PROHIBITION IN POLITICS

That which has been by many feared and by many fervently hoped for has at length occurred. The Temperance question has got into Politics.

Dreadful thing, isn't it?

For a long time, at frequent periods it has been suspected and sometimes strongly asserted that Politics had got into Temperance, but now the question is unquestionably reversed.

Dr. Carman and other members of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance have deliberately united the two, and our political parties have divided squarely on the issue of the retention or abolition of the three-fifths clause.

The Liberals, led by Mr. McKay, have declared in favor of majority rule in local option votes, and while Mr. Whitney, when interviewed, declined to commit himself before consulting his cabinet, it is a foregone conclusion that he will stand by the three-fifths clause.

The general elections will probably take place within a year and this question will be one of the chief determining factors. There are other important questions, of course, but this matter of local option comes nearer home to every ratepayer than any other. It is a question easily understood by all and, with a secret ballot, an honest expression of opinion may be expected.

In past campaigns the Temperance question has always been treated lightly, as a kind of side-issue, and when the opinion of a candidate respecting it was sought it could, as a rule, be obtained only by direct question. But in the coming elections it will be discussed from every hustings, and the whole subject, in all its bearings, will be placed before the public and the line between the two parties be closely drawn.

Whether this mixture of Politics and Prohibition will prove a benefit to the Temperance people remains to be seen. It will certainly give them a chance to vote as they pray.

EARNING HIS SALARY

Mr. A. E. Donovan, M.P.P., spent Saturday and Sunday at his home here. He finds the sessional work anything but sinecure; indeed, he says, a member could work twenty hours a day and still not accomplish all he desired.

Mr. Donovan's oratorical ability was quickly recognized in the Queen City and the Mail and Empire of the 26th ult reports him as attending a banquet and delivering speeches at two other meetings in one evening, which is "going some" for a country chap in the city.

DEATH OF AN AGED FRIEND

Many here learned with sincere sorrow of the death of "Aunt" Priscilla Stevens, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Spicer of Newboro, on the 19th ult. A daughter of the late Joseph Derbyshire, she was born near Charleston in 1820 and has always resided in this part of the county. She was a member of the Society of Friends and as an attendant at services in the old meeting house here was ever welcome. She was an embodiment of that charity which seeketh not its own, and her pure, sweet life and sound counsel and admonition have often proved an inspiration and guide to her fellow travelers in the journey of life. The impassable character of the roads prevented many friends here from attending the funeral service, which was held at Delta.

The Famous Pedestrian

Gentlemen:—
"I was a martyr to catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I was so bad the doctors feared consumption. I tried many physicians and medicines. A friend suggested Psychine. I tried it and it was the only thing ever did me any good. I am now perfectly well. It is the greatest remedy the world has ever known. I do not need it for my health now but I use it as a strengthener for my walking matches. I owe much of my physical endurance to Psychine."

JAMES REYNOLDS,
Port Hope, Ont.

It is a wonderful tonic and strengthener of run down systems, acting directly on all the vital organs, giving youthful vigor and strength to the system. At all druggists 50c. and $1.00, or Dr. T. A.
