CENTER OF STORM PERIOD.

Hicks says: "This period (the autumnal equinox) will express itself in falling barometer, rising temperature, prevailing storm clouds, with rain, wind and thunder, the crisis falling on the 21st to 23rd, progressively from west to east. It behooves all who navigate the lakes and high seas to keep eyes trained on approaching possibilities at this and other September periods. Anomalous high barometer and change to decidedly cooler will come in from the northwest close behind these storms."

sent us we should judge that the school enjoys the confidence and support of the best business men in London and surrounding towns.

The college premises are among the best in Canada, being divided between the commercial and residential work. The college makes a specialty of high-class accounting, and the famous Gregg shorthand and dictation system, and is equipped with the most modern office appliances, such as loose-leaf letter system, roller copier, filing cabinets, as well as a large typewriting machine outfit of the most approved makes.

The seating capacity of the college is upwards of 250, and during the busy season is taxed to its utmost limit. The premises are well heated, lighted, and ventilated, and contain modern and capable of seating 120 pupils, short-hand rooms, stationery, lavatory and reception rooms, making it the most capacious building for college premises in Western Ontario.

The principal, Mr. J. W. Westervelt, is a firm believer in the liberal and judicious use of printer's ink, and to it attributes no small share of his college success.

Marriage of Two Residents of West Nissouri Towns'ip.

At the home of Mrs. William Stinson, Thorndale, the wedding took place recently of her third daughter, Matilda Louise, and Mr. John Jones, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones, of West Nissouri. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. J. C. McCracken, about 40 guests being present.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. John Taylor, wore an effective gown of blue silk, trimmed with lace. The groom's niece, Mary Jones, acted as flower girl. Many handsome wedding presents marked the dining-room, which was daintily decorated with flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for a honeymoon to points east, after which they will reside on the third concession of McGillivray Township.

MRS. BEGG WILL SUE

Tombstones' Widow to Demand $30,000 From Grand Trunk.

The Fort Huron Times of the 21st makes this report, which is of additional local interest from the fact that the late Mr. Beeg was for a time a resident of London.

Mrs. Laurette Beeg this morning petitioned the probate court to appoint her administratrix of the estate of her late husband, A. S. Beeg. She states in the petition that she is about to begin a suit for damages against the Grand Trunk Railway Company, maintaining that her husband lost his life in the tunnel on Oct. 9, 1904, through the carelessness of the company's employees.

The Times understands that $30,000 will be asked for.

It will be remembered that Mr. Beeg was superintending the terminal of the Grand Trunk when a freight train became stalled in the tunnel. He lost his life while trying to save the members of the train crew.

VICIOUS, IMMORAL, BAI IN EVERY WAY

"A Desperate Chance" Produced at Grand Last Night—Crowded House.

"A Desperate Chance," the sensational melodrama founded on the famous case of the Biddle brothers, thieves, burglars, jail-breakers and murderers, drew a full house at the Grand last night.

In its tendencies the play is the most pernicious and vicious of all the yellow, stained stage stories of the day. In the language of Wm. T. Stead, almost every character in the disconnected story is paving with vice, catering to it, demoralizing it, coddling it.

The Biddle brothers, portrayed as handsome dare-devil fellows, who are not to blame for their life of crime. Their early training is to blame. The first scene with the bloody murder of a policeman who attempted to arrest the Biddles. In the next act the Biddle brothers are seen in the prison, where they are being punished for their crime. BIGGEST MARKET SINCE CHRISTMAS

Today's Was a Record-Breaker—Offerings of Fine Produce in Abundance.

"This is the biggest market I have had since last Christmas," said Mr. Dean, naturally, prices were easier all around. The only lines that held their prices were poultry, eggs and oats. Fruit has become a drug on the market. It was being almost given away by some dealers. Lovers of peaches took the opportunity to lay in a good store, but even then the supply was double the demand.

King and Talbot streets were used by the farmers as if they were part of the square. No little inconveniences were caused by the torn-up condition of the street.

As for prices, peaches sold at 25 and 30 cents for twelve-quart baskets, and plums at about the same figures. Not only are there lots of apples, but Friday's wind blew down so much of the fruit from the trees that the offering on the market was tremendous. Apples sold at 50 to 70 cents a bag. Potatoes sold at 25 and 30 cents a bag and tomatoes at 20 cents a basket retail.

Dressed poultry sold at 50 to 60 cents a pair for chickens and 70 to 80 cents for ducks.

Butter was steady at 21 and 22 cents for crocks and 23 cents for rolls.

PROFITS OF THE FAIR

One Firm Which Indulges in Self Congratulation.

Scarcely can one find a manufacturer displaying his goods at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, who does not boast directly in volume of business, as well as indirectly by the advertising his wares receive. This, when all is said and done, is the real cause of the exhibition's success. Of all those firms, however, who made a display this year, none is so basely engaged in self-congratulation as the house of Gourlay, Winter & Leeming, whose exhibit of Gourlay Pianos was rightly regarded as the most attractive one in all "Piano Row." The three "Louie" instruments attracted thousands of sightseers, all anxious to learn the piano as well as to see it, and the results were a tidal wave of congratulation and a gratifying shower of orders.

Many Canadians will remember Mr. W. Braxton Smith, the English tenor who came to this country a few years ago and sang the tenor role in "The Messiah." He was so pleased with Canada that he settled in Winnipeg, where he continued to sing in the "Messiah" and has already secured an enviable reputation as an artist of high rank and unquestionable taste. He saw a Gourlay piano in the window of the Messiahs, and he was so delighted with it that he secured one for his studio. This is his letter to the firm: "The Gourlay Piano in my studio is so satisfactory that Mrs. Smith and myself have decided to use your instruments in all our recitals. The tone of the Gourlay is exquisite for the accompaniment to the voice; indeed we consider the Gourlay pre-eminently to all other pianos made in Canada."

THE SOVEREIGN FIRE

A Strong Financial Institution.

Large financial interests of half a dozen Canadian cities are said to be interested in the Sovereign Fire Insurance Company of Canada, notice of the incorporation of which aroused considerable interest here today. The appearance of the company is expected to prove of great importance in the business life of the country, for one of the objects of the new corporation is to secure a large portion of the immense volume of fire insurance business now going to foreign companies. The Sovereign Fire Insurance Company of Canada will be, when it begins business, one of the strongest institutions of its kind in America. It will have a paid-up capital stock of one million dollars, and a board of directors which will be thoroughly representative of every section of the country. The demand for fire insurance in Canada within the past few years has far surpassed the facilities, and the necessity for a new corporation of sufficient strength to secure the best class of business has long been felt. Insurance men agree that whenever the Sovereign Fire Insurance Company of Canada commences operations it will be refusing, rather than seeking, fire insurance business.

The personnel of the directorate will also, it is assured, give the new corporation a prominent place among the great companies of the continent, and an announcement is made that Addison H. Hoover, who will be remembered as the insurance expert to whom much of the recent great success of the Sovereign Life Assurance Company, now one of the most flourishing of Canadian life insurance companies, was attributed, has been secured to manage the preliminary affairs of the new corporation. The appearance of the new company has created a great deal of favorable comment, and its shares will undoubtedly be well received by the investing public. They will, of course, be sold at a premium, and attention is called to the publication of the company's prospectus in another column of today's paper.

Taste well, smell well, sell well, smoke well. Try them, Bruce Carruthers, 6c.

SWALLOWED CARPET TACKS

Fred Lee Did So, But He Will Be None the Wiser.

The young man who was suddenly taken ill on Dundas street yesterday as the result of having accidentally swallowed some carpet-tacks, proved to be Mr. Frederick Lee, a Canadian, say he will recover without any serious effects from his mishap.

Mr. Lee was hanging paper in the home for incurables last Tuesday. He was on a step-ladder, and had some large tacks in his mouth. He misplaced his foot on one of the rungs of the ladder and took a sudden fall to the floor.

The tacks also fell, but not on the floor. The fall sent them down Mr. Lee's throat. Mr. Lee was considered
