The Power
Behind the Throne

If we please My Lady, that is sufficient. If we make a suit which meets with her entire approval, we have done a good job. She notices things a man would never think of—she knows where slight things may be made without their being apparent to the casual observer.

We aim to please a man's wife as much as we do to please him. If we didn't succeed we couldn't have the patronage we have. If we hadn't that we couldn't make ordered clothing at the prices we do.

IN CONGRESS

The House Declines to Seat Roberts the Utah Member, for the Present.

Washington, Dec. 6.—After an interesting debate of three hours the house yesterday, by a vote of 302 to 30, adopted the resolution offered by Mr. Taylor, of Ohio, yesterday for the investigation of the charges against Brigham H. Roberts, the Mormon representative-elect from Utah.

Previously the house had rejected a substitute resolution offered by Mr. Richardson, the leader of the minority, to allow Mr. Roberts to be sworn in and to send the whole case to the judiciary committee.

By the terms of the resolution, Mr. Roberts is now not only excluded from all participation in the proceedings of the house until the committee reports and the house passes upon his case, but he is denied a seat in the hall.

The reading of the president's message was completely overshadowed by the dramatic proceeding, which resulted in the action of the house yesterday. The galleries were thronged with spectators, mostly women, who sat patiently through the three weary hours that preceded the debate, and they waited three more until it was concluded. The most remarkable feature of the debate was the fact that Mr. Roberts' presentation of his own side of the case, which lasted almost an hour, became so absorbing that he won the sympathy of many of those in the galleries, and was several times showered with applause.

Representative Corliss, of Michigan, introduced in the house a bill for the Pacific cable to be built by the government to Hawaii, the Philippines, Japan and China, at a limit of cost of $3,000,000, of which $500,000 is to be immediately available. The route of general control is placed under the Pacific cable commission including the postmaster-general and chief signal officer of the army.

New York, Dec. 6.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: "If Mr. Roberts is finally rejected by the House of Representatives, as seems suggested that if Mr. Quay is seated by the senate the Democratic governor of Utah may appoint Mr. Roberts to fill the vacancy that exists in Utah's representation in that body."

Nebraska City, Neb., Dec. 6.—United States Senator Hayward died at 6:20 a.m. today. He was elected to the United States Senate by the last legislature. He was a veteran of the civil war.

London, Dec. 6.—A delayed dispatch from Cape Town describes the departure of the Canadian contingent of troops for the front. The streets were decorated and dense enthusiastic crowds lined the principal thoroughfares. Governor Milner bade the Canadians farewell at the railway station. All the officers were individually presented to the governor, who was heartily cheered by the Canadian soldiers. They also sang the National Anthem.

A party of Canadians remained at Cape Town, as the men had not passed the medical inspection. The Canadian contingent will act in concert with the Black Watch and Seaforth Highlanders.

Anxiety as to the welfare of the Windsor (Ont.) boys who are reported to have been sent on the fighting line, was relieved by the receipt of the following cable message from Lieut. R. B. Bowden, dated from Cape Town: "Windsor boys all well."

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—Col. Otter's late dispatch from Cape Town, includes the following sentence: Battalion strength 1,038; special 22—(Signed) Otter."

The strength of the regiment is a surprise to the authorities here. When the contingent left Quebec the strength was 1,010, but Col. Otter has found the number to have increased to 1,038. There may have been a few stowaways on board.

It is learned that the contingent, from the moment that it sets foot on African soil, coming as it does under the regulations of the Imperial army, will entitle the men to imperial pensions or compensation allowance in case of losing a limb or being incapacitated.

CANADIANS AT THE FRONT.
Rochester Democrat and Chronicle: The Canadian contingent has been ordered to the Modder River with other reinforcements for Lord Methuen's force. Their career will be watched with great interest in the United States as well as in Canada. Some of the young men in the command marched in Rochester on the Fourth of July, and showed good military training. In all probability there is no better material in the British army. Under able and reliable officers the contingent will doubtless distinguish itself. There is some doubt in Canada as to the competency of the general officers, but the doubt may not be well founded. It will be an honor to the Canadians to form part of the corps marching to the relief of Kimberley. The expedition of Lord Methuen promises to be the most important of the war.

