

The Basis of good COOKERY

In Oxo you have a concentrated beef-food which admirably meets the everyday needs of cooking.

What was left over from yesterday can be converted—quite easily by using Oxo—into a variety of appetizing and nourishing dishes.

Oxo soups and gravies can be made in a moment, without meat, and with all the goodness and flavor of prime beef.

OXO MEDICINE

Take the bones from any cold fish left over, chop it, add two hard-boiled eggs, mix well together and put into a saucepan. Add 1 teaspoon of well-boiled rice, a teaspoonful of fresh butter, pinch of white pepper, dash of cayenne and salt, and a teaspoonful of bottled Oxo (or 1 Oxo Cube), mixed with a little hot water. Stir it well and serve very hot.

Golden Daffodils in bloom, large and small pots at reasonable prices. R. W. Hammond, Victoria street.

Little Baby Dunbar, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dunbar has been quite ill for the past week.

George F. Barbour, president of the St. John Board of Trade was in town for two or three days this week.

A. Labes, United States Consular agent in St. Leonard was here on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunbar and baby are guests at the home of Mr. Dunbar's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dunbar, Grand Falls Road.

The Allan Construction Company of St. Stephen has been awarded the contract by the P. & C. Works department for building the Boniface bridge at St. Basile.

On Saturday night Mrs. Gibson Merritt entertained a small party which included Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Scott, Mrs. J. M. Stevens, and Mr. and Mrs. Walker R. Belyea.

Flowers are delightful at all times, in winter when the world is covered with a mantle of snow especially so. Daffodils and hyacinths in pots at R. W. Hammond's.

The weather here Saturday and Sunday leave us no illusion that we are living in a tropical clime. Bitterly cold, with wind and drifts, make us think longingly of Florida and the South.

The International Pulp and Paper Company hope to get the lease of the Grand Falls again. Once bitten, twice shy. You can't fool all the people all of the time.

The farewell smoker, an account of which will be found in another column of our paper this week, to Walker Belyea was very enjoyable. Mr. Belyea said.

Dr. L. A. Cardet who is taking over Dr. H. R. Kav's practice while he is taking post graduate work in Toronto, arrived last week and is staying at the Grand Central hotel.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade on Monday night Walker Russell Belyea was elected as an additional member to proceed to Fredericton when the Edmundston delegation goes before the government in regard to the Grand Falls power question.

The cold weather of the last week made snow-shoeing ideal and each day large numbers indulging in winter sports were seen. Among the parties of last week was one composed of the Misses Florence Bernier, Jeanne LaPorte, Irene Poitras, Eva Ringette, Annie LaJoie, Madeline Nicole and Lizette LaJoie.

Mrs. Alex Dunbar entertained at an at home on Wednesday afternoon. Those present were Mrs. White, Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Picard, Miss Helen Stevens, Mrs. J. M. Stevens, Mrs. Rideout, Mrs. R. B. Mrs. Thomas Hutchison arrived home from Moncton last week. Mrs. Hutchison went to the General Hospital in Moncton for treatment before Christmas, and before convalescing she developed typhoid fever, necessitating her remaining there much longer than she originally intended.

Her many friends are glad to see her back, and rejoice in her renewed health.

The Observer extends its best wishes for much happiness to Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton. A great many people were surprised to hear the news of the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton arrived home the end of last week. The wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage at Woodstock on Feb. 2, the minister of that church, Rev. L. J. Alley, performing the ceremony. The bride was Miss Helen Driscoll of Woodstock. On the evening previous to the wedding Miss Driscoll was the recipient of a number of presents at a shower given by her by the Willing Workers class of the Reformed Baptist church at the residence of Mrs. Harry Irvine, South Queen st., Woodstock. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton will live on Victoria street and expect to be at home next week. The readers of the Observer, we are sure join with us in wishing them lots of happiness and success.
