WOMEN WAGE EARNERS.

Bulletin No. 1 of the Census and Statistics office of Canada, which makes a report on and statistics of wage earners in Canada by occupations, compiled from data of the census of 1901, contains matter in classified form of a most valuable nature. It shows at that period a total of 922,591 persons in the Dominion were enumerated by occupations embracing 735,549 males and 186,042 females. But of this number the records for 75,064 males and 32,597 females were incomplete. Full statistics were compiled for 861,485 males and 153,445 females, and more than 99 per cent. of these were under 65 years. In 1901 the population, 15 to 64 years inclusive, comprised 1,652,990 males and 1,569,637 females, and therefore about 40 per cent. of the former and ten per cent. of the latter were fully enumerated as wage earners.

In considering the earnings of female employees the compilers quote from the work of John A. Hobson on the "Evolution of Modern Capitalism," in support of the view that the question of the employment of women in industrial occupations has other interests than the earning of wages: "When industry was chiefly confined to domestic handicrafts," John A. Hobson says, "the claims of home life constantly pressed in and tempered the industrial life. The growth of factory work among women has brought with it inevitably a weakening of home interests and a neglect of home duties. The home has suffered what the factory has gained. Even the shortening of the factory day, accompanied as it has been by an intensification of labor during the shorter hours, does not leave the women competent and free for the proper ordering of home life. Home work is consciously slighted as secondary in importance and inferior, because it brings no wages, and if not neglected is performed in a perfunctory manner, which robs it of its grace and value. This narrowing of the home into a place of hurried meals and sleep is on the whole the worst injury modern industry has inflicted on our lives, and it is difficult to see how it can be compensated by an increase of material products. Factory life for women, save in extremely rare cases, saps the physical and moral health of the family. The exigencies of factory life are inconsistent with the position of a good mother, a good wife, or the maker of a home. Save in extreme circumstances no increase of the family wage can balance these losses, whose values stand upon a higher qualitative level."

FOR OUR READERS

To Prove That Hyomei Will Cure Catarrh, Every Reader of The Planet Can Have Special Guarantee

If there is any doubt in your mind as to the power of Hy-o-mei, the medicated air treatment, to cure all catarrhal troubles, the remarkable offer made by C. H. Gunn & Co. should expel that doubt. They give their personal guarantee with every dollar outfit of Hy-o-mei they sell, to refund the money unless it gives satisfaction. They take all the risk of cure, and no reader of the Planet can afford to suffer longer with catarrh when an offer like this is made.

With every Hy-o-mei outfit is a neat pocket inhaler, and Hy-o-mei breathed through this inhaler, reaches the most remote air-cells of the nose, throat and lungs, destroying all catarrhal germs, and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

Hy-o-mei really gives you a health-giving climate in your own home, so that when you breathe its medicated air, your nose, throat and lungs will be filled with air like that on the mountains high above the sea level, where grow balsamic trees and plants, which purify the air with their volatile antiseptic fragrance so healing to the respiratory organs.

You will notice relief and benefit from the first use of Hy-o-mei, and it will not take many days' treatment to convince you that in this remedy you have found a complete and lasting cure for all catarrhal troubles.

WHERE ARE YOU GOING TO SPEND THE SUMMER.

Many overworked, business and professional men would "take to the woods" for their vacation if they knew definitely where to go, the localities, which furnish the best hunting, fishing and touring; how to go and what to take, and the cost of the trip.

This all takes time, and the busy man of to-day has none too much time to devote to his vacation.

To those yet undecided, we might suggest Muskoka, Huntsville, Lake of Bays, Temagami or Algonquin Park.

Call at Grand Trunk ticket office, 115 King Street, and ask for illustrated literature.

DISTRICT

Blenheim, May 29.—The Court of Revision met in the council chamber at Blenheim yesterday.

There was a heavy frost on Monday night, and it is feared by a great many that it will have done a lot of harm. The weather was much warmer yesterday, and it is hoped it will continue so.

Dr. and Mrs. Arnold, who have been the guests of the Misses Montford, left for their home in Owassa, Mich., on Monday evening.

Mrs. Spackman and daughter, Miss Stella, of Toronto, have been Blenheim visitors for the last few days, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Spackman.

At the meeting of the town council, which was called by the Mayor to meet last Monday night in the council chamber for the purpose of talking over the proposition of having a canning factory at Blenheim, with Mr. Greenleaves and the other London men concerned, it was decided to have the factory, and the by-law was submitted to the ratepayers at an early date to be voted on. If it proves successful the work of construction will be commenced at once.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shillington returned home on Monday night after spending the holidays with friends in Detroit.

Blenheim, May 30.—Fred Treadgold, of London, has been visiting Fred Hall for the past week.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Echlin died Tuesday night, May 28.

Mrs. T. S. Bell, a former old and respected resident of Blenheim, arrived in town Tuesday night from Detroit.

Mrs. R. M. Thompson, of Cleveland, has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Hanks for the past week.

Mrs. Stewart Langford and little daughter, of Detroit, are visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Langford at present.

Mrs. Gilmore has returned from London, where she was visiting her parents for a few days.

Albert Markaby moved into Mrs. Black's house, on Ellen street, yesterday.

Mr. Charles Watlin returned to London this morning to resume his position in Perrin's.

Dr. C. B. Langford, who has been at Toronto for the last few days attending the meetings of the Ontario Medical Association, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. T. C. Benson was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Biggar, over the holidays.

Mr. Miles, of the Vester House, has had his dining room enlarged and newly decorated, which is a great improvement.

Wm. C. Faust, son of H. Faust, of Blenheim, has graduated from the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, which is said to be the second best institution of the kind in America.

Rev. J. W. Holmes and Mr. Wm. Easton are at Goderich this week attending the meeting of London Conference, which is being held in that town.

At the Teachers' Convention, held in Chatham last week, two of the Blenheim teachers, Mr. A. A. Merritt and Miss McCanniss, were chosen as two of the officers for next year.

Sol. Burke, of Harwich, will move into the house lately owned by Mrs. John Morgan, which he has bought. Mrs. Morgan has bought Lemuel Wright's house, on Sandys St., and moved into it last week.

The Presbyterian Church in Blenheim will hold anniversary services next Sunday, June 2nd. The Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon, of St. Thomas, will preach. The Ladies' Aid of the congregation will hold a social the following evening.

Mrs. A. W. Bell and daughter Margaret, arrived in Blenheim last night, from their home in Fort William, to visit Mrs. Bell's sister, Miss Hicks and Mrs. Foster. Mrs. Bell's many friends in town will be glad to renew old friendships again.

Mr. Jas. Leslie, Treasurer of Harwich, died at his home on the Back Ridge, Harwich, on Tuesday, May 28th, at the age of 72 years. The funeral took place this afternoon to the Newcomb Cemetery, Rev. Hugh Cowan officiating.

Gentlemen,—In January last, Francis Leclaire, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained of his recovery, his hip being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain, and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured.
