—As a token of the good feeling that exists between employer and employes, Mr. C. S. Hyman presented an old and faithful employe of C. S. Hyman & Co. with a handsome gold watch, bearing the following engraving: "To John Connell, on his completion of 21. years' service in the employ of C. S. Hyman & Co., Dec. 25, 1830." Mr. Cosnell is well known to the regidents of Richmond streets as Hyman's teamster.

—The Sanday Cgli, of Newark, N. d. contains the following note which will interest many residents of London, Berlin and other Canadian places: "Miss Detta E. Ziegler, of London, Canada, is a late addition to the musical salent of this city. Miss Ziegler has a pure soprame voice of beautiful quality, and has located here to pursue her studies in New York. She sang bast Sunday evening in the Roseville Avenue Church, and her fine value and undicated style gained for unany admirers.

—The annual Christmas entertainment of All Saints Chapel Sunday school, Hamilton road, was sheld Tuesday evening in the Hamilton road school. The greater part of the programme was furnished by the Missions of great praise for their efforts, and altogether the evening was spent very pleasantly. At the close the members of the school, some 175 being present, were served by the teachers with an abundant supply of oranges, candies and other good things. This is one of the most successful missions in the city.

—Cora Tanner, who will be the attraction at the Crand Opera House today is a charmingly beautiful woman. She is an actress of decided merit, possessing are talepts and accomplishments. Her supporting company is unusually stepng, including Harold Russell, Owen Westford, Edson Dron, Theodore Brown, George Edesen, Misses Virginia Buchanan, Minnie Durres and Ada Dwyer. Miss Tanner's play 'The Refuge's Daughter' has been highly praised by the New York press. It is full of touches of human nature, powerful situa
