Our Country with its United Interests.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Vol. XX.--No. 2

Newcastle, N. B., Wednesday, October 27, 1886.

better days."

WHOLE No. 990.

COMPLETE.

It is impossible to advertise all the different articles I have imported this season. I have received within the past few days an immense stock of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, and would call the attention of intending purchasers to the following Jab Lot of CORSETS, Invincible 57c., former price 75. Blanche 77c., do. Ladies' Under Vests, Collars, Cuffs, Handkerchiefs, etc. GLOVES of all kinds. Feather Trimming 20c per yard.

Fancy Fluffs for Draperies, Cord to match. Kensington Silk. Tam O'Shanters, Wool Dresses for Children. Gents' Collars and Cuffs.

A very fine a sortment of MILLITERY.

B. FAIREY'S, Newcastle.

Chatham. New Brunswick.

Wm. JOHNSTON, Proprietor.

GOOD SAMPLE ROOMS

HOTEL BRUNSWICK.

MONCTON, NEW BRUNSWICK,

CARD OF THANKS.

The Subscriber wishes to return his sincere thanks to the travelling public and others for their patronage during the past ten years. He now wishes to announce that he has sold out the business and good will of the Wilbur House to Mr. T. F. Keary, and trusts that the patron-

KEARY HOUSE

(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.)

BATHUEST, - - N. B.

THOS. F. KEARY - Proprietor

This Hotel has been entirely refitted and refurnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Hotel. Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and salmon pools within eight miles. Excellent salt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men.

TERMS $1.50 per day; with Sample Rooms $1.75.

SAMPLE'S DOMINION

Horse Liniment!

Sample, Parker & Co. Proprietors, Upper Musquodobit. Nova scotta.

THE BEST EXTERNAL REMEDY before

Forsyth, Sateliffe & Co., Wholesale Agents for Halifax

One Carload Sparham

FIRE PROOF ROOFING COMPY'S

In Store and for Sale by

R. R. CALL

NEWCASTLE.

Wholesale by E. Lee Street, Newcastle. Feb. 12, 1885.

Bathurst, Oct. 1, '86.

Sold by all Druggists

MANAGER

J. H. WILBUR

PROPRIETOR.

Bathurst, Sept. 25th, 1886.

merit the same in the friure.

Oct. 12, 1885.

Newcastle, Oct. 16, 1886.

L.w and Collection Office CANADA HOUSE, IVI. ADAMS Barrister & Attorney at Law, Solicitor in Bankruptcy, Conveyancer, Notary Public, etc.

Considerable outlay has been made on the house to make it a first class Hotel and travellers will find it a desirable temporary residence will find it a desirable temporary residence to the second of the sec Agent.

landing and Telegraph and Post Offices.
The proprietor returns thanks to the Public for the encouragement given him in the past, and will endeavor by courtesy and attention to Agent.

Office: NEWCASTLE, N.B. L. J. TWEEDIE,

ATTORNEY & BARRISTER AT LAW. NOTARY PUBLIC, CONVEYANCER, &c.,

OFFICE Old Bank Montreal. JOHN MCALISTER, Barrister & Attorney-at-Law,

NOTARY PUBLIC, Conveyancer, &c., CAMPBELLTON, N. B. May 7, 1885.

WILLIAM MURRAY, Barrister & Attorney-at-Law,

NOTARY PUBLIC, CAMPBELLTON, N. B. OFFICE: MURRAY'S BUILDING, WATER STREET.

J D. PHINNEY. Barrister & Attorney at Law, NOT ARY PUBLIC, &c., RICHIBUCTO. N. B. OFFICE-COURT HOUSE SQUARE.

May 5, 1884.

in a satisfactory manner.

GEO. STABLES, Auctioneer & Commission Merchant NEWCASTLE, - - N. B. Goods of all kinds handled on Commission d prompt returns made. Will attend to Auctions in Town and Country

Newcastle, Aug. 11, '85. F. L. PEDOLIN, M. D.; PHYSICIAN and SURGEON. NEWCASTLE, N. B.

OFFICE at house formerly occupied by M. OFFICE HOURS from 9 to 12 a.m., 1 to 6 p. m., 7 to 10 p. m. DR. McDONALD,

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON, OFFICE ANDRESIDENCE Corner Duke and St. John Street .; Opposite Canada House,

CHATHAM . . N. B. Chatham June 3, 1881. DR. T. W. POMROY. 29STUYVESANTST.,

NEW YORK CITY, U. S. unable to call on him personally, can do so by letter. Persons wishing to consult the Dr., and Aug. 24, 1883.

