

Boston Won in the Ninth. Speaker Scored Winning Run With a Homer.

Boston, Oct. 13.—Tri Speaker, the Boston outfielder, only made one hit in the third game of the post-season series with the New York Giants when the teams met on the Huntington avenue grounds yesterday afternoon, but it was a four sacker in the ninth inning and gave the locals the run necessary to win the contest. For eight innings the Red Sox held the lead on the visitors, but in the ninth half weakened and three runs were the result, trying the score at four all. The first two Boston men to come up in the local's half of the inning were quickly retired, McConnell on strikes and Lord on a fly to McCormick. Two strikes and three balls had been registered on Speaker, the third batter to face Crandall. Then he met one squarely and sent the ball on a line to right field. It struck the ground ten feet in front of McCormick and bounding over his head, rolled to the fence. Speaker dashed around the bases and as the ball was relayed toward the place, Schlei moved down toward the third, the fleet Bostonian passing him as the sphere bounced over his head.

The Boston team outfit and outplayed the Giants, the latter being unable to connect with Hall's slow ones at the proper moment. Ten safe hits were made off Ames and four runs tallied before McGraw decided that it was time to do something. So Meyers was sent to bat for the twirler in the eighth inning and Crandall took up the work. The attendance was 5,862, and the gross receipts $2,834.25, of which sum the national commission receives $282.42, the clubs $1,029.34, and the players divide $1,530.49. The score: Boston (Am.) “Gunboat” Smith Floors Jack Johnson.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—“Gunboat” Smith, a seaman from one of the U. S. cruisers, anchored in this harbor, scored a knockdown in a four-round bout last night, with Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight. Coming out of a clinch in the last round, the sailor swung a right overhand chop which took Johnson flush on the chin.

The champion went down flat on his back and when he recovered his feet he was so dazed that his manager cut the round short.

English Biliards.

George Peters, the champion English biliard player, would like to arrange a match with George Cowman. Peters is willing to concede Cowman a handicap of 250 points in a 1,000 point game, the match to be played at the H. B. & A. Club. These gentlemen are quite the cleverest exponents of the game in these parts, and a match between them will create considerable interest.

BOWLING.

The Commercial twenty man team will stack up against 20 of the H. B. & A. C. players at the latter club to-night. In the last match played between these teams the H. B. & A. C. won by the smallest of margins, and a great deal of interest is being taken in the match to-night.

LAYMEN'S CONFERENCE.

A district conference of the Laymen's Missionary Association of St. Catharines will be held in St. Thomas' Church, Anglican, in that city to-morrow. The speakers will include Mr. C. P. Perry, Anglican minister; Rev. A. L. Huddleston, formerly of Wentworth Baptist Church, this city; Rev. Dr. Crothers and Rev. Dr. Radcliffe will also take part.

WHITE GIRLS Should Not be Employed in Chinese Laundries.

Toronto, Oct. 12.—“It's no use arguing,” remarked Mr. Justice Latchford in refusing bail to Charles Lee Hing at Osgoode Hall to-day. “The views of morality here and in China are quite different; he had no business employing a white girl only thirteen years of age.”

Charles Lee Hing, a widower, 32 years of age, was committed for trial at Stratford on October 2 by Police Magistrate James O'Loane. The charge against the Chinese is rape, the offence being alleged to have taken place in 1907 while the complainant, Daisy Reid, now 15 years of age, was working in his laundry. Charles Lee Hing, who is a Christian and attends Knox Church, Woodstock, denies that there had been any impropriety between him and the girl. He says he offered the girl $4 a week and her board if she came to work for him at Woodstock.

According to her affidavit, Daisy Reid went to work for him in Woodstock on September 27, and worked till Friday, when she left. “Something seemed to tell me to leave him; that it was wrong to stay,” she said. “I don't know what came over me to go. Dr. Macklin told me that I was drugged.”

There are letters filed with the court purporting to be from Daisy Reid to Charles Lee Hing, though she denies that she wrote them. The case comes up for trial at the assizes commencing November 15.

BUSTLE AS A BANK.

Woman Didn't Keep Money There, Giving It Back to Mother.

Pekin, Ill., Oct. 13.—A bustle used as a bank insured the safety of $850 belonging to Mrs. Violet Wolf. She blushed as she told how she had protected her little fortune. “I could not afford to lose the money,” she said, “and I took no chance. For some time I kept it buried in a can under the house, but I feared some one might have seen me put it there, so I decided to sew it in my bustle. Later, however, I gave the money back to my mother to keep for me.” Mrs. Wolf is suing her sister, Mrs. Maggie Potter. When the mother died, her trunk, in which she kept her valuables, was opened and only a small sum was found. Most of the $850 which Mrs. Wolf guarded so sedulously was missing, and she brought suit for an accounting.

