OPENING OF THE SYNOD

Important Meeting of Presbyterian Ministers is being Held Here

Rev. Dr. Ross Delivers Retiring Moderator's Sermon

The opening session of the Presbyterian Synod of Hamilton and London was held last evening in the First Presbyterian church. There was a very large attendance of ministers from all over the district covered by this Synod, and there was also a goodly number of elders also present.

The opening of the proceedings was quite formal in character. Rev. Dr. Ross, of Port Dalhousie, the moderator appointed last year, conducted a short devotional service, after which he delivered the retiring sermon. His address to the assembled delegates was in point of thought and eloquence. The subject was directly suitable for an occasion of such a character, and during the course of his remarks he pointed out which to his mind were the vital principles for a true minister of the Gospel to keep in view. These were Faith, Love and Hope. He supported his statements by reference to the Gospel according to St. Paul.

Dr. Ross was highly complimented upon his excellent discourse, and at its conclusion he was tendered a hearty vote of thanks.

The clerk of the Synod, Rev. Dr. Radcliffe, then gave his report. There have been, according to the statistics handed in to him, eleven new ministers added to the Synod, and only four deaths during the past year. The election of the new moderator to preside over the proceedings of the present Synod, resulted in the selection of Rev. W. M. Martin, pastor of Calvin church, Exeter. He was nominated by Rev. Mr. Fletcher, who took advantage of the occasion to pay a very high tribute to the man of his choice. The nomination was seconded and unanimously carried.

Mr. Martin has been a member of the Hamilton-London Synod for the past 32 years, and during that time he has only missed attending three of its meetings. Although he is a very young appearing man—and he assured the meeting that he was by no means what people would call an old man—he has been in the ministry for over 40 years. He is a man of considerable ability, and the general feeling was that no mistake had been made in the selection of a moderator.

Dr. Radcliffe, the efficient and faithful clerk of the Synod, was not overlooked when the complimentary words were being passed around. Since the last Synod meeting he has secured the degree of D. D., and the meeting went on record as complimenting him upon the honor to which he had attained.

Dr. Kilpatrick, who was present, constituted a member of the Synod, and was invited to take part in the proceedings of the sessions. The report of the Business committee was read. They recommended among other things that the following be appointed a committee on bills:

The clerk of the Synod with the clerks of the nine different Presbyteries in the Synod, and the following ministers and elders:

Paris—Rev. Dr. Dickie and Mr. Hosie.
London—Rev. H. W. Reid and Mr. Thomas Baillie.
Chatham—Rev. Dr. Smith and Mr. Burncliffe.
Sarnia—Rev. Mr. Lindsay and Mr. Crawford.
Huron—Rev. Mr. Fletcher and Mr. McKay.
Maitland—Rev. D. McKernan and Mr. Chisholm.
Bruce—Rev. John McLean and Mr. J. Craig.

An Elders' Commission was appointed. They are J. S. Hardy and J. Milden.

The hours of meeting will be from 9.30 a. m. to 12.30 p. m., and from 2.30 p. m. to 5.30 p. m., and from 8 p. m. to 10 p. m.

The committee on Obituaries will consist of the retiring moderator and the clerks of the different Presbyteries where deaths have occurred.

The report of the committee was adopted. The meeting then adjourned until Tuesday morning. The choir of First Church assisted in the musical part of the service last evening.

BOND-JENNER

The home of Mr. Wm. Jenner, Botany, was the scene of a very happy event on Wednesday evening last when his daughter, Miss Sylvia, and Mr. Stephen Read, of Northwood, were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Fulton Irwin, of Thamesville, under an arch of evergreens. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white organdie and carried a bouquet of cream roses. The wedding repast was sumptuous and the presents numerous and useful.

Mr. and Mrs. Read left on the evening train for Niagara Falls, where they intend spending their honeymoon. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

MUCKLE—CARLE

Mrs. J. F. Carle and John Muckle were married at 5.30 o'clock yesterday morning at the bride's home, 1232 Washington street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Reynolds, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. Mr. and Mrs. Muckle left an hour later for Chicago and the East.

Mrs. Muckle is the widow of J. F. Carle, who was president of the Carle Oatmeal and Cereal Company, who died about twelve years ago. She has lived in Kansas City thirty-five years. Mr. Muckle is an attorney, with offices in the New York Life building. He lives at Maple Inn. In Chicago the couple will visit Mrs. Muckle's son, Eugene Carle, who is a wholesale candy manufacturer in that city. From Chicago they will go to Pittsburgh, where Mr. Muckle's son lives.—Star-Times, of April 26.

The above item is taken from the Kansas City Star-Times, and will be of interest to a number of Planet readers in this county. Mr. Muckle, the gentleman connected with the pleasing event, is an old Kent boy, and was born in the Township of Harwich. He also lived for some time in the Maple City, and is a brother-in-law of Mr. James Birch, Lorne Ave. Mr. Muckle is very widely connected throughout the county, and a host of relatives and friends will extend to him hearty congratulations.

THIS TONIC BUILDS UP.

Many medicines stimulate, break down, leave you worse than ever. Ferrozone is different—it's a blood-former, a nerve-strengthenener, a body builder. Pale, anaemic girls are given color and vigor. The tired and sleepless are strengthened and restored. "Better than all tonics I found Ferrozone," writes Mrs. F. F. Castleton, of Woodstock. "I was completely rundown, cheeks were blanched, lips white and had every sign of anaemia. Ferrozone added to my weight, gave me strength, ambition and good health." Nothing better, try Ferrozone yourself; 50c. per box at all dealers.

BEDFORD—FERGUSON

An event of more than usual interest transpired Wednesday evening when Jean, the winsome daughter of the Mistress of Craigdarroch was united in wedlock to Bruce Bedford. The palatial home of the Fergusons was beautifully decorated and a large number of guests partook of the hospitality of the generous Lady of Craigdarroch.

By this marriage a union of two of the old pioneer families has taken place. For, for full seventy years the names of Bedford and Ferguson have been honored ones in Harwich.

OPEN WEEK'S ENGAGEMENT

Marks Bros. Played To A Packed House Last Night

Made A Fine Impression and The Crowds Will Undoubtedly Continue

The Grisco Opera House was simply massed with humanity last night to welcome Marks Brothers on the first production of their current week's engagement. And the company deserved the splendid reception, which is saying a good deal. The play presented, a touching Southern drama, though with plenty of humor to balance the tragic, was "The Ragged Princess," and chief Gracie Marks claimed the audience in the title role. The first scene is laid in a Kentucky cotton field where the Princess is discovered in a small barrel in hiding from her supposed parents, who are in reality her enemies, who had stolen the child out of revenge. Colonel Silverthorn, the kindly old gentleman, is ready at "The Magnolia," the fine country residence held in trust by him for the child of his brother, but who disappeared many years previous, and which, of course, in due time proves to be "The Ragged Princess." The little girl is adopted and kept in the house that is her own. However, the two cousins, Juliet and Lee Silverthorn, hate the real "Selma" from the first, and with the assistance of Judas, an Octroon, an ex-slave, try to get rid of her in various cunning ways, but the timely interference of Waggles, the tramp philosopher, and at heart a true gentleman, always prevented any very serious results.

The company are above the average, and Mr. Marks is to be congratulated on the excellent amount of material he has surrounded his popular plays with. As to the specialties they have to be seen to be appreciated, and it is no exaggeration whatever to say they are well worth the price of admission doubly over. To-night "The Mountain Maid" will be the attraction.
