A VALUABLE INDUSTRY

BALDWIN'S, LIMITED, WILL LOCATE IN CANADA.

Names of the Firm is One to Conjure With in the Old Country, Where They Employ an Army of 14,000 Workers, and a Large Branch Will Shortly Commence Operations in Toronto.

THE real facts in the story of the coming of a branch of the great Baldwins, Limited, the largest steel manufacturers of Great Britain, to the former site of the British Forgings Company, on the reclaimed land of Ashbridge's Bay, Toronto, are far more arresting than the sometimes weird rumors that have been circulating for some weeks past in the press of Canada. Some idea of the immense importance of this industry and what benefits may accrue to Toronto and the country from its foundation there was obtained in an interview with the representatives of this great firm, Roger Beck and J. C. Davies, the managing-director, who are making arrangements for the installation of the industry, the first buildings of which have already been started on the sandy land of the new manufacturing district.

Baldwins, Limited, is a name to conjure with in the Old Country and wherever there is demand for steel. It has an authorized capital of £7,000,000 sterling, with £5,000,000 called up. Its 13,000 to 14,000 workmen form an army larger than that which established the British Empire in India and other parts of the world. Its ramifications and property extend to every part of the British Isles, where it is entirely self-contained. "We have our own port, our own coal, which is mined in South Wales, our own iron-ore, and other foreign countries," said Mr. Beck.

"We have large deposits of silica, out of which heat-resisting bricks and material is made, and so on," said Mr. Davies. This magnitude expressed in terms of products that would be astounding Baldwins turn out 1,000,000 tons of steel ingots, and raise 1,350,000 tons of coal every year. They make ship plates, boiler plates, rails, black and galvanized sheets, and tin plates, which are rolled in their mills. Around the Baldwin plant there spring up a host of complementary and necessary industries, such as coal, bricks, fireclay, sulphur, and tin smelters, and a hundred other firms.

There, in brief outline, is the great firm of Baldwins. The problem of some men of imagination and patience was how to show that firm that it was needed in Canada, a fact the company clearly recognized, and how, especially, to have it located in Toronto. That feat was accomplished principally, Mr. Davies acknowledges, by Mr. Home-Smith and by Mr. E. J. Cousins of the Harbor Trust. "If it hadn't been for the determined effort of these two gentlemen," said Mr. Davies, "it would be very doubtful whether we should have embarked on this venture in Toronto. I should like to mention the names of these two gentlemen in particular. I should like to say, too, how well we have been received by the people of Toronto; how all the information possible has been placed before us; and how we have been assisted in every way."

"The whole project was opened up by our firm," said Mr. A. M. Russell, of the firm of Hugh Russell & Sons, Montreal. "We are agents in Canada for Baldwins, Ltd., and for a number of years, we have been advising them to locate out here, or it would be only a matter of time before the business they had established in Canada would be a thing of the past. We suggested that they should acquire the site of the British Forgings plant in Toronto, and establish a tin-plate and sheet industry, and manufacture there, thus recovering the business that was lost to the American manufacturers. Mr. Davies came out to Canada in April, and, in due course, the British Forgings plant was acquired." The final decision, Mr. Davies explained, was reached through two factors; the first, by the efforts of Mr. Cousins and Mr. Home-Smith in the purchase of the property; and the second, through the sympathy of Sir Adam Beck. "Although we have not been able altogether to have Sir Adam meet our desire," said Mr. Beck, "namesake of the Hydro-knight, still in our conference, we have been shown every consideration, and hope for the result."

"The attraction to us as a company to locate in Toronto," said Mr. Davies, "was this: Before the war we did a very considerable business in Canada, and, finding that the whole of this was being captured by the United States, it was natural that we should make an effort to restore it. What we're out for, in a few words, is to meet the needs of the whole of Canada in tin plate, lead-coated plates, and galvanized and black sheets."

"You can quite see the enormity of this plant, when you consider that the imports of these articles before the war into Canada were 50,000 tons of tin plates and 125,000 of black and galvanized sheets. To build that plant, you can see, will take a long time, but by next May we hope to be starting production." The foundations of the three shops, each 800 feet long, have already been begun; and, soon, there will be 2,500 men employed at a start.

"The first unit we have commenced upon," continued Mr. Davies, "will require 100,000 tons of steel per annum. Another industry that we find that Canada is lacking in is heavy steel castings. As we are very desirous that these heavy castings, which we shall require for the plant, we are already contemplating putting down, we are making arrangements to operate some of the electric steel furnaces to make these castings; otherwise we should have to go to the United States or to the Old Country for them."