S. R. FOSTER & SON.

CUT NAILS AND CUT SPIKES,

TACKS, BRADS, FINISHING NAILS, SHOE WILS, LO STEAM BRICK WORKS.

Office, Warehouse and Manufactory GEORGES' STREET, St. John, N. B.

Clifton House. Princess and 143 Germain Street, ST. JOHN, N. B.

A. N. PETERS, PROPRIETOR. Heated by tharughout. Prompt at tention and moderate charges. Telephone communication with all parts of the city. April 20 '85.

REMEDY: FOR MAN & BRAST C. C. RICHARDS & CO. C. C. RICHARDS & CO., Sole Proprietors. It is an invaluable Hair Renewer and cleans the Scalp of all Dandruff.

The Dreadful Disease Defled. GENTS :- I have used your Minard's Lini ment successfully in a severe case of croup in my family, and I consider it a remedy no household can afford to be without.

> Cape Island, May 14, 1886. MINARD'S LINIMENT is for sale everywhere. PRICE 25 cents.

J. F. CUNNINGHAM.

THE GREAT

MERNAL TO EXTERN

SCROFULA

Humors,

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindale, O. I have used Ayer's I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn. Erysipelas,

Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured. Canker, and Catarrh.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Aver's Can be cured by the blood with began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.

—Susan L. Cook, 909
Albany St., Boston Albany st., Bos Highlands, Mass. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.— Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

mesbury,

Rockport, Me.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

Infallible Blood Purifier, Tonic, Diurectic Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Billiousness, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, all Kidney Diseases, Scrofula, Diseases peculiar to Females, Salt Rheum Exzema and all Skin Liseases, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach and Heart Burn. Purely Vegetable.

JOHN C. WEST & CO. Toronto Ont For sale by GEO. C. ALLEN, Newcastle, and G. E. FROST, Campbellton.

SKINNER'S Carpet Warerooms. 59 KING STREET.

This Roofing will make or re-New Carpets, New Oilcloths, New Linoleums pair any kind of roof. Just Received for Fall Trade: 6 bales New Brussels Carpets; 6 " "Tapestry do.

4 Rolls English Oilcloth, New Designs: JOHN J. MILLER. The above is the first installment of my

FALL STOCK, and as it contains some very novel designs, intending purchasers would do well to examine them. St. John, Oct. 5, 1885. A. O. SKINNER. MIRAMICHI which will be disposed of at low rates.

BRICK MANUFACTURING

The makers are located near a siding of the intercolonial Railway. All orders attended to comptly. Brick delivered f. o. b. cars, or at wharf.
Address all orders to H. S. FLETT, Superintendent GEO. A. FLETT, Proprietor.

Nelson, Miramichi, N. B., Oct. 20, '85.

150,000 BRICK

25 Butts No. 1 CROWN 12s. NAPOLEON CHEWING 50 "MYRTLE NAVY SMOKING. 50 "LILY, BRIGHT SMOKING. 250 lbs. MYRTLE NAVY, Cut, 2 oz. Pkgs. TO ARRIVE. 25 Butts PILOT, SMOKING.

TOBACCO.

JUST RECEIVED IN STORE :

AT For sale low by

A. J. BABANG & CO.

Belected Biterature.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

I was present one day Where both layman and priest Worshipped God in a way That was startling at least. Over thirty in place On the stage in a row,

As is often the case In a ministrelay show. In a uniform clad Was each one of them seen And a banjo they had And a loud tambourine And they sang and they shouted Their spasmodic joys,

That God loves a noise, And their phrases though all Not deficient in points, A grammarian would call Rather weak in the joints.

Just as if they ne'er doubted

And the aspirate sound Was adroitly misused, And the language all round Was assaulted and bruised, While the tunes that they sung In bewildering throngs Had been married when young To hilarious songs, And the folks in that place

Who this loud racket made,

Were not bounded by race Or condition or shade. How I love my own meeting, My own cosy pew, While mentally greeting Friends quietly true; And the Gospel dispensed With a dignified grace, Born of reason, clear-sensed And a faith firm of place, I love the trained voices

That float down the aisles Till the whole church rejoices With God's sweetest smiles. Have no sneer understood For the rest, when I say I had rather get good In a civilized way.

