London Chronicle:—One of the shortest and most effective speeches ever made in the House of Commons was the result of the speaker speaking down in his maiden speech 'Lord Ashley, who sat in the Commons in 1865, before he succeeded his father as Earl of Shaftesbury, was a staunch supporter of a Bill to grant the services of counsel to prisoners tried for high treason. When he rose to speak he found himself dumb. The House cheered him as a new man, and by a desperate effort he uttered one sentence, 'If, sir, said he, I who now rise only to give my opinion on the Bill am so tongue-tied that I am unable to express what I propose to say, what must the condition of that man be, who, at his very assistance, is pleading for his life?' He sat down, having convinced his audience.

Nothing Like It for Colds. Mrs. Holland Ferguson, 100 St. J. St., writes: 'Dr. Chase's Syrup of Marshmallows and Turpentine has cured my children and myself of severe colds. We are never without it in the house. There is nothing like it for colds and throat trouble, and it is so soothing and pleasant to take, my children would drink a whole bottleful if they were permitted.'

Alliance Meeting. A meeting of the Kings County Temperance Alliance is to be held on Wednesday next, Jan. 31, at Forester Hall, Berwick, at 11 o'clock. It is earnestly hoped that there may be a full attendance as important matters are to come up for consideration. IRA L. COX, Secretary.
