ions: Tuckersmith, Stanley, Seaforth, McKillop, Hay, Bullett and Bayfield. The Conservative element was conspicuously absent from the nomination, and upon being introduced to the audience, came forward amid a rousing round of applause. He said several years had elsi sed since he last had the honor of addressing the electors in this place, and it was with no ordinary pleasure that he again appeared before them to thank them for having chosen him as their representative, and that, too, without opposition, a privilege which did not effent fall to the lot of members of Parliament. Although he was well aware that the Restormers of Huron always did their duty nobly, he thought thanks were due the Conservatives for not marring vainly this pleasant holiday season by introducing any opposition. (Laughter and cheers.) Since he had been tendered the nomination of the convention.

bye-elections, which had resulted in sustaining the Government of Mr. Mowat. He considered it most fortunate for Ontario. (Cheers). It was not Mr. Meredith, he said, but the Ottawa Cabinet, who had decided, for reasons best known to themselves, that Mr. Mowat must go. But Mr. Mowat, he was glad to any again, had not gone yet. All true friends of Outario must rejoice in the result by which the Province would be permitted judiciously, fairly and independently to MANAGE HER OWN AFF.

and expend her own money. Mr. Mowat had triumphed in spite of a conspiracy, the depth and the import of which could acarcely be conceived. Passing on, Sir Richard said he would seek to take away no privileges from the Province of Quebec, but he could not stand by and see that Province dictate to Ontario. He spoke from no idle rumor when he had been entered into between Sir John Macdonald and Messrs. Chapleau and Mousseau, by which Ontario was not to receive the benefit of the boundary award unless Quebec got some compensating equivalent. He said that no other Proequivalent. He said that no other Pro-vince had attempted to make such an unreasonable demand, and the compact unreasonable demand, and the compact referred to was of the most improper, and dangerous character. As this view of the case it was indeed well for Ontario that the hands of Mr. Mowat had been sustained. Sir Richard then alluded to the varnings which Mr. Mackenzie and himself had given the electors of this riding five years ago as to the consequences that would follow if Sir John Macdonald was restored to power. They had pointed out that extravagance would be introduced, and from $23,500,000 to $31,500,000, an increase of $7,500,000 ever that of Mr.

Mackenzie, and $8,000,000 more than they themselves boasted they would require. The general taxation of the country had been swelled from $22,500,-000 to $36,000,000, So much for one of their most procious privileges. Sir Richard then pointed out the gross abuses introduced by the party at present in power by bringing corrupt influence to bear upon the electorate. The Conservative majority in the House had refused to give their sanction to a bill, the design of which was to maintain elective purity, by forbidding public contractors from meddling in the elections. It was easy to see the aim of Sir Jehn's policy in this direction. He (Sir Richard) asked if there could be any doubt but what large sums were contributed by but what large sums were contributed by these political favorites and Government contractors for the purpose of

CORRUPTING THE ELECTORS of this Dominion. This was a charge that could not be brought against Mr. Mackenzie. (Applause). If anything was to be said it was that Mr. Mackenwas to be said it was that Mr. Macken-zle had served the people only too well to suit his opponents—a fact which the electors were surely and rapidly realiz-ing. Had the advice and policy of the late Reform Government been followed out there would not to-day be heard the DEEP MUTTERINGS AND REMONSTRANCES of the farmers of the Northwest, and Manitoba would have been the granary of Canada instead of proving a sort of fertilizer for the fields of Dakota and Minnesota. ads to the United States in consequence. Notwithstanding the anti-election promises of the Conservatives, the exodus from all parts of Canada has increased to some 75,000 or 80,000 a year. He purposed doing all in his power to enforce the views of the people on this question, and to prevent the cream and flower of our country from going to enrich the prairies of the United States. (Laughter.) If Sir John himself would only learn to de well he would not ask him in his old age to go to the trouble ously absent from the nomination, and its voice was alent in the town, the loyalty and unanimity of the Liberal ranks rendering all opposition a hopeless waste of energy.

EXPERIENCE.

The Bev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the liste eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E. Stat St. New Fork, May 16, 1882.

MESSES. J. C. AYER & CO., Gentlemen:
Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could careful bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal south; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S ABBAPARILLIA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the sits disappared. My entarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred percent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the Sansararilla, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.

Your respectfully, Z. P. Wilds."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Aver's Sarsaparilla

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skim, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.