So this meeting had grated

Somewhat on my heart, And ere long I had wanted, I thought, to depart; But a young man arose, Looking sin-drenched and grim, As if rainstorms of woes Had descended on him; No such face you'd discern

In a leisurely search f von took a chance tu Through a civilized church; But his words, though not choice, To my feelings came nigh; There was growth in his voice, There was hope in his eye.

And he said, I'm a lad, With a life full of blame Every step has been bad, Every hour was a shame : And for drink I would pawn All within my control, From the clothes 1 had on To my heart and my soul I have crunk the foul stuff In my parents' hot tears; I have done crime enough For a hundred black years, But I came to this place

You can never afford

If these women I've seen

To leave these men behind

Should be pelted or cursed I would step in between,

I would take the blow first

From the lowest depth down

TWO OF A TRADE.

WILL CARLETON

They who draw souls above.

Will not fail of God's love.

strength and temper.

"What is it, Belle?"

market.

Or to shine in His crown.

For the help that I craved I have seen Jesus' face And I know I am saved. Then the banjo struck in And the tambourine jingled; There rose such a din That my blood fairly tingled.

The vocalists screamed Till quite red in the face But somehow it all seemed Not at all out of place. Now denouements immense Do not somehow take hold, Or dramatic events Reach my heart as of old, But my smiles could not hide My fast gathering tears,

And I cheered, laughed and cried As I had not for years, That had been fifteen years before that And I thought not amiss, Are this tumult and shout Folks who save men like this Know what they are about. You who fight with God's sword For the good of your kind, Helen Durand had, from early child- menced,-Not a thousand miles from the Empire playmate of Belle Haldane, although a father's memory, there is no truth in the city. They spent Friday afternoon, when their beauty and utility consequently un-City, in a beautiful residence overlooking few years her senior. Brother Egbert, rumor that you contemplate bringing the President was away, in this way.— appreciated. The aim of the whole dethe Hudson, there reigned supreme a charming widow with a still more ador- had done his sister, with no thought that preside over our home, which—"

that Helen Durand the dressmaker to preside over our home, which—"

ing by special arrangement of friends therefore the combination in the large On the morning of the fifteenth of hero in her heart of hearts.

July, 1884, Mr. Egbert Haldane, the When Helen was eighteen her father maker. Madam, your marked success in able feature of the cottage now occupied appointed me at the eleventh hour, be- charming costumes of the indefatigable the President, Assistant Secretary Fair- vide themselves with an apparatus for cutmust of necessity give some attention to remuneration for the labor.

her own dress for the occasion. She refers me to that French creature on the a week before the opening of this story, the hunt, and the mountaineers were the contents of this little box are emptied avenue, who she knows will suit me much had found Helen in tears, and her mother ready to receive them when they arrived into a suitable receptacle, kept at home, better, etc., etc. Suit me much better! not a little agitated. He forgot the fact at Hanging Rock, three miles from Ron- and toward the end of the year the entire Very likely; but who wants to-to-" that she was a young lady of twenty-two, ney, at 4 o'clock Friday morning. By collection of cigar-tips is forwarded to "To pay an artist's price for work and not a miss of seven, and in his old daybreak they were ready for the chase. Stockholm. There they are sold at aucwhen for one quarter of the sum you brotherly manuer asked the cause of her A large party of natives, with a fine pack tion and the proceeds employed in procan get it equally well done by an old distress, whereupon she commenced sob- of dogs, went up into the fastnesses of viding a sumptuous banquet for poor friend and schoolmate who has the mis- bing painfully. As Mrs. Durand was no the mountain to start up the game. The children. At this banquet, which usually fortune to belong to that objectionable more communicative, he finally mastered President, Mr. Fairchild and Col. La- occurs at Christmas or New Year, there class, 'the deserving poor who have seen the situation by forcibly seating the young mont, were put upon "buck-boards" and is an illuminated tree on which presents man's voice which brought an angry flush he demanded the whys and wherefores of the deer off his course and he made for ed in Germany and Great Britain during to the brow of the younger lady, and a the case. keen dart of surprise into the mild blue The mother, pitying her daughter's ins was stationed. He was a fine fellow the society are now very large. It is eyes of the gentle widow.

now, and rising abruptly, he left the been present and had added,room. A few minutes later a maid serthe 'filthy lucre' with which her halfbrother abundantly provided her-for that is the relationship existing between of course, step-mamma to the grave old

Well—the artless creature's interest in young Egbert rapidly assumed a maternal aspect. She married the widower under a widow she was as poor as she had been expected you to offer yourself as an anti-

It is possible that visions of wily seamstresses had floated before the mental vision of young Egbert's grandfather; mercilessly cutting off succeeding wives and offspring from any part thereof.