BOY SUICIDES.

No Reason Apparent For Act of Michigan Youth.

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 13.—Reni Likkonen, aged 14, placed a gun to his heart and deliberately pulled the trigger. He was killed instantly. There is no reason apparent for the boy's act. Likkonen, with a companion, aged 10, went hunting to-day in the woods back of Hancock. On their return home they started playing and it was then that Likkonen shot himself.

CASITORIA.

Will Go Free.

Frank Fenton, who is now out on bail in Washington, D. C., charged with stealing $1,250 from two Hamiltonians at the Hamilton Jockey Club track last Wednesday, will not be brought here. When his bail expires on October 21 he will be allowed to go. Such is the information given out by Chief Smith. The parties interested will not go to the expense of bringing him back.

LAST SPIKE.

Winnipeg Connected With Fort William by Three Railway Lines.

Winnipeg, Oct. 12.—Winnipeg is now connected with Lake Superior by three lines of railways. To-day the last spike was driven in the Transcontinental Road near the crossing of the Wabigoon River. To-morrow it will be possible for a train to run clear through from Winnipeg to Fort William by this new line, far north of the C. P. R. Two divisional positions will be located on the line, and one of these is at Redditt, 12 miles east of the Winnipeg River, where a substantial roundhouse has been built, the other is at Pelican Lake, six miles west of Superior Junction. A roundhouse will be built there at once.

To be well staked out along the line by the Ontario Government, which will supervise the sale of them. The road opens up a rich mining and timber country as well as a magnificent scenic country. It is not expected the road will be used for freight or passenger traffic until next spring, by which time, it is expected, the bridge across the Red River will be completed.

CZOLGOSZ BROTHER Gives Himself Up While President Taft Parades Los Angeles' Streets.

Los Angeles, Oct. 13.—“Lock me up; I don't want to be shadowed all day,” said a clean looking, well dressed laboring man who walked into Los Angeles police headquarters alone yesterday. “What do you want to be locked up for?” asked the captain in charge. The man hesitated, glanced about to see that he was not overheard and said quietly: “My name is Czolgosz.” It was the police captain's turn to hesitate, but he caught himself quickly. “Well, go over there and sit down,” he said. And so it happened that the brother of the man who died for having robbed the nation of the life of one of its presidents voluntarily sat in a police station while President Taft was driven through the streets.

Aside from his relationship to one whose name is mentioned only in shame the man has nothing about his life which he need hide. The ground under the roots is a good place to dump ashes through the summer, for mites cannot live in ashes or dirt. When hens learn to drink skim milk they will consume a large quantity every day and convert it into eggs. Keep bran in which some bone meal and meat is mixed where the poultry may have access to it at all times. If they are not getting “bugs” enough they will balance up with the bran mixture. Don't let the supply of oyster shell and grit run short now. Many bowel troubles begin from indigestion caused by lack of sharp grit. If no other is available, pound up old dishes for grit. Never let a fowl that has any sickness run at large. The ailment may not be contagious, but it doesn't pay to take any chances. If fowls must be shut up at night, see to it that they have plenty of air, so that they may do their foraging early while the bugs and worms as well as the early birds are astir.

THE WEST WING.

Settling With Companies For Fire in Parliament Buildings.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—It is probable that the final adjustment between the government and the insurance companies interested in the recent destruction of the west wing of the Parliament buildings will be made before the end of this week and the award made early next week. It is generally conceded that the loss by water will very considerably exceed what was expected. On the other hand, however, the loss to the building will not be so heavy as at first feared. The floors of the damaged wing are being torn out in preparation for thorough fire proofing.

DISMISSED IN TORONTO.

Robert Duncan, who was dismissed from the city police last June after 18 months' service, was dismissed from the Toronto force yesterday, where he was on probation. It is alleged that when he joined the Toronto contingent he said he had never been on another police force, but it was afterwards found out he had. Being found out in that falsehood is the reason assigned for his second dismissal.

LIGHTING ARBITRATION.

The street lighting arbitration which was to have come up this morning before Judge Snider was laid over until October 26, as the parties concerned had not completed their arrangements for it.

THE FARM.

WINTER LAYERS.

In selecting hens and pullets to be kept over for winter layers, be careful to get an even, regular lot, well proportioned, strong and vigorous. Pullets that have laid well the last year should continue to lay well the coming winter, if they have been carefully cared for. The notion that only pullets in their first year will be profitable has been largely set aside as the result of experience. But little profit can come from hens that have passed the second year of laying. It seldom, if ever, pays to keep them over the third winter. They will seldom lay eggs enough to pay their keep, and they will never be worth more as market poultry than they will be this fall.

