There are a few tough characters in the city," said Detective Skirving this morning to The Planet. "They must have seen that, with our watchful police, they would have a poor chance of doing business."

"I wish the city would organize a garbage system," said a prominent Queen street resident to The Planet this morning. Householders throughout the city would surely be willing to pay so much a week or month to have a cart come round at intervals and empty their garbage and ash bins. I hear they are organizing one in London, and have just sent a delegation to Detroit to investigate the system there. Many farmers have offered to buy the garbage, so the city could almost make the system pay for itself. Chatham, I think, needs a garbage system and should have one."

Orders have already been filled for the shipment of Planet Souvenirs to England, France, Australia and New Zealand, besides nearly every city in the United States and Canada. The sale breaks all records.

Chatham has had three parades this week and on Sunday evening another will take place, the A. O. F., headed by the Bugle Band, going to the William St. Baptist Church, where Rev. Mr. Hoyt will deliver the annual sermon. Visiting brethren will be made welcome on Sunday afternoon at the hall over old library.

A very delightful feature of yesterday's beautiful floral parade by the ladies was the exquisite turnout of Mrs. A. B. McCoig, Mrs. W. M. Stone and Miss DeMarse. The carriage was beautifully decorated with flowers and foliage, in white, yellow and green, carnations and smilax and the horses daintily bedecked in pretty hunting. It was one of the handsomest pictures of the parade.

Queen street residents are very indignant over the failure of the floral parade to come up Queen street, where crowds lined the street to see it. The merchants are particularly annoyed over the matter. "They get our subscriptions and then give us the fishy eye," said a merchant this morning to a Planet representative. "Everything is shoved down on King street, and we fellows are sidetracked."

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

This is my day.

Kelly's famous slide wasn't in it with the awful slip Ald. McCoig made.

I guess those Algonac Aldermen baseball enthusiasts lost some confidence in their skill yesterday.

Age before beauty. The beauty show was to-day, when the Chatham young boys and girls paraded.

Dick Paxton, Scotchman and School Trustee, said that the Kilties would bring fine weather. Wonder how he knew.

You can't keep those blooming Scotchmen down. They're bound to be on top. The only fine day at the Re-union they get.

It takes the Maple City Aldermen pretty nearly as long to play a game of ball as it does to hold a meeting. What opportunities there are, though, to chew with the umpire.