It was a very bitter combination of entertained for an instant.

no step-mother was ever more thoroughly when she first noticed the superb diamond ed in a matter of this kind." been Mrs. Haldane to those of her former Poor woman! she knew she was van- ports that it has been recently discovered Whether the enchantment of that early love had influenced all his life, or whether his faith in feminine purity and truth his faith in had received a fatal shock, had been long upon the eve of the before mentioned never been brought to his attention.— ash has been placed and contains thirty and ably discussed by more than one social gathering, he found the ladies of The only definite charge that he knew of, small panels, showing the smaller woods, worthy matron with eligible or at least his household awaiting him in their he said, was miscalculation on the part, and also several of the larger kinds, which are not sufficiently abundant. marriagable daughters, and there had common sitting room. been times when Mrs. Haldane had The widew had decided that a high in excessive displacement, but that he trembled before a possibly successful moral ground was the proper stand for had not heard of any such error. her under the circumstances, and comrival. But these were long passed.

hood, been the constant companion and "Egbert, I hope, out of regard for your the young girl had enshrined him as her master of the afore-mentioned residence, died, after having lost his entire pro- the position renders me averse to going (or perhaps I should qualify that descrip- perty, leaving as his daughter's sole in- outside of your old profession for your tive clause, and say the owner of the resi- heritance an invalid mother, with a small successor. Only as Miss Durand suggests, dence aforesaid,) was seated at his morn-cottage near the Haldane estate. But "Two of a trade seldom agree," and Roseing meal-a handsome man of distinguish, the brave girl never faltered in her wood Cottage will be ready for yourself his cigar, before lighting, and threw it central section is placed a poplar board ed appearance, aged forty. Opposite him thorny path; she told her friends it was and Belle by the end of the mouth." sat the widow, whose youthful appearance necessary for her to work, and she should He arose to leave. would have belied her thirty-eight sum- be glad of their patronage. She was a "One thing more: the continuation of vanced as a consequence, he does not genmers, had not the young lady on her left natural genius in the making of of artistic the allowance I am now making you will erally dispose of the ends in this way. shown such a wonderful resemblance to costumes and one morning, a few weeks depend upon the manner in which you On the counter of nearly every place her maternal parent, although the widow after Mr. Durand's death, a placard, bear-treat the lady who has condescended to where cigars are sold is a little machine was a childish, clinging creature, while ing the inscription, "Helen Durand, honor me with her hand." the daughter was a perfect Juno in size, Fashionable Dres smaker," was a notice-It was an angry exclamation from Miss by Miss Helen and her mother. Belle which recalled Mr. Haldane's at- Mrs. Haldane was shocked at the un-tention from the all-absorbing stock ladylike business qualities of her daughter's early friend, and would have cut the acquaintance altogether had not her a hunting trip near Ronney, West Vir- or granulated smoking tobacco. "What is it, indeed! It's what one al- step-son insisted upon the members of his ginia, Saturday morning. They had a evident confusion, hastily explained that and made a noble fight. While he was now proposed to form a similar associa-"Why, Egbert, do you know I believe Mrs. Haldane had just left, after being battling with the dogs in the water it was tion in the United States. you are glad of it—glad that I shall have more than usually unkind and insulting. dangerous to shoot, lest the dogs would In several European countries charred to pay that horrid French person her She had intimated that she did not ap- be hit, and in the wildness of their ex- cigar "stumps" have a commercial value.

It was the gentleman's turn to flush her present line of conduct. Belle had President got to them. The saddle of the for making nicotine water, which is said that is the relationship existing between these two, while the youthful widow was, mortification, instantly released her— President expressed himself greatly pleas- taurants, and wine-shops, ready to pick. whereupon she rushed from the room. "Mrs. Haldane is doubtless correct, Ronney again. There was a time, however, when she Mrs. Durand, and you are to be censured seamstress had dared to raise her beautiHelen—that is, if you—if she—will overbeen greatly misrepresented and his illinto cigarettes. A portion of it is con ful eyes to the wealthy heir of Eldridge look this unkindness on the part of my ness exaggerated by the papers of that verted into suuff. The leaves in cigars Place, and he, it was said, had almost sister and her mother. Will you tell her city. "The trouble is," said General deprived of the ashes and burned por succumbed to their magic, when it became evident that Mr. Haldane had also came evident that Mr. Haldane had also and see what can be done about settling sidert is morbidly sensitive about the and cigarette ends left on plates and sell moneyed man of the firm, and found to that little scene was gotten up this morn- eum after death as to have his stomach NEW BRUNSWICK AT THE EXHIher intense chagrin, a year later, that as ing for your especial benefit, and mamma turned inside out before the public, and ma's endorsement of it. Don't come down that they might see him as he is, a more agricultural and game trophies is the any more, please.

me go !"

