BICYCLE MEET OVER.

A. P. GUNBERT WON THE CENTURY ROAD RACE.

Many accidents on the road race and the fact that the race was held on a Saturday afternoon under the most favorable conditions.

From Wednesday until Saturday morning the town was overcast with wheaten rain from all parts East and West, and they were royally entertained by the home club. The boys with the fireworks caused a number of small conflagrations, but no damage was done and the citizens of the Maple City are satisfied with the result of the meet, socially and financially.

The first event on Saturday's program was the initial hundred-mile race, the oldest in this century, held in the city of Toronto, was within its minutes the Queen's record.

The race was made from the track in the morning at 8:45, with 27 starters, all of whom were in the race until the end.