NEWS SHUT OFF.
London, Wednesday, Dec. 6, 4:30 a.m.—The censorship continues to be of the strictest character. Virtually no news is allowed to pass except the diaries of events within the beleaguered garrisons and positions. According to late accounts of the battle of Modder River the Boer fire was the hottest on record and will revolutionize existing theories. It was effective up to 1,800 yards, but the casualties among the prone troops was trifling. It was found impossible to bring the British ammunition reserves to the firing line.

BOERS DISREGARD THE LAWS OF WAR.
Many Boers, wearing Red Cross badges, were actually employed in serving out ammunition. In connection with the many accusations against the Boer indifference to the laws of war, a letter, published in Cape Town, asserts that before the Transvaal ultimatum was sent, the Boer leaders discussed the policy of using the white flag, when driven into a corner, in order to deceive the British commanders, and this policy was generally approved.

Mobilization of the Fifth Division.
It is reported that the mobilization of the 5th Division will be ordered at Aldershot as a precaution for emergencies.

The Morning Post complains that there are many cavalrymen available at home, but that parsimony prevents their being sent to South Africa, where they are urgently needed.

"ALL WELL."
London, Dec. 6.—The Daily Mail has a dispatch from Mafeking, dated Tuesday, Nov. 28, which says: "All well."

It is reported that the Boer commander, Snyman, who succeeded Cronje there, was killed in battle.

HOT WEATHER.
Cape Town, Dec. 6.—The heat here is great. If it is equally hot northward, Gen. Methuen's force must be suffering severely.

"SHOOT THE ENGLISH."
The Cape Town correspondent of the London Daily News says: A memorial has been started praying Great Britain to consider the claims of Natal when settling the future of South Africa. The Natalians desire to annex the Orange Free State or Pondoland, and the new republic taken from Zululand in 1886. Papers found on captured Boers indicate that the Transvaal Government expected to occupy Durban not later than Nov. 29.

At Ladysmith.
BRITISH LOSSES.
New York, Dec. 6.—A dispatch to the Herald from Pietermaritzburg, says: "News from Ladysmith is beginning to come in more freely. The latest dispatches state that from the beginning of the investment up to Nov. 25 there were 83 killed and wounded, including both military and civilians. The Boers shell the town from all sides, their favorite time for opening being at midnight. The heaviest casualties occurred on Nov. 9, when the Boers made a determined attack, advancing close to the camp. They were routed with heavy loss, our casualties numbering 21."

Next day Gen. Joubert begged medicines from the British. We lost one killed in an attack on the 14th, the Boers again losing heavily. On the 20th bombardment, which had been more or less severe, damaged some buildings. On the following day it was announced that the Boers were going south.

Some news has come through from Ladysmith, showing that while, on the one hand, the Boers' bombardment was becoming severe, on the other that one of the navy guns had once more silenced the big Boer 40 or 100 pounder.

BOER WOMEN AT THE FRONT.
London, Dec. 6.—The Ladysmith correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, cabling under date of Nov. 24, says: "The Boer women arrived near Ladysmith yesterday in order to intercede with Gen. Joubert to stop the war. Eleven hundred shells have fallen in the town since the siege began."

HEAVY FIRING.
The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Frere, Natal, in a dispatch dated Nov. 29, says: "Heavy firing was heard yesterday at Ladysmith. It continued until the afternoon, and was resumed today." The Boers from Weenen have recrossed the Tugela River, leaving Colenso and Weenen.

COLENSO BRIDGE WRECKED.
An Estcourt dispatch, published by the Telegraph, under date of Nov. 30, says: "Throughout the night and the greater part of the day there was heavy cannonading in the direction of Ladysmith. The Colenso bridge is a total wreck. Several of its piers are gone. The news was flashed to Ladysmith by means of searchlight. The Boers swarm at Grobler's Kloof, opposite Colenso."

