Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

April 29, 1885—3m

Some years ago one of Mr. ..ELAND's farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Hor-rible itching of the skin, with burning and larting pains through the lump, made life ilmost intolerable. The leg became most intolerable. The leg became eno ously enlarged, and running ulcers forme mounty enarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. Lelland's Greation, was supplied with Aven's Sarsaparities, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use.

Mr. Lelland has personally used

PATRICK KELLY,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Sait Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases. We have Mr. LELAND's permission to invite we nave Mr. LELLAND's permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of AVER'S SASAPARILLA to see him person-ally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York. and if the party becomes large the legislature will be inundated with cranks and humbugs. These presults are sure to follow the establishment of a party having a platiform composed of a single plank, whether that plank be greenbackish, or prohibition. And the worst of it all is that the cause of true temper ance, of honest, unpretending virtue, will not be advanced in the slightest by the loud-vorced politician.

First Communion.

To the Catholic these first communion ceremonies are touching beyond works. If they are our own children so bleat, what happinese God has granted us I Any way a what memories of the past the communion cluster!—the old pastory parents in the grave, friends of our jouth scattered and gone? Perhaps we return home to press with our tight of the candle of one still left us but for upon the candle of one still left us but for whom in the pride of his young blood we fear the dangers of the world. How easy to bring back the bright boy to our mind in that happy innocent day of his holy first communion: The gentle mother hand that pressed the blue rithous on the tearled hand that pressed the blue rithous on the tear the dangers of the world. How easy to bring back the bright had been been been dependent to which happy innocent day of tempting even more than reverses, to all there will be the vicissitudes to which humanity is heir. But the foundation of that first communion well laid, will rarely be undermined as to utterly destroy Christian structure. The teachings of pastor, devoted Nuns and worthy Brothers, who prepared them for their first communion, will sentinel them through life and guard them against fatal surprises. And even where they fall, there will be in most cases, please God, a grand repentance and final perseverance.—Catholic Universe.

Sir.—I am sure you would like to favor the cause of truth, and expose a grievous calumny. Ireland, Spain, and Italy, on account of their Catholicity, are said by many persons to be very ignorant nations. You will kindly permit me to correct, as far as Ireland is concerned, this misapprehension. According to the Government statistics for the dyears 1882-3, presented to the House of Commons in England, Ireland with a population of 5,174,836, had a school enrollment of 1,083,298, or over 21 per cent. of children attending school. The population of Scotland was 3,738,573, with a school at tendance of 555,660, or 1,488 per cent. of children going it a school in the court for $54, with my cent. of children going it a school in the court for $54, with my cent.
