P. S. A. of Congregational Church Provided Splendid Talent.

The success of a concert promoted by the football club of the P. S. A. of the Congregational church, augurs well for the future welfare of the athletic section. The concert which was largely attended was held in the church basement and was presided over by Mr. P. H. Secord, who in a few brief remarks enlarged upon the value of Association soccer as a sport. He wished the club every success in the Brantford and Paris League. Mr. Kelly and Mr. Farnsworth also expressed similar sentiments. Many officials of the clubs were among the audience, who witnessed a very fine display of local talent. Songs were contributed in excellent manner by Miss McCoombs, Miss Campion, Messrs. Hughes, Lemon, Richards, Cox, Parr, Timbs and Ramsbottom. Miss Mollie Rose recited, whilst a trombone solo was rendered by Mr.

Johnson. Mr. Blackburn, as a humorist was especially good as a country curate, his burlesque being well taken with. The Cubanola orchestra pleased with a fine string selection. The P. S. A. orchestra under the leadership of Mr. Wm. Timbs, was on hand in full force and enlivened the proceedings with good music. Mr. Maynard moved a vote of thanks to all who had helped and after refreshments had been served the gathering dispersed wishing the club the best of prosperity.

Laid at Rest

The Late Mrs. Hingley.

A large number of sorrowing friends attended the funeral of the late Mrs. W. Hingley which took place yesterday. The cortege left the residence and proceeded to Mt. Hope cemetery. The pallbearers were I. Forsyth, E. Ladd, G. Job, R. Mercer, W. Swartz, R. Waddington. The last rites were conducted in an impressive manner by the Rev. A. E. Marshall of Oxford St. Methodist church. There were many tributes to the loving memory in which the deceased was held.

PEACEMAKER GOT BADLY USED UP

Jack and Jesse Simons, of Lynden Fined in Police Court To-day.

A peacemaker came in for it badly yesterday when he attempted to settle a lively affair which occurred on Market street, near the King's hotel last evening.

Two brothers, Jack and Jesse Simons of the gay little village of Lynden, were proceeding along the thoroughfare when a man named Shellington who had been drinking came along in an abusive manner and insulted them. They immediately threw him to the ground. This started a fracas and Volda Jandos waded in with a plea for peace. The Simons thereupon turned their attentions to him, and amongst minor injuries, the man of peace lost a number of teeth.

The defendants pleaded guilty, and said they acted in self-defence, as Jandos had threatened to thrash them.

Two witnesses spoke and their evidence favored the peacemaker, and the brothers were fined ten dollars each for assault. The police incidentally had a merry chase at the depot for the two brothers.

Morris Goldberg, who got into the wrong house when he was looking for lodgings, was allowed to go this morning, by the bench.

The statements had been verified it was shown, that he was a respectable and honest fellow, whose appearance in the wrong house was really a mistake. He has already got a start with a local tradesman and as his record in Toronto is good, he was given his liberty. The magistrate advised him to enter houses by the correct mode of entrance in the future, and not via the window.

Robert Hawke, with a face which looked the worse for bad usage, protested in the witness box this morning that he was sure he had not fallen down and so incurred the damages. He claimed he was going home along Grey street last night, and although he had had a drink or two, he was by no means drunk, when he was knocked on the head heavily from behind and fell forward. A man, whom he thought was a foreigner, kicked him in the face whilst he was down and ran off with two companions. Ivan Holban was charged with the offence, and pleaded not guilty. Complainant had not seen the features of his assailant and could not identify him, but as the men decamped he noticed, the smaller of the three, was the one who had kicked him. Put to a test, this was found to be correct, as the defendants' companions were in the court. He was the smallest.

The case was remanded until tomorrow in order that a fuller investigation might bring further details to light.

Social and Personal

The Courier is always pleased to use items of personal interest.

Mr. Roy Secord is in Toronto to-day.

Mr. A. M. Harley was in Buffalo yesterday on business.

Mrs. Howe, 187 Darling St., received a telegram to-day announcing the death of her brother at Union City, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Schier and children of Dunnville and Mrs. J. H. Flock of Linnville, were the week-end visitors at Mrs. Arthur Roberts, 54 Sheridan street.

A jolly sleigh party of 30 young people of Grand View was held in the country last evening, and on their return they repaired to the residence of Mrs. J. W. Harper, Grand View. Games and dancing, followed by a dainty lunch, concluded a very pleasant evening, when the party broke up. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the hostess for her very kind hospitality.

Evangelistic Services.

The interesting series of services now being held in the Calvary Baptist Church are being well attended, and are proving very encouraging.

Last night there was a greater number present than the previous night. The address given by Rev. T. Richards was greatly enjoyed. It was based on 2 Corinthians, 5:14 "The love of Christ constraineth me," and was an earnest appeal both to Christians and those desirous of becoming such, to cherish this love in their hearts.

Mr. Harry Green sang an appropriate solo. The congregational singing was very hearty. Several expressed a wish to accept the Master's service. All are cordially welcome.
