

Visit our Fancy Goods Department. We carry everything.

Woods' Fair

See our Balbriggan Underwear Before buying.

Open Until 10 o'Clock Friday Evening. Closed All Day Saturday.

35c GLOVES, 15c.

15 dozen Highest-Grade Lisle, Thread Net Gloves, everlasting black, trimmed, dome fastener, long wrist, assorted sizes, regular 35c, sale price 15c

SPLENDID VALUE IN SUMMER GLOVES.

6 dozen Fine Silk-Finished Lisle gloves, in black, white or gray, 2-dome fasteners on each glove, all sizes, full length. Extra good value at a pair, 25c

10 dozen Pairs Fine Suede Lisle Gloves, very fine, soft, smooth finish, in white, tan, gray and black, 2-dome fasteners. This glove gives splendid wear. Extra good value at 35c

23 dozen Very Fine Sateen Belt Hosiery Supporters, frilled elastic, non-rustable felt clasps, full length, in black, white, blue, yellow, cardinal and pink, usually sold at 25c, our price is, per pair 15c

We are selling a $1.25 Hand Bag for 75c. See them.

40c HOSE SUPPORTERS, 25c.

7 dozen Finest Satin Pad Belt Hose Supporters, frilled, elastic, nickel, felt clasp, in black, white, yellow, cardinal, blue and pink. Every shade is perfectly fast. Usually sold at 40c, our sale price is, per pair 25c

Splendid line of Wash Stock Collars.

WOODS' FAIR

New Summer Dress Yokes just to hand.

MYRIADS LOST IN POLISH BASTILE

Warsaw's Gloomy Prison a Wholesale Grave.

THOUSANDS NEVER RETURN

Death, Transportation, or Siberia the Portion of Majority Who Enter Its Gates.

Warsaw, June 30.—Perhaps the most hated and certainly the most dreaded spot in all Warsaw is the citadel, once a fortress, but now a political prison, behind the walls of which many grim and terrible tragedies are enacted. Many a Warsaw family is mourning a husband, father, son, or even daughter, who has been dragged away by the gendarmes at dead of night and imprisoned there. Many of them are lost forever; their fate is never known. It may be death, transportation to Siberia, or exile.

Since the three days' reign of terror from Jan. 25-28, reports of wholesale butchery at the citadel have horrified Warsaw. According to these, men and women are hurried almost daily to the fishermen living hard by bear stags, muffled cries coming from the walls of the prison; the Russian officers themselves return pale and trembling from the scenes their duty forces them to witness.

How many men and women have been executed in the citadel since last February, when the present movement against the Czar's Government reached Poland, nobody but the Russian gendarmes and the governor ever will know. But it is known that, though the barracks vacated by regiments lately sent to the front are used for political suspects, the citadel is so overcrowded that the daily courts martial cannot make room for the newcomers quickly enough.

a Bastille of Poland.

The few who return therefrom say little, for they dare not tell the truth. But their drawn faces, shattered nerves, and haunted bodies speak for themselves. Little wonder that this citadel has been called the bastille of Poland; little wonder that the Poles shudder at its red walls and green ramparts. Not only is it the slaughter house of its race, but its guns, ever turned towards the city, are ready to sound fire at the first sign of a general rising against the Russian stranger within its gates.

Built by Russian hands but with Polish good after the revolution of 1863, the citadel forms the apex of the triangular-shaped fortifications that stretch from the Praga to the Austrian frontiers. It is to Poland what the fortress of Saint Peter and Paul in St. Petersburg is to Russia, shield this country ever from the Russian yoke it will meet the same fate as the bastille during the French revolution of 1789.

Following the broad road which runs parallel with the river, the ordinary visitor to the citadel finds himself confronted by a gateway, flanked by fortifications, and guarded by sentries. If you have a pass signed by the commandant of the citadel, the sentries look at it critically and finally let you through the gateway. At first you feel a surprise at the homelike atmosphere around you. There are no gray walls or lowering towers. Warm, red brick pavilions, a gold domed church, well swept walks, and glass plots flanked by cannot be arranged in pyramids are the first things that meet the eye.

