A RESCUE HOME.

This paper desires to make the suggestion to the Salvation Army authorities that Brantford has now reached a size when a Rescue Home is desirable, such as they have in London, Hamilton and other cities. A newspaper man in this city, during is days avocation, comes across or most suitably be handled by such

And in the Salvation Army way, it is not a case of "out you go and be hanged to you," but a close and kindly touch is kept afterwards with the careers of those thus helped.

It is to be hoped that the Headnarters Staff in Toronto will see heir way clear to take up this mat-

THE PITY OF IT.

The committee of the U. S. Senate has rejected the amendment of the Ion. Elihu Root, who sought to prevent the proposed breach of faith with reference to the Panama Canal. In his great speech on this question Mr. Root said in part:-

And thus when the United States irned its attention toward joining it se two coasts by a canal through he I-thmus it found Great Britain in of the eastern end of the men generally believed be the most available route for Gallal. Accordingly the United sought a treaty with Great Britain by which Great Britain should the advantage which she and admit the United States to qual participation with her in the introl and the protection of a canal ross the Isthmus. From that came Clayton-Bulwar treaty.
