REMARKABLE STATEMENTS OF A BISHOP

"Harder to Win War Because Moral Sense of Nations Blunted by Forgetting God."

London, Eng.—The Bishop of Oshelmsford (Rev. J. E. Watt-Ditchfield), preaching at St. Paul's Cathedral, said we were bound to win the war because we were on the side of righteousness, justice, and freedom. But if we wanted to win it quickly we must make the instrument fit for the work. When an instrument was blunted it took longer to accomplish its work. All nations had in one way or other forgotten God. The moral sense of nations had been blunted from causes which he enumerated thus, in the case of—

Russia, because of her persecution of the Jews.

Belgium, because of the ill-treatment of the Congo natives.

France, because of her overthrow of God and religion.

And the moral sense of England had been blunted because of—

The opium traffic forced on China.

Her refusal to interfere when Armenians were massacred.

The increase of Sunday pleasure-seeking, drinking, and immorality.

The unhealthy public spirit as shown in the press.

The neglect of the housing question and the begrudging of money for old age pensions and removal of slums.

The failure of the church to win men.

The miserable party spirit that wasted time over non-essentials, such as the vestment controversy.

The craze for ease—short sermons, short services, etc.

If we had had a clean instrument we would have been able to cut more quickly. We had to become a clean instrument. He advocated churches open all day long for intercession and holy communion on all Sundays and holy days.

Occasions do not make a man frail, but they show what he is.—Thomas a Kempis.

We have all free access to all that is great and good and happy, and carry within ourselves a key to all the treasures which Heaven has bestowed upon us. We starve in the midst of plenty, groan under infirmities with the remedy in our own hands.—William Law.