Soldiers are being drilled, a band, unseen but near, is playing airs from the "Geisha," a gendarme, looking smart in his blue tunic and red facings, casts a glance over his shoulder with dispatches to the commandant's quarters behind the church. The place looks like an unusually well kept garrison in Central Russia, and that is all.

That is all, I say, for the casual visitor. But suppose the visitor is a Pole—arrested for having been foolish enough to take an active interest in politics, from a socialistic, democratic, or even patriotic point of view. Then he will get a different impression of the stronghold, for he will be taken to that long building overlooking the river, known as the tenth pavilion, the part of the citadel reserved in ordinary times for political prisoners. There is nothing to envy in the fate of a man who finds himself a prisoner in the tenth pavilion, especially if he really has had anything to do with politics.

He gets there in this way: The

The Agency Soon Over.

One night removes the pain, three nights removes the corn, root and branch. Caries Corn Cream does this. Send 15 cents for box with two corn cushions free.

L. A. STOTT & JURY, Bowmanville, Ont.

FOOT ELM

positively cures sweaty feet and produces sound, healthy skin; 13 powders, 25 cents. Send stamp for particulars of our $100 prize offer.

L. A. STOTT & JURY, Bowmanville, Ont.

STEAMERS ARRIVED.

June 29.—At New York—Madonna, from Hamburg; Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.

At Liverpool—Saxonia, from Boston; Havford, from Philadelphia.

At Cherbourg—Grosser Kurfurst, from New York.

At Hamburg—Deutschland, from New York.

NORTHGREAVES GIVES ANSWER TO A NUMBER OF THE CHARGES

High Constable Also Defends Himself Before County Council Committee.

County Councilors Lewis, Cousins and Turnbull continued their investigation into the county constabulary system last evening. The taking of evidence on behalf of Northgreaves in rebuttal of the high constable's charges was commenced. Then the case against McLeod was opened. No further disclosure of a particularly surprising nature were made.

The first witness called was Dr. J. W. Ford of Thorndale, who was called by Northgreaves in rebuttal of the charge that Northgreaves had acted harshly toward W. J. Mahoney while the latter was drunk at the Thorndale fair two years ago. Witness said he had examined Mahoney and believed that the man was "kidding" in order to arouse compassion.

Squire W. F. McGuffin, of Thorndale, was then called, and said he had seen Northgreaves in rebuttal of the charge that Northgreaves had acted harshly toward W. J. Mahoney while the latter was drunk at the Thorndale fair of 1903. He had had some conversation with Northgreaves during the trial, and he had seen him in the jail, although he might have had a few drinks. Witness had seen Mahoney lying drunk by the railway track and had seen him being taken to the jail by Constables Paisley and Stainer had gone away, and witness got Northgreaves to take charge. The result of the medical examination caused Northgreaves to take an information against Mahoney at once. Mahoney was brought before Mr. McGuffin and fined, and not being able to pay the fine was sent to jail. Witness believed that Northgreaves had shown no cruelty towards Mahoney, and the man being plainly a fakir, witness had considered that the cells were the best place for him. The squire said he had known Northgreaves in his official capacity for many years and always found him an efficient officer. Northgreaves was a gentleman, had never found him in a willful lie, and had never known him to be dishonest. Northgreaves had always found him anything he did not deserve.

Asked whether he had ever deliberately taken information to Northgreaves in preference to the cases which he had sometimes hunted for the high constable and not finding him had gone to Northgreaves.

Allowed None to Escape

Constable Arthur Corsaut was called to give evidence. He was asked the charge that Northgreaves allowed several men to get away from Lily McGraw's disorderly house when he raided it a week or two ago. Northgreaves said he had made no such charge, but had simply remarked in evidence that he had known Northgreaves to let some of the men go. Northgreaves arrived on the scene after the raid.

The committee decided, however, to hear Corsaut. Northgreaves said he had heard Corsaut say that he had let some of the men go, and he had said that he had let some of the men go. Northgreaves said he had heard Corsaut say that he had let some of the men go, and he had said that he had let some of the men go.

WEDDED IN BUFFALO

Mr. William A. Dean, a London Old Boy, Wins a Bride.

