DAILY PAGE FOR ADVERTISER WOMAN READERS

Kingsmills

AND DRESSMAKING

DEPARTMENTS --

Are now open for the spring season. Book

your orders at once.

Same designers and management as in guarantee style,

Prices Most

Reasonable

HAVE YOUR SUIT TAILOR-

Kingsmill

The Quality Store.

quality and fit.

GILLETT'S LYE Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered No letters can be answered privately.] to keep supplied with good pieces.

t in The Morning Advertiser.

Helped Adeline's Father.

father. Steep two ounces of prickly e greenery adds to the effect, and uit school 35 years ago?

Schoolgiri Queries.

Dear Miss Grey,—1. I am twelve years d, and I am in Grade VII.; am I far Raisin Pie—One cup seeded raisins, 3 d, and I am in Grade VII.; am I far cups water, I teaspoon flour, I of vine-2. I have grey eyes, light brown hair, and medium complexion. What are my nd medium complexion. What are my minutes; let cool a little and put between 3. How late should I be out at night crusts.

3. How late should I be out at might Now, Miss Grey, I do not know if you with girl friends if my mother knows will "dub" me as a complainer or not. 4. What do you think of my writing? but I have been a wee bit disappointed

4. What do you taink of my writing? Hope you do not mind answering it.

HELEN.

Ans.—1. Yes, I would say so.

But I have been a wee bit disappointed with the old songs and poems column; there are very few poems, and when one has a piano the old songs do not benefit much without the music only to remind 2. Shades of blue, brown, grey, pink, one of younger days.

I would love to see some good poems; and old rose should look nice on you. 3. Best for little girls to be home I am an elocutionist, and it is so hard Anxious for Poems. Dear Miss Grey,-I am like others, enjoy your column very much

MRS. McCRAE ADDRESSES cipes, so left "turn about was lat passed and the recipe as I have not seen a crumb cake recipe like mine, and we think it extra good.

Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) McCrae gave an interesting and instructive address ye-terday afternoon at he regular monthly meeting of the Mission to Leppers, held in the Y.W.C.A. residence at Mellington street. There was a good attendance of the members. Miss prod attendance of the members. Miss produced the members of the members. Miss produced the members of the members of the members of the mission to the mission cipes, so felt "turn about was fair play, fill out, and mail with your donation, to treasurer of either society, Brightens the colors of linoleums and leaves a dry, smooth surface that doesn't readily hold dust. Contains no grit to scratch or wear the finish.

61A Elder Ave., Crouch End.

thanks to your preparation.

34 Elder Ave., Crouch End.

London, N., England,

"Fleased to say the bottle of Usit' left with me last May has completely cleared my face of the horrible wrinkles that were such an eyesore to my five daughters, and even the grand-children have their say about grandma's wrinkles.

"I look upon the preparation Tait' as a Godsend to wrinkle-suffering humanity.

"EMILY HALFORD."

"Sincerely yours.

London, N., June 22nd, 1914.

Mother has asked me to tell rou that she can see her wrinkles disappearing, and she's getting beautiful every hour-

BLANCH HALFORD."

Nov. 21st, 1914.

Lawrason's Snowflake

"The Arab's Secret has made Thousands Beautiful"

Ask for it by namesay "Snowflake."

The Joy of a Perfect

Complexion

sagging skin, knows the delight it would be to once more appear with the fresh bloom of youth and health on the cheeks. Cleopatra, Helen of Troy—what visions of beauty these names corture up. They knew the secret of a perfect complexion. They fed their skins.

'he secret of their beauty has come down to

Wrinkle Chaser

Skin Food

HE ingredients of Usit are the Oriental oils that have for centuries made famous the Try a bottle of Usit. Go to your druggist to-day. If he has not got it, send direct to our office. Put on the face some of this wonderful skin rejuvenator every night. In a week you will notice a marvelous difference. Guaranteed entirely free from hair growth.

beauties of the East. They are the very essence of the luxury of the Oriental toilet.

fect complexion. Anyone who has suffered from wrinkles, from candles with green shades would add FINE PATRIOTIC WORK most effective touch. For a menu this might answer!