Hens frequently hide their nests away to escape insect vermin of the poultry house. This occurs more frequently at this season than any other time. Late broods of this kind can be successfully grown if they are separated and kept apart from the older fowls. If compelled to fight for an existence under foot of older fowls and chicks they will fare but badly, and will not grow as they should.

POULTRY RAISING PAYS.

How many head of poultry should be kept on the average hundred-acre farm, and what should be the gross revenue? One hundred laying hens are not too many, and they should produce a gross yearly revenue of $300. The hundred hens should lay 800 dozen eggs in the year. Fifty dozen eggs would be required to produce 300 chickens each spring. From the chickens 50 of the best pullets would be kept to replace 50 hens each fall, and 50 pullets would therefore consist of 50 pullets and 50 year olds. The former would be the winter layers, and from the latter would be taken eggs for hatching in the spring. The yearly receipts would be made up approximately of the following items: 750 dozen eggs at 20c a dozen, $150. 50 one-year-old hens at $5.00, $25. 25 breeding cockerels at $1.00, $25. 225 fat chickens at 50c each, $112. Total $312.

Counting the chickens before they are hatched? No this is counting the money after it is earned.

POULTRY HINTS.

The ground under the roots is a good place to dump ashes through the summer, for mites cannot live in ashes or dirt. When hens learn to drink skim milk they will consume a large quantity every day and convert it into eggs. Keep bran in which some bone meal and meat is mixed where the poultry may have access to it at all times. If they are not getting “bugs” enough they will balance up with the bran mixture. Don't let the supply of oyster shell and grit run short now. Many bowel troubles begin from indigestion caused by lack of sharp grit. If no other is available, pound up old dishes for grit. Never let a fowl that has any sickness run at large. The ailment may not be contagious, but it doesn't pay to take any chances. If fowls must be shut up at night, see to it that they have plenty of air, so that they may do their foraging early while the bugs and worms as well as the early birds are astir.

CURIOUS OSCILLATIONS OF THE SEA.

Since there is no tide in the Mediterranean, the inhabitants of Marseilles were greatly astonished on June 15th, when the water of the harbor began suddenly to oscillate, and continued in movement for a quarter of an hour. Some observers say that the first waves were about two and a half feet in height, but others put their height at half that amount. Many thought that the cause was an earthquake, but this theory, after a study of the phenomenon, ascribes it to a sudden increase of the barometric pressure of the air on the surface of the sea in the neighborhood of Marseilles. The puzzling question remains. What produced the sudden increase of barometric pressure?

ARKANSAS DIAMONDS.

Since 1906 diamonds have been found in Pike County, Arkansas, in rock similar to that of the diamond fields of South Africa. It is peridotite of igneous origin which has been pushed up through carboniferous and cretaceous formations. In some places the rock is very hard and dense, but in others it has weathered to a soft yellowish and greenish material 20 to 25 feet deep. About 600 diamonds have been found in this rock, the largest weighing 6 1/2 carats. The usual colors are white, brown and yellow; but one blue diamond and several black ones have been found. One bore for exploration has been driven to a depth of 205 feet. As to the prospects of more stones being found by deeper mining, geologists only say that the spasmodic exploitation thus far seems to indicate a good promise.

MARKETS AND FINANCE

Toronto Markets

LIVE STOCK. The railways reported 94 carloads of live stock at the City Yards, consisting of 1396 cattle, 2155 hogs, 2484 sheep and lambs and 156 calves. The quality of Ontario cattle received at these yards was common to medium, but there were 15 carloads of the northwest cattle, amongst which were some of the best cattle of this class seen on the market for several weeks. Trade was fair at about steady prices for the quality offered. The market at the close was reported to be nearly all cleaned up, excepting the northwesterns. Butchers—George Rowntree bought 270 cattle for the Harris Abattoir Company, as follows: Butchers' steers and heifers, at $4 to $4.70; cows, $1.50 to $4.45; bulls, $2.35 to $3.50; feeding steers at $4.10 to $4.50. Exporters—None on sale, excepting a very few bulls, which sold at from $4 to $4.50 per cwt. Feeders and Stockers—Mr. Murby reports the following prices: Best steers, 900 to 1050 lbs. each, at $4 to $4.50; best steers, 800 to 900 lbs. each, at $3.50 to $3.85; good stockers, 500 to 700 lbs. each, at $2.75 to $3.25; common stockers, $2 to $2.25. Milk and Springers—Receipts of milkers and springers were not large. James Armstrong & Son bought 20, for which they paid from $35 to $55. Sheep and Lambs—The run of sheep and lambs was large and prices were easier, as follows: Ewes, sold at $3.50 to $3.85, or an average price of $3.75; best steers, $2.50 to $2.75; lambs, $5 to $5.60 per cwt., or an average of $5.40 per cwt. Veal Calves—Market steady for veal calves at $3.50 to $6.50 per cwt. Hogs—Wm. Harris reports prices of select at $7.75, fed and watered, and $7.50 f.o.b. cars at country points. Mr. Harris reports too many good-framed, strong hogs, weighing from 170 to 180 lbs., that are not more than half fat.

