Woman's Alliance Meeting

The regular meeting of the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church was held in Unity Hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. James, the secretary, read a very clever and scientific paper on the "Origin and Development of Sex," dealing with the life of the whole universe.

Unfortunately Mrs. James had not postcarded the members and there was a very poor attendance.

Mrs. James studied under Professor Ward, and had a fine knowledge of her subject.

Mrs. W. L. Bernard will hold a reception this evening in Paget Hall from 8 to 10 p.m. All delegates for the W.A. convention, their hostesses, the city ministers and their wives are cordially invited to be present.

Press Club Meeting.

The Calgary Women's Press club will meet on Saturday, the home of Miss Watters, 1748 Seventh avenue west. All members are urged to be present and also to bring a business to transact.

Women's Auxiliary of Anglican Church

The second day's work of the W.A. Anglican convention commenced yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, there being a large attendance of delegates.

Rev. A. P. Hayes, principal of the Bishop Pinkham college, gave the noon day prayer and address. During the morning Mrs. Pinkham, the honorary president of the W.A., was presented with a basket of roses, and Mrs. Bernard with a bouquet of roses from the members. Mrs. W. H. Mitchell was made a general life member, while Mrs. W. J. Melrose, of Edmonton, was made a diocesan life member. Reports were read from the treasurer here, and from the various secretary-treasurers from other cities. All were adopted. Several motions were made, among them being that of the pledge of the Bishop Pinkham emergency fund, and the purchase fund, both of which were raised to $500.

In the afternoon a session started, reports being read from "The extra cent a day" and the "United Thank-offering" treasurers, which were adopted. Mrs. A. W. Geddes gave a lesson on the conduct of missionary study classes, which was most interesting. Mrs. Murrell Wright was presented with a life membership by the St. Augustine branch of Lethbridge, after she gave an address of "Woman's Influence." Mrs. George Wedd, of Edmonton, spoke on "Girls' Branches," and Miss Warden, of Edmonton, told of the Onaway nursing home, which the W.A. helped to build and for which it has obtained and installed two nurses and a doctor.
