Do We Take Small Accounts?

We do more than that. We invite them—welcome them—and take good care of them. If you wish to open a Savings Account for any particular purpose—or wish to teach the children to save by having an account in each child's name—do not hesitate to do so because the amounts to be deposited will be small. $1. is sufficient to open a Savings Account, and deposits of $1. are always welcome.

AUCTION SALES.

THE MERCHANTS' BANK OF CANADA would like to draw your attention to the fact that they make a special business of handling Farmers' Sale Notes, either discounting same or making collection when due. Should you have any idea of holding a sale they would very much appreciate being given an opportunity of taking care of the business for you.

The manager will be glad to attend your sale personally, and assist in any way feasible. Their specially prepared Auction Sales Register and Sale Notes are furnished free of charge.

Consult the Manager and ascertain his method in defraying your advertising costs

Ice Cream, also Oysters in plate or bulk at Maud Addison's.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES

The Merchants' Bank of Canada has just installed an additional nest of Safety Deposit Boxes, and you are cordially invited to inspect them. The number of burglaries and hold-ups is increasing alarmingly. Fires are ever occurring. Bonds, Stock Certificates and all other valuable documents should be properly safeguarded. If you own a Bond, Stock Certificate or other valuable papers, not necessarily negotiable, you need adequate protection.

If you require this kind of accommodation, you are respectfully requested to consult the Manager—you will find him in his office during banking hours.

The Council of Rear Yonge and Escott will meet on Saturday April 2nd at one o'clock.

The regular meeting of the Women's institute will be held on Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. in the Institute rooms. After the usual business Mrs Boyle will give an address on the influence of music in the home. The address will be illustrated by selections of Mrs. Boyles pupils. We hope for a full attendance.

Mrs V. O. Boyle returned from Toronto on Monday after spending an enjoyable week with friends.

Let Us Be Friends.

(Crawf-C. Slack)

I may not think as you might think we might have different views, Although I might attend your church we'd set in different pews,

'Tis not expected we agree though strive with all our might, My judgment might be wrong at times and yours be in the right, But there's a way to rectify have Heaven beneath the skies, Let us forgive, forget, forbear, and brotherly compromise, So let's be friends.

Perhaps I may not worship just the same as you and yours, We know that sin-sick contrite Souls resort to many cures, My creed may be the narrow kind, yours may be of the broad, Mine may be termed the wordily kind you may think yours of God. We cannot here adjust such things by hatred and retort, We'll leave the whole to Heaven's judge and to his righteous court, Here let's be friends.

Your breed may be superior and clean compared to mine; My language but a gibberish and crude compared to thine, My manners may be rough and vile, be vulgar and uncouth, I've not had the advantages perhaps as you in youth, My face may be the empty type I may be weak of mind, You may possess the master wit, your face the classic kind, But let's be Friends.

I may be rich You may be poor wealth is not all in all An act for charity's sake is wealth it matters not how small, Position does not make the man his raiment not the test, You'll find great souls in scarlet robes you'll find them shabby dressed, Let's weave that love which recreates with threads of untold worth, Let us be tolerant and kind have Heaven here on earth, And Let's be Friends,

I may not go to the same Lodge as you perhaps but then, I know the precept of my own is to uplift all men, So let's be brothers one and all reflecting love-lights beam, That hither where our footsteps pass may but the brighter seem, As one big family let us close-knit from year to year, And with a warrant from on high we'll run a branch down here, Oh Let's be friends.

The last of the series of lantern slides on the "Travail of His Soul" was held on Tuesday evening in Christ Church. The devotional readings accompanying the slides set forth our Lords sufferings in a most illuminating manner were greatly enjoyed by a number of token worshippers.

Taking Stock

IT is just as important to take an inventory of one's self as it is of one's business. Ask yourself this question "If during the next five years I save the same amount I already have put by, how much will I be worth in 1926?" Then let our Savings Department aid you in accomplishing the task.