Yours gratefully, HELEN DURAND."

at any rate, the vast estate was given in trust to the son for the grandson and Durand was precisely the young lady to official duties. He has been occupied tral gallery of the Canadian Court under namesake of the old gentleman, thus stand by any decision, once it was made. with nothing but purely official work the personal supervision of Sir Charles As for Mr. Haldane, he was convinced since he came back to the department, that he had always intended to mercel and he applied himself to this stockly that he had always intended to marry and has applied himself to this steadily bition. A more pleasing combination of There was a stormy scene a few weeks Helen. Most certainly! Why had he during the hours he assigns himself for nature and art could not well be devised after the interment of the husband and called upon Mrs. Durand and her daugh- the purpose. His report occupies a con- The largest display has been eco father. It required the assistance of ter every week for years? Of course he siderable portion of his attention. This endeavor has been made most successfully two lawyers to convince the bereaved had delayed the matter somewhat, but and other department duties keep him to combine every natural condition of the widow that henceforth her sole depen- -well-the young lady's emphatic re- busy. It is thought that he is getting woods as well as every artificial applicadence and that of her child was the charity fusal rendered him doubly certain of his stronger from being occupied. of the young man she had jilted for his father's wealth.

It was a very bitter combination of the variety of the possibility that week that the reports that the ship builders of the country take no interest calculated into of the trophy embraces all the large or commercial woods which are sufficient-week that the reports that the ship builders of the country take no interest calculated into of the trophy embraces all the large or commercial woods which are sufficient-week that the reports that the ship builders of the country take no interest.

circumstances, you will allow; but when It is needless to say that the mother's in building upon the proposed new naval sections. The right wing comprises the upon his return from abroad, (where he strong approval, the lover's earnest plead-vessels are erroneous. "Just the concluding hemlock, red and white pine, went immediately upon his father's mar- ing, and the young girl's long concealed trary is true," he said. "Every ship black and white spruce, hackman riage,) he found a little blue-eyed sister, regard for her suitor, at length outweigh- building concern of consequence in the cedar and fir. The central section is he accepted the situation with a very ed her objections to the 'antidote,' and at country," he said, "has asked for the made up of the dense woods such as black he accepted the situation with a very good grace, making the widow a hand-some allowance, and asking her to preside first figured as a beauty and a belle—such with the plans as fast as they can be blue black and white birch, rock and scarlet maples, and they are being supplied and beech. The left wing consists of with the plans as fast as they can be blue black and white birch, rock and scarlet maples, and they are being supplied with the plans as fast as they can be blue black and white birch, rock and scarlet maples, and they are being supplied with the plans as fast as they can be blue black and white birch, rock and scarlet maples, and they are being supplied and beech. The left wing consists of black and white birch, rock and scarlet maples, and they are being supplied and beach. over his home "until I see fit to install is the effect of happiness on most feminine printed. I think that sixteen concerns elm, butternut, bass-wood and mortals.

ing-if die she must.

"Which for so many years have been who make the appointment. so regally presided over by another dress-

Washinnton Actter. (From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18, 1886.

cause she has, as she hypocritically puts young worker, and the widow did not child, Col. Lamont, Commissioner of In-ting off the ends of cigars, with which it, accepted Mrs. Van Hyden's pressing hesitate to pronounce her prices exor- ternal Revenue Miller and Mr. Thomas is combined a box for holding the fraginvitation to be present at the party, and bitant when she modestly asked a fair J. Bivins, Mr. Miller's private secretary. ments. This is carried in the pocket and Mr. Bivins had been up in the moun- can, if desired, be attached to or made a Egbert Haldane, calling at the cottage tains a day or two before arranging for part of a cigar-case. At convenient times

