Sweden Still is Strictly Neutral

Has No Desire to Enter the War as Long as Her Rights Are Recognized.

By Special Wire to the Courier:
Stockholm, via London, March 2.—Sweden is just as determined as she was eighteen months ago, not to interfere in the war as long as she can maintain her national honor and dignity," said Eric Trolle, formerly Swedish minister of foreign affairs and later minister to Germany, discussing his country's policy. "The only consideration on which Sweden would end her neutrality would be one involving violation of her sovereign rights by belligerents. I do not believe, however, that any of the belligerents would take the risk of adding to the enemies they have at present. The Swedish government and people are unanimous in favor of peace, but not of peace which means a sacrifice of rights."

Joseph S. Raymond, vice-president of the Clyde and Mallory lines, died of pneumonia.

Old Age Finds Its Greatest Comfort

in good eyesight. Reading or sewing are practically the only diversions of most old people, and unless they are able to enjoy these pastimes in comfort life holds but little for them.

Be sure that the "old folks" in your family have the opportunity to enjoy this blessing to the full. They cannot have it without good glasses—glasses selected at random or by "trying on" will not give it to them.

Bring them here and have an accurate examination of the eyes made. You may be surprised to find they had forgotten what really perfect vision is.

Mr. Brown and the entire English company will appear in congenial roles. You admired them all in "The White Feather," you will simply take them to your heart and hold them there in "Too Many Cooks." This comedy ran for a whole season in New York, and also had a London vogue. Montreal and Toronto went wild over it last year. It is the funny side of "Home, Sweet Home," and will make your ribs tinkle your sides with laughter, and their ache.
