KEWANE RUTH BACK IN MICHIGAN

Arrival of a Horse in Maine With $100 Express Charges Arouses Suspicion.

[Boston Herald.] Kewanee Ruth, 2044, the mare which was "raced" hereabouts last season by Hal Outman, of Fond du Lac, Wis., is at present enjoying a spacious box stall in the stable of "Professor Sphinx" Richardson, the Flint, Mich., horseman who has gained an unenviable reputation in the art of "fining" horses.

After Outman and Kewanee Ruth disappeared from New England in the latter part of July of last year, the mare in some manner got into the possession of a confederate of Richardson, so she was sent away on another errand as "Minnie B." but was detected at Rockport, O., in October.

Since that time the harness world has been wondering as to the whereabouts of Kewanee Ruth, many expecting to hear of her turning up in some other section of the country with a brand new name. For the present, however, she is munching hay in the Michigan stable and it is quite probable that she will be closely watched for the next few months.

Following the Herald's expose of the "Professor's" attempt to place a pacer in the hands of a Marlboro horseman a few weeks ago, word comes from Barway, Alberta, which looked particularly well to the would-be purchaser, is in the stable of a horseman of that city who says he will campaign for the mare this year.

But be that as it may, there is a persistent report that Richardson has been operating in New England within the past few weeks. A Boston horseman who claims to know the man by sight asserts that he saw him in a large Maine city about three weeks ago and that simultaneously a horse was received there by express. The fact that the transportation charges were more than $100 means that the animal must have been shipped from a distance.

CARPENTIER MAY BE THE REFEREE

French Pugilistic Idol to Handle Big Fight at Toledo on July 4th.

New York, May 10.—Now that the site of the battleground for the Willard-Dempsey bout has been selected, the only thing that remains to be done is to name the referee. So far, promoter Tex Rickard has refrained from committing himself on this important question beyond declaring that under no circumstances would he himself be the third man in the ring.

Rickard now has a man in view that will please the sporting public and add a great deal to the attractiveness of the match. This man is Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion and war hero.

Now that the war is over Carpentier has been discharged from the army and is a free agent once more. The French idol lost practically all his fortune when the Germans took Lens, for Carpentier had invested his savings in the coal mines of that district. Consequently he now is in need of funds and there is no doubt that Rickard's offer will appeal to him.

Carpentier has had plenty of experience as a referee and always has done dignifiedly satisfactory work. It will be nothing new for him to referee and give a decision in a championship bout, as he was the third man in the ring when Jack Johnson fought Frank Moran in Paris. Carpentier proved to be an excellent referee on that occasion.

During the war Carpentier has kept his hand in by refereeing many bouts between soldiers. Those who have seen him officiate say that he always shows the utmost coolness and good judgment. The fact that Carpentier is a trained athlete in good condition will be a great advantage to him in handling such giants as Willard and Dempsey. His superior footwork will enable him to move about the ring and avoid interfering with the view of the spectators.

Another reason for Carpentier's selection is that his presence on the battleground will contribute a great deal to the picturesque quality of the match. It will add another interesting personality and furnish the newspaper correspondents with much copy, all of which will help advertise the match.

DIAMOND DUST.

Jack Adams, the Phillies' catcher, is among the best in the National League. He can throw like a shot. Ray Fisher has won three games in four for the Cincinnati Reds and Pat Moran has been tickled to death. What about the American League managers who waived claim to Fisher?

John McGraw has seven pitchers who are more than six feet tall—Cassner, Winters, Peritt, Benton, Barnes, George Smith and Toney. Trying to hit the ball over Cy Williams' head is like trying to hit it over Phil's Peak—New York Sun.

Hal Chase has not yet begun to hit the ball in his accustomed style, but his fielding is as brilliant as ever.

In Jess Barnes and Jean Dubois the Giants have two of the hardest hitting pitchers in the league.

Dave Shean's chances of ousting Jack Barry from the Red Sox infield are growing smaller day by day.

Alexandra Lost His First Game

SPORT—ALEXANDER LOST Chicago, May 9.—Grover Cleveland Alexander, in his first game since returning from France, was defeated today by the Cincinnati Reds, 1 to 0, in a pitchers' battle with Ray Fisher. Fisher held the Cubs to four hits and was given splendid support. In the eighth, a base on balls to Groh, Kestling's sacrifice and Magee's double produced the one run. The score:

Baseballs $1,000,000 Each.
New York, May 8.—Baseballs sold for $1,000,000 a piece at Wall Street today. Campaigning for the Victory Loan, Christy Mathewson, Arthur Fletcher and Larry Doyle, of the New York Giants, invaded the street and auctioned off a score of horseshoes bearing their autographs. Purchasers who paid $1,000,000 a piece for balls were John D. Rockefeller, J. P. Morgan and J. W. Harriman. The others were sold for smaller sums. The rally netted more than $10,000,000.

PALACE JUNIORS NOW LEAD LEAGUE

Five Extra Boxes Required to Decide One of the Games Played Last Night.

Two games were rolled last night in the Fredericton City Bowling League. In the first game Chestnut's and the Palace Juniors split even and in the second game Chestnut's won three points from the Celestials. In the last string of the first game the Palace Juniors and Chestnut's tied. It was decided for each man on the teams to roll two boxes each. After rolling the two boxes the teams were still tied. Two more were rolled to another tie. It was then decided to each roll one more and at the end of the fifth box Chestnut's were ahead and won their second point.

The results of last night's rolling put the Palace Juniors at the top of the league and Chestnut's have moved from the eighth position to the fourth. The scores made in last night's games were as follows:

Eddie Sicking will come in very handy with the Phillies until Dave Bancroft gets back into the game. Ernie Krueger, who is now the Robins' first string catcher, is a mighty dangerous batsman.

If Ed Koney continues at his present pace the Robins fans will quickly forget Jake Daubert. Koney is steady at first and is hitting the ball hard.

New York Sun.

There was a rumor recently that the Giants wanted to make a deal for either Rube Marquard or Sherrod Smith. Owner Ebbets says that there is not a chance for the Giants to get either one of the left handers.

POP GEERS TRIES COME BACK STUNT

Plans to Send Napoleon Down the Big Line in the Free-for-Alls.

"Pop" Geers, who is still prepping his stable at the old North Memphis track, is going to try a comeback stunt with the big Tennessee pacer Napoleon Direct, 1:59 1/4, this season, as he has named him for the free-for-all sweepstakes at the Kalamazoo meeting the coming season.

"Pop" brought the big horse out in 1914, and while he didn't look like much at the start of the season, he won regularly and before the season was over was beating the best of the stake paces.

The two following seasons he was a star in the free-for-all pacing classes, losing but one race in 1916 and taking a record of 1:59 1/4 in beating the great Single G. at Columbus.

This was the first time that "Pop" had ever driven a horse as fast as the 2:00 mark; since that time he has driven one other and, curiously enough, it was this same Single G. which the veteran gave a record of 1:59 1/4 during the Toledo meeting last summer.

Millard Sanders trained Napoleon Direct last year and got him up to a mile around 2:03 at the Lexington track, but the stallion was not started, and now he has been turned over to moad master for the final try.

MITCHELL-DUNDEE BOUT A DRAW

Milwaukee, Wis., May 10.—Ritchie Mitchell, of Milwaukee, and Johnny Dundee, of New York, lightweights, fought ten rounds last night. According to some newspaper critics the contest was a draw, others give Mitchell a slight shade and a number declared the bout to Dundee. Neither man was in errors at any time, and both finished strong.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL TEAM WERE BEATEN

In a baseball game played on College Field last night the High School team defeated the Normal School team 19 to 2.