There was a quiet satire in the gentle- arms to her side, (a trick of former days,) it happened, a ranting bull frightened es of this association have been establish-prove of their receiving so many uncere- citement Mr. Bivins and one of the resi- They are bought by shepherds for mak-"No, my dear," mildly interposed the monious calls from himself, who, though widow, "you misjudge Eghert; he is a model man, was probable no better than nearly up to their armpits and killed the nurpose of burning in green-houses or only glad that Miss Durand will be preother men, etc., etc., and ended by saying buck. Mr. Bivins sent the first ball for steeping in water that is used for only glad that Miss Durand will be pre-sent at the Van Hydens' on Monday that she really must withdraw her pa-through his neck and he was soon brought syringing plants infested by ants or other through his neck and he was soon brought syringing plants infested by ants or other vant brought in a check for two hundred dollars for Belle, with the request that she allowed it to supplement her last quarter's allowance. That young lady was jubilant, for she dearly loved to spend the "filthy lucre" with which her half. me go!"

promised the President another day of tobacco can be seen by the fire on them. The collectors accordingly throng thea-

There was a time, however, when she had aspired to a different relationship. When Egbert Haldane was twenty and Nettie Brown eighteen, the poor youn settless had dared to raise her heautimatters." And he hastily took his de-comments of the newspapers upon his them to dealers or manufacturers. Thus parture.

Two hours later he received this note:—

illness, and has a horror of having his alments advertised. He had just as alments advertised. He had just as remains of the luxuries of the rich. "Mr. Haldane:-Doubtless you thought soon have his skeleton hung up in a musaccurate idea of his condition might be gained by the public."

It was delightful to see the consternawith a view of building, and there never twenty inches in diameter, and three fees July morning '84, and it is safe to say tion depicted on the widow's countenance before has been so much interest display- in height, while the sides of the panels attentive to the wishes of a son than had gleaming on her dressmaker's little hand. In speaking about the published re> of Chief Constructor Wilson, resulting Mrs. Cleveland and her mother, Mrs. in these panels are useful in the arts, for > Folsom, frequently take a long walk chemical and medicinal purposes and for about the north-western outskirts of the ornamental and shade trees. Many of

THE CIGAR-END INDUSTRY. Not long ago the average American away. Since an internal stamp duty was placed on cigars, and their price has adda."—Cor. to Montreal Star.

the river near the point where Mr. Biv- the past few years, and the revenues of buck was presented to the President, and "You cannot, of course, expect Egbert" Mr. Miller now has the antlers in his large blossoms.

ed with the trip, and said he would visit up the fragments of cigars and cigarettes that the patrons of these places throw into the street. The boulevards and

The greatest feature in the whole of as a maiden, while her infant daughter inherited not one cent of the vast wealth which for generations had descended to the prescription, notwithstanding mam- would admit the reporters at intervals, so in the whole Canadian Court after the

GREAT WOOD TROPHY. which was prepared in St. John by Secretary Manning is not suffering any direction of the Provincial Government into as small a space as possible and an have already asked for detailed plans At the base of each of these fifteen large are formed of saplings, or young tr the same woods resting upon turned bases Poor woman! she knew she was van-quished, but she determined to die fight-that the new cruiser Atlanta is structur-these trees. These again are surmounted ally defective and that her displacement by a scroll saw and carved bracket all of

> FOR PURPOSES OF TRADE or of sufficient importance for the large panels. All of those, however, embraced therefore the combination in the large panels shows the slash and rift of the grain as well as an end section shows its density of grain, annual growth depth of sap, bark, etc. The cornices which surunt these panels form one of the pleasing features in the structure and are composed principally of bark and specimens itizen bit off or cut off the small end of of each wood in mouldings. Above the

THE DOCTRINE OF RETRIBU-

for cutting off the end before the smoker delivered an address to-day in Rev. Dr. places the cigar in his mouth. The tips delivered an address to-day in Rev. Dr. Parker's City Temple on "Pulpit Work." fall into a receptacle, from which they He dwelt upon the aid the newspaper are collected at the close of each day.— rendered to the preacher. A number of In some cases they are disposed of to persons who smoke pipes, and in others and his answers caused intense excitement, The President and party returned from they are sold to manufacturers of fine-cut several divines rising to their feet and or granulated smoking tobacco.

Stockholm is the headquarters of a loudly protesting against his views. Mr. Bescher retorted that any man believing ways gets by patronizing the deserving household treating her with all the courfine day's sport Friday killing considerbenevolent cigar-tip-saving association, society or smiled was a monster. He poor who have seen better days! Here tesy of former years. They obliged him able game and one fine buck. The party of which the king of Sweden is presipreferred working through a fear of the this abominable Helen Durand has distorted the extent of ordering many of their leaving Washington Thursday night were dent. All members of this society probarbaric doctrine of retribution.