The successful results of the most expert and daring corps of photographers that ever invaded Europe will be offered you, and it is an imperative duty to go and see what our fellow human beings are doing on the other side of the Atlantic. The war takes place right before your eyes and every Canadian should see it and be enlightened for all time. See the eviction of a nation, the laughter of children, mixed with agony of adults; the materialized dreams of master artists smashed into debris; see how close tears are to laughter; how comedy and pathos go hand in hand; how the gamut of emotion is run on human faces in times of stress; see civilization in convulsion and history being made—in moving pictures that will be handed down for generations, as a marvellous human document.