THE CHEESE MARKETS.

Campbelloff, Ont.—To-day 555 boxes were offered; 235 sold at 11.5-16c; balance refused at 11.3-16c. Stirling, Ont.—This afternoon 545 boxes were boarded; all sold at 11.3-16c. BRITISH CATTLE MARKET. London—London cables for cattle are lower, at 12 to 13.1-c per pound for Canadian steers, dressed weight; refrigerated beef is quoted at 11.4 to 11.1-2c per pound.

COBALT STOCKS.

The mining market in Toronto showed some signs of recuperation yesterday, although trading was not very active. The Rose was again irregular, but showed an upward tendency, opening at 6.35 and going as high as 6.51 on the Toronto and 6.80 on the Standard. Nipissing also showed an increase over Monday's closing, selling at 11.50 for a few lots. Crown Reserve also held strong, and touched 5.00. There was not much activity in the lower priced stocks, but they maintained prices remarkably well in the face of the slump in the rich issues. Cobalt Central was in demand, and went to 33, while Silver Leaf sold around 16, closing at 16.5-8. Temiskaming was not doing so well, going back to 83.1-2.

GRAIN CARGOES.

Leakages Which Cannot be Found by the Department. (Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 13.—The abolition of the present system of granting certificates for grain cargoes at Port Arthur and Fort William is being considered by the Trade and Commerce Department. The Dominion Marine Association has urged this owing to complaints of discrepancy between the weights weighed in (Western) and weighed out at eastern ports. Shippers contend that under a Government system of inspection some guarantee should be given of the delivery of the grain. There have been and are leakages which neither the Government nor the Marine Department can locate.

SNOW STORM.

Buffalo Has Three Inches—Business Blocked. Buffalo, Oct. 13.—Snow began falling here early to-day, and at 9 o'clock this morning the weather bureau reported that three inches of wet snow had fallen. The storm continued through the forenoon and seriously interfered with telegraph and telephone service, and also to some extent with the street car service, coming so unexpectedly as to catch the companies unprepared.

FOUND DEAD.

Makes the Eighth Sudden Death in Loud on This Week. (Special Despatch to the Times.) London, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Katherine Sage, aged 39, was found dead in bed at her home early this morning. She was very bright and cheerful when she retired last night, and it is supposed that she died from heart failure. She leaves a husband and seven children. This makes eight sudden deaths in London this week.

POISONOUS HAIR WASHES.

Some hair dyes contain aniline derivatives, some of which have no toxic action, but others are, according to the British Medical Journal, very poisonous, paraphenyldiamine being especially dangerous. A. Gautier has written an exhaustive work on the chemical constituents of hair dyes, and he points out that a single application of paraphenyldiamine has sufficed to induce a toxic action. The symptoms of intoxication with this and other poisonous aniline dyes may be divided into three groups. (1) Toxic skin eruptions, eczema, and urticaria, with great burning and itching. (2) Gastro-intestinal symptoms, such as nausea. (3) Nervous symptoms, sleeplessness, dizziness, weakness of the leg, epileptiform attack, and syncope. In several instances death has resulted.

Last in Burning Coal.

An English scientist declares that there is an enormous loss of energy in burning coal. With the coal consumption of many countries in the last ten years being greater than in the preceding century, he estimates that less than five per cent of the total heat value has been converted into useful work. The best power plants utilize only 10 per cent of the energy of the fuel, locomotives only 3 to 5 per cent, and electric incandescent lamps only one-seventh of 1 per cent. To reduce this enormous waste is one of the great engineering problems. Nearly two million horsepower of the waste is represented by gas from blast furnaces. This loss is now being lessened by installation of gas engines.

Transatlantic Record Breakers.

The transatlantic record-makers of 25 years ago are being laid on the shelf, to speak. The Umbria and Errera represent the last of the single-screw vessels and were the largest and most powerfully equipped vessels of their time; but they cannot compete in economical operation with the vessels of to-day with their two, three and four propellers and those having turbine engines.

What has been done once may be done again, and with the bill collector it generally is.