DELAY DEPRECATED.
A special dispatch from Estcourt censures Sir Robert Harris, commanding-in-chief of the Cape of Good Hope and West African squadrons, for his delay in sending Capt. Scott and Capt. Lambton with guns to Ladysmith. "It is notorious," says the correspondent, "that only at the last moment, on Oct. 30, while a decisive action was pending, did Capt. Lambton (of the Powerful) arrive at Ladysmith. A week, a day, a few hours, might, and I doubt not would have, saved the situation, and delayed the investment, if it had not ended the Boer attempt."

LANCERS MEET THE BOERS.
London, Wednesday, Dec. 6.—A Modder River special, dated Thursday, Nov. 30, says: "The Boers occupy a strong ridge about six miles north of this point. Today the lancers came into contact with them."

DE BEERS MINES FLOODED.
Pretoria, Friday, Dec. 1.—The Standard and Diggers News say that Wednesday last Mr. Cecil Rhodes' dispatches, intercepted near Kimberley, said the De Beers mines were filling with water and that Mr. Rhodes estimated the damage at $50,000 per day.

OFFICIAL BOER REPORT.
The following is a Boer version of the battle of Modder River: "Pretoria, Wednesday, Nov. 29.—De-larey's official report states that a large force of British attacked his command at Modder River. Heavy fighting lasted for hours. Cronje and De-larey took up strong positions, the Free Staters being reinforced. De-larey had 17 killed and wounded, including his eldest son. The Free Staters' losses are unknown. At dark the Boers retired slowly to their positions, having prevented the British from forcing their way to Kimberley."

BOER IGNORANCE.
Orange River, Dec. 6.—A Transvaal commandant, who was one of the prisoners captured at Gras Pan, asserts that when he joined the commando he found a large number of the burghers absolutely ignorant of the meaning of the Red Cross. They thought it was part of the British flag. They were also convinced that the British cut the throats of all the wounded Boers they captured. The Boers relied on their ability to hold Belmont for six months.

THE QUEEN'S GIFT.
London, Dec. 6.—The Queen has given a Union Jack for the hospital ship Maine, which the Duke of Connaught will present to the executive committee on Dec. 16, when the vessel will be on view.

The Daily Mail announces that Col. W. A. Yule, who succeeded Gen. Sir Williams in command of the British troops in Natal after that officer was wounded in the battle of Talaia Hill, and who was promoted, is on his way to England, being in broken health.

BUGLE NOTES.
The recently organized Holland Transvaal Relief Society, of Detroit, sets forth its object in an appeal to the public through the press. It is claimed that while the British are well supplied with everything requisite for the care of sick and wounded, the Boers are almost wholly without even the necessities of the hospitals, and it is the intention of the committee to interest people in this side of the case.

A high official of the Reichs Bank, Berlin, in the course of an interview, said: "The war in South Africa may have a slight disturbing effect upon the money market, but it will have no great or permanent effect upon the world's gold supply. This is a large and increasing so rapidly elsewhere—in America, Australia and the Klondike, for instance—that a short stoppage in South Africa would be comparatively unimportant."

An indignation meeting to protest against Britain's course in the Transvaal war was held Tuesday evening at the American Reformed Church, Rochester. The meeting was attended principally by the Dutch residents of Rochester.

MORE MILITIA

Eight Additional Battalions To Be Mobilized This Month.

The Times of Nov. 24, just to hand, says that in addition to the 35 militia battalions previously ordered to mobilize the following will mobilize not later than Dec. 11:

4th Battalion the King's Own (Royal Lancaster Regiment).
6th Battalion the Royal Warwickshire Regiment.
3rd Battalion the Princess of Wales Own (Yorkshire Regiment).
6th Battalion the Lancashire Fusiliers.

3rd Battalion the Dorsetshire Regiment).
3rd Battalion the Prince of Wales Volunteers (South Lancashire Regiment).
4th Battalion the Duke of Cambridge's Own (Middlesex Regiment).
3rd Battalion the York and Lancashire Regiment.

The Times adds: The West Kent Yeomanry have received instructions to hold themselves in readiness for mobilization. It is understood that, if called up, the Yeomanry will take the place of some of the regular cavalry now in service in South Africa.
