NEW BRUNSWICKERS IN ACCIDENT

Franklin, Mass., Dec 15—Archie E. Crocker, 45 was killed and Geo. A. Barrett, 40 was injured when hit by a train. Barrett is at the Woonsocket Hospital. Crocker came from Doaktown, Northumberland County N.B. The auto party did not hear the train. There was no bell or watch at the crossing. A lost auto license plays a part in the smash up. Crocker could not find his. The stepfather drove as the boy could not. They went 12 miles and got hit, Mrs. Carrie Crocker, 43; and Mrs. S. Guild and Mrs. Palmer of St. John, N B were in the car

FORMER MIRAMICHI MAN DIES IN U. S. A.

Word was received here yesterday of the death of James A Urquhart of Oconto, Wis., U.S.A who was one of that city's most esteemed citizens and business men. His death occurred suddenly on Saturday afternoon, November 30th from heart trouble. Mr. Urquhart had gone to his physician's office for a consultation and while there suffered an attack which proved fatal. He had not been in the best of health for some time, but his condition was not considered serious just prior to his death.

Deceased who was sixty years old at the time of his death was born December 20, 1863 in Wayerton New Brunswick, Canada and went to Oconto in 1888. He was employed by the Cook Brothers and in 1892 he went back to Canada where he married. When he again returned to Oconto he was employed by the Holt Lumber Co. and stayed with them until he went into business for himself twenty-one years ago. Since that time Mr. Urquhart has successfully conducted a coal and building material business on Michigan Avenue.

Mr Urquhart has been chairman of the board of trustees of the Presbyterian church for a number of years, and had been active in several fraternal and business organizations namely: the Odd Fellows, the Modern Woodmen of America, the Fraternal Reserve Association, the Kiwanis Club and the Chamber of Commerce. Deceased is survived by his aged mother at Wayerton, N.B; his wife, Rachael; two daughters Mrs John Gordon of Oconto and Miss Mabel Urquhart who teaches at Joliet, Ill; and three sons Raymond of Oconto; James R of Honolulu, Hawaii and Grant of Chicago. James R. of Honolulu was unable to attend the funeral but he made an extended visit with his father last summer.

Deceased is also survived by four sisters and three brothers: Kose Urquhart and Mrs A.B Leavitt of New York city; Mrs Mary Watson of Bridgeport, Conn; Mrs Carden of Lawrence, Mass; Harvey of Wayerton; N.B; John of Ansonia, Conn; and William of Wayerton, N.B

Messrs. John R. and James Allison of this town are uncles of deceased and the late Mr Urquhart's wife is a sister of Mrs John R Allison of Newcastle and Mrs Wm. McKenzie of South Nelson.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 from the Presbyterian church. Rev R.A Garrison assisted by Rev E.W Wright of Menominee, formerly pastor of the local Presbyterian church officiated. Interment was made in the Evergreen cemetery

The pallbearers were the trustees of the Presbyterian church, J.A Rameay; All Klass, Frank Messenger, W.L Boyce, R.L Porterfield and H E Nelson. The Odd Fellows attended the funeral in a body

A musical treat is in store for lovers of music at the Grand Concert and Organ Recital in St. James Church Wednesday, December 17th, at 8.30 o'clock P.M.

ST. ANDREWS RECTORY GIVEN PRESENTATIONS

St. Andrew's rectory was the scene of a very enjoyable gathering on Wednesday evening when the rector, Rev. W. J. Bate was presented with a cassock by the members of the Junior W. A. and a surplice by the Senior W. A. The address on behalf of the Juniors was read by Miss Dorothy Harris and the presentation made by Miss Gertrude Malby. For the Seniors it was arranged that Mrs. J. W. Davidson and Mrs. Walter Morell would do the honors, they being the only two surviving members in the Newcastle W. A. of the old St. Andrew's Guild which was formed thirty-five years ago. However, much to the regret of all Mrs. Davidson was unable to be present, and the address was read by Mrs. Fraser Harris, the presentation being made by Mrs. Morell.

Both senior and junior members gathered at the Sunday school and proceeded in a body to the rectory. Rev. Mr. Bate was taken by surprise, but he replied very feelingly.

Following the presentations a delightful evening was spent in games and music and delicious refreshments were served.

R. A. SNOWBALL ELECTED PRESIDENT

R.A Snowball of Chatham was elected president of the New Brunswick wick branch of the New Brunswick branch of the Royal Caledonia Curling Association at the annual meeting of that body in the board room of the Brunswick Hotel, Moncton on Thursday evening. The president, A.D Ganong, of St. Stephen was in the chair.

Some discussion took place regarding the playing for the Blair Trophy. It was decided to hold a bonspiel in Moncton in February with two teams from each club in New Brunswick competing

The following officers were elected: President—R.A Snowball, Chatham; 1st vice pres.—E.H MacKay, Bathurst; 2nd vice pres.—R.P Dickson; secy. treas.—Fred Coombs St. John; Chaplain—Rev Geo. Young, St. Stephen; Executive—A.D Ganong, St. Stephen; Charles Morris, St. John; and W Morse, Bathurst