One of the pretty weddings of last Wednesday evening was that of Miss Florence Percy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Percy, of 281 Rhode Island street, Buffalo, to Mr. William Archibald Dean, of Blenheim, Ont., formerly of the Bell Telephone Company, London.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Grenville, of St. Mary's church, at 8 o'clock. The wedding march was sounded, and the ushers, Mr. Joseph H. Chalmers and Mr. Charles White, led the bride and groom down the aisle for the bride party, which consisted of Helen Ahlers, niece of Mr. Percy, and Miss Helen White, daughter of Mr. Percy.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage.

After the ceremony, a reception was given to the guests. The bride and groom were seated at a table with twelve covers, and the table and green covers were carried out. The other guests were seated at tables with twelve covers, and the table and green covers were carried out.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nye Parnham, of Erie Beach, Canada; Mrs. H. H. Hines, of Erie Beach; Mr. Joseph H. Chalmers, of London; Mr. Charles White, of London; and Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, of Niagara Falls, New York.

Advertiser Correspondence

Socialism and War.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I note your comment on the action of the war against socialists in protesting against the invitation to the Toronto Industrial Exhibition to the effect that "Bobs didn't take the war." This is entirely beside the question. It is not a question of whether the war is to be welcomed, and it is not a question that the occasion is to be utilized by the jingo in aid of the insidious propaganda which has been going on for some years, almost without protest, for the development of imperialism and militarism. Terms which are practically synonymous. Every socialist fully realizes that militarism is contrary to the interests of the working class. There could be no better illustration of so obvious a truth than the results of the South African war, which has caused widespread poverty and destitution in Britain, reducing many of the "heroes" who helped our boys of their country to pauperism. As the author of the Biglow Papers has it:

"We get the licks, we're just the grist Lieutenant put into war's hoppers; he's in the high places, and he's the helps pick up the coppers."

It is the plain people of Canada, the farmers, mechanics and laborers—the real wealth producers—who support the Toronto Industrial and other exhibitions—not the tax eaters, exploiters and gorging and glittering officials who sit in the high places, and reap the influence for the upholding of class and caste prerogative. At a time when every effort is being made to cultivate imperialist sentiment, so that the British ruling class can in future count on the backing of the colonies in the wars of power which they are constantly waging, the working class who bear the burden ought to have their voices heard in protest. The invitation of Lord Roberts is

Very small and as easy to take as sugar.

FOR HEADACHE, FOR DIZZINESS, FOR BILIOUSNESS, FOR TORPID LIVER, FOR CONSTIPATION, FOR SALLOW SKIN, FOR THE COMPLEXION.

Very small and as easy to take as sugar.

FOR HEADACHE, FOR DIZZINESS, FOR BILIOUSNESS, FOR TORPID LIVER, FOR CONSTIPATION, FOR SALLOW SKIN, FOR THE COMPLEXION.

Very small and as easy to take as sugar.

FOR HEADACHE, FOR DIZZINESS, FOR BILIOUSNESS, FOR TORPID LIVER, FOR CONSTIPATION, FOR SALLOW SKIN, FOR THE COMPLEXION.

High Constable Defends Himself.

The case against McLeod was then opened, and Squire Samuel H. Gorwill was called by Northgreaves to substantiate the charge that McLeod was found in company with Mary MacFarlane.

Mr. McLeod asked to be allowed to speak, and he drew attention to the fact that Mary MacFarlane was a girl who was residing in a private house. Mr. McLeod declared that he was innocent of the charge, and was prepared to prove so, that for his own family's sake he had no wish to make. But for the sake of the girl, whom he declared to be innocent, he asked that the press deal lightly with the matter.

Northgreaves said that he was willing to draw the charge for the sake of McLeod's family, although he had witnesses to prove the charge beyond a doubt. Northgreaves said he would not have the medical examination of McLeod had not made personal charges against him.

The committee, however, desired to hear the evidence. Squire Gorwill testified that he had seen Mary MacFarlane go up the north stairs in the night, and that he had seen her in the room of the Constable. Squire, being recalled, said he had seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room of the Constable on the second floor of the courthouse on the above-mentioned date. Witness had seen McLeod go upstairs about an hour before, but did not see him at any time. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

Mr. McLeod called Mr. John Hughes, caretaker of the county buildings, in rebuttal. Mr. Hughes said he had never known that there was a key for the high constable's room, but admitted that on several occasions he had found the door locked. Witness could not say why the door was locked.