Irish Stew. Emeralda. Ezcalloped Spuds. Shamrock Salad. Kerry Snew. Shillelabs. Irish Wine. Candy Corks.

The first item on this list may be a real Irish stew, or if preferred, a cream soup of some sort, tomato, or potato. "Paddy's pig" is, of course, roast pork, and the "emeralds" green peas. The shamrock salad is simply cabbage salad with "shamrock" leaves cut out of nice crisp lettuce, adorning the top. Ice cream with a little Irish flag stuck in the top, answers nicely for "Kerry snow." Make the shillelahs out of cooky dough, only instead of rolling out flat, shape portions of the dough with floured fingers into rather rough, blud- Hodgins, presiding. From representageon-like cakes, larger at one end than the other. The candy corks are made couraging reports were received, show-

Now, I am, like lots of others, a little curious to know what you think of my writing—for a grey-haired woman who cork shapes well in good works, their chief efforts being flavoring; with fingers, form into cork shapes well in good works, their chief efforts being flavoring; with fingers, form into cork shapes well in good works, their chief efforts being flavoring; with fingers form and the making of solutions and the solutions are solved as the solutions and the solutions are solved as the solutions cork shapes, roll in ground cocoa to give the proper color, and let harden. Now, if you think this worthy to grace The "Irish wine" is nothing more or less than plain, old-fashioned butteryour helpful column, would like to see Wishing you and your column much milk. It is well to have tea or coffee of joining with the National chapter

Ans.—Navy and military blue, the tan sade known as "sand" color, and battleship grey, are all rivals for popularity. I think you could wear any of these dress your communication to "The British Consul, Eridgetown, Barbadoes, the Trafalgar Chapter, with Mrs. Calors nicely; would recommend Belgian ue, or the "sand" shade for a giri's ish

2. Your writing is easy to read, and occupied the members mostly; Dear Miss Grey,—Here is the prom-sed remedy for asthma. It helped my sh bark in one quart of whiskey; let stand for a week or ten days, or seem to get help from your valuable been made by the members. nger; strain and bottle. Take a tableonger; strain and bottle. Take a table but to get deep hold to get deep ho I can safely say the partaker will never get fond of whiskey taken in this form.

Wants to Enlist.

The forest, "Lochaber No More," of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose and "A Person Circulty Princess Patricia Chapter, whose of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose are the members of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose are the members of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose are the members of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose are the members of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose are the members of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose are the members of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose are the members of the Princess Patricia Chapter, whose are the patricia Chapter, whose are the patricia Chapter, whose patricia Chapter, wh ADELINE. and "A Banner O'er the Braes of Mar"? chief undertaking during the year was

us. Gladly passed on to our readers. any branch of the army?

for my heart is all for you When the war is o'er

It was sung at the time of the Fran

GIFTED PUPILS ARE

Enjoyable Affair at Home of Miss Nora Little Recently.

at the studio of Miss Nora Little, 279 Hyman street, recently, several of her most pleasing and artistic program be- pressed. fore a gathering of friends.

The Program.

The program contained these numbers: "Laughter Wears a Lilled Gown" (Gena Branscombe), W. A. Rossiter; "Il est Doux, Il est Bon" from "Herodi-Eyes" and (b) "On the Way when Death Will Knock at Thy Door" from "Gitanjali" (John Alden Carpenter). Mr. Stephen Steer; "King Charles" (Naude Valerie White), Mr. W. A. Rossiter; (a) "Little Dalsies Close Their Eyes' (Agnes Lambert) and (b) "Vil-(Dell Acque), Miss Irwin; reading, "The Unexpected Guest" (Margaret Cameron), Miss Gwendolyn An-

Love Story (Amy Woodford-Finden).

Miss Annie Erock (sopyrