Old Friends

When work is done, all toll at end.
And home we go together friend.
However long the homeward way
The pleasure of your company.
Then after hunger's satisfied,
We take up to the festive
And sit and are well to do.
Old friend, but you and I—We two.
How many years we've spent like this
I cannot say. If naught smiles, We'll spend the rest of them the same
And pass together, whence we came.
We've proved each other, you and I.
And humored many a crisis by.
Though if in anger I said black
Was white, you never answered back.
Yes, friendship is a subtle thing
Which like a minted coin must ring
As true before it starts to ripple.
That is our friendship—But my pipe.

Notice to Mr. Seeley

I am not in any hurry leaving St.
John's and I don't consider it a paying proposition to come from Canada back here as I know you would jump out of town as you did from Charlottetown, P.E.I., with my newspaper cuts and my deposit money.
Will meet you in public or private.
kid when things are over, come out with newspaper talk. I think the public is fed up on your little stories,
and as far as your feats of strength contest is concerned, get ready and promote a bout. I am ready for you, as I don't consider you any opponent
or any athlete.

Professor W. Seeley,
PHYSICAL DIRECTOR.

Special Notice to Mr. Walter O'Toole and to the Writer of the Article in the Telegram, last evening, about the wonderful Exhibition Shown on Monday night at the Popular Star Theatre by Mr. O'Toole and Mr. Alfred Ringling.

I was at the Star Theatre, last night, waiting to hear from you, Mr.
O'Toole, but did not hear you call out for Professor Seeley and I sat down to the front where you could and did see me and I enjoyed your performance very much. But seeing you will not meet me in a strength contest the same as you claim you defeated me at twice, or will not meet me for a twelve three-minute round, professional bout, I have decided to meet you and defeat you in a wrestling bout. This, of course, will have to take place later in the season. Now no doubt you would like to call this way again: the sports of the city would be pleased to see you again;
would also like to see you and me
come together on the mat, but you have not got to come away down here;
I will meet you anywhere in Canada,
or if you would like to come here to St. John's, you may make arrangements before you leave and deposit
two hundred dollars as a guarantee for your appearance. Now, Mr. O' Toole, it does not make any difference to me how many men you have defeated, you never defeated me and you never will.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas
and a Happy New Year.
PROFESSOR W. SEELEY.

Soap in dishwater eliminates many dangerous germs, and the hotter the water the greater the killing power of the soap.
A small bag of home-made cookies will provide one good prize for the kiddies' party. Make the bag of bright cretonne.
Dried fruits should be soaked before attempting to wash. If this was washed out of clear water with the dust is surely washed out of the cretonne. It will be made greasy.