Mr. McLeod then gave evidence on the charge that Northgreaves had let some of the men go. Witness said he had never found it since. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

Mr. McLeod called Mr. John Hughes, caretaker of the county buildings, in rebuttal. Mr. Hughes said he had never known that there was a key for the high constable's room, but admitted that on several occasions he had found the door locked. Witness could not say why the door was locked.

Mr. McLeod then gave evidence on the charge that Northgreaves had let some of the men go. Witness said he had never found it since. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

Mr. McLeod called Mr. John Hughes, caretaker of the county buildings, in rebuttal. Mr. Hughes said he had never known that there was a key for the high constable's room, but admitted that on several occasions he had found the door locked. Witness could not say why the door was locked.

Mr. McLeod then gave evidence on the charge that Northgreaves had let some of the men go. Witness said he had never found it since. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

Mr. McLeod called Mr. John Hughes, caretaker of the county buildings, in rebuttal. Mr. Hughes said he had never known that there was a key for the high constable's room, but admitted that on several occasions he had found the door locked. Witness could not say why the door was locked.

Mr. McLeod then gave evidence on the charge that Northgreaves had let some of the men go. Witness said he had never found it since. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

Mr. McLeod called Mr. John Hughes, caretaker of the county buildings, in rebuttal. Mr. Hughes said he had never known that there was a key for the high constable's room, but admitted that on several occasions he had found the door locked. Witness could not say why the door was locked.

Mr. McLeod then gave evidence on the charge that Northgreaves had let some of the men go. Witness said he had never found it since. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

Mr. McLeod called Mr. John Hughes, caretaker of the county buildings, in rebuttal. Mr. Hughes said he had never known that there was a key for the high constable's room, but admitted that on several occasions he had found the door locked. Witness could not say why the door was locked.

Mr. McLeod then gave evidence on the charge that Northgreaves had let some of the men go. Witness said he had never found it since. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

Mr. McLeod called Mr. John Hughes, caretaker of the county buildings, in rebuttal. Mr. Hughes said he had never known that there was a key for the high constable's room, but admitted that on several occasions he had found the door locked. Witness could not say why the door was locked.

Mr. McLeod then gave evidence on the charge that Northgreaves had let some of the men go. Witness said he had never found it since. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

Mr. McLeod called Mr. John Hughes, caretaker of the county buildings, in rebuttal. Mr. Hughes said he had never known that there was a key for the high constable's room, but admitted that on several occasions he had found the door locked. Witness could not say why the door was locked.

Mr. McLeod then gave evidence on the charge that Northgreaves had let some of the men go. Witness said he had never found it since. Witness had not seen Mary MacFarlane enter the room before or since that one occasion.

Who Carried the Key?

THE WEATHER TODAY—Fine and warm.

Store Closed Saturday—Dominion Day.

Midsummer Sale Of Choice Linens

Sale Starts Monday Morning, July 3rd.

This is an annual event looked forward to by our regular customers, and taken advantage of by many who are not regular but appreciate real bargains. Owing to a large shipment of seconds in Table Cloths and Napkins coming to hand we commence our sale somewhat earlier than usual, as many are inquiring daily for these goods. We unite these two great sales into one Midsummer Linen Sale, and make it an offer.

Don't Let Your Holiday Visitors Keep You From This Sale. Bring them with you—they will thank you for it—we will too. The following partial list should convince you of the genuineness of the bargains:

Unbleached Tablings.

Regular 5c quality 29c
Regular 40c quality 34c
Regular 50c quality 42c
Regular 60c quality 56c
Regular 75c quality 63c
Regular 85c quality 74c
Regular 95c quality 82c

Termerite Hand-Drawn Tablecloths or Bedspreads, size 90x108, $23.50, $19 and $15.50 for $17.50, $14.50 and $12.50. 35x38, pure linen, 60 cent sale Monday at, each 39c

10 dozen Hemstitched Damask Tablecloths, 18x27, Midsummer sale price, each 79c

28 dozen Hemstitched Traycloths, 18x27, Midsummer sale price, each 39c

2x2 yards, at each $1.00 to $3.00
2x2 1/2 yards, at each $1.25 to $3.25
2x3 yards, at each $1.45 to $4.65
2x3 1/2 yards, at each $4.25 to $5.50
2x4 yards, at each $4.50 to $6.25
2x4 1/2 yards, at each $2.25 to $3.85
2x4 3/4 yards, at each $2.75 to $4.25
2x4 3/4 yards, at each $4.50 to $5.75
2x4 1/2 yards, at each $4.25 to $5.65

About 115 dozen Seconds in Napkins; 5/8 and 22-in. sizes; at, per dozen $1.25 and $2.15

Those who have ever bought these goods from us before need no urging; those who have not should investigate.

MAIL ORDERS—Out-of-town customers should take advantage of our Mail Order Department. Mention as nearly as possible what you want, and state about the price, and your orders will be promptly filled. We pay express charges.

Traveling Rugs for Summer Outing.

One of the necessary articles for your summer outing, whether on boat or train, is a Traveling Rug. We have a complete assortment of Rugs for you to choose from, in prices ranging from $3.50 to $7.50

SEE WEST WINDOW FOR TOURIST RUGS.

Golf Jerseys—One of the handy garments for boating, etc., light, warm and easy to carry, in cardinal, navy, cream and black, large sleeve; prices $1.75 and $2.00

SMALLMAN & INGRAM,

149, 151 and 153 Dundas Street. London.

PICNIC AT SILOAM

Sunday School Outing On Grounds of Mr. Chas. Hudson.

On Tuesday, June 27, on the beautiful lawn and orchard of Mr. Charles Hudson, con. 5, London township, the Siloam Sunday school held their annual outing. The weather was perfect, and soon after noon upwards of one hundred persons, large and small, had arrived. The grounds are very large, and seemed especially adapted for just such a gathering. It was not long before all were engaged in playing games. Even the older members of the crowd seemed to have regained their youth, and had some interesting games of football and baseball.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

After all had partaken of a very generous supper the races commenced, and here, as in the games, the little ones were joined by the grown-ups.

Preparatory to going home all assembled in the kitchen, and on the lawn, and joined in singing a few familiar pieces. Then the superintendent, Mr. George Lewis, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in so willingly giving their home to the use of the school, and for the very pleasant picnic.

THE WEATHER TODAY—Fine and warm.

Store Closed Saturday—Dominion Day.

Midsummer Sale Of Choice Linens

Sale Starts Monday Morning, July 3rd.

This is an annual event looked forward to by our regular customers, and taken advantage of by many who are not regular but appreciate real bargains. Owing to a large shipment of seconds in Table Cloths and Napkins coming to hand we commence our sale somewhat earlier than usual, as many are inquiring daily for these goods. We unite these two great sales into one Midsummer Linen Sale, and make it an offer.

Don't Let Your Holiday Visitors Keep You From This Sale. Bring them with you—they will thank you for it—we will too. The following partial list should convince you of the genuineness of the bargains:

Unbleached Tablings.

Regular 5c quality 29c
Regular 40c quality 34c
Regular 50c quality 42c
Regular 60c quality 56c
Regular 75c quality 63c
Regular 85c quality 74c
Regular 95c quality 82c

Termerite Hand-Drawn Tablecloths or Bedspreads, size 90x108, $23.50, $19 and $15.50 for $17.50, $14.50 and $12.50. 35x38, pure linen, 60 cent sale Monday at, each 39c

10 dozen Hemstitched Damask Tablecloths, 18x27, Midsummer sale price, each 79c

28 dozen Hemstitched Traycloths, 18x27, Midsummer sale price, each 39c

2x2 yards, at each $1.00 to $3.00
2x2 1/2 yards, at each $1.25 to $3.25
2x3 yards, at each $1.45 to $4.65
2x3 1/2 yards, at each $4.25 to $5.50
2x4 yards, at each $4.50 to $6.25
2x4 1/2 yards, at each $2.25 to $3.85
2x4 3/4 yards, at each $2.75 to $4.25
2x4 3/4 yards, at each $4.50 to $5.75
2x4 1/2 yards, at each $4.25 to $5.65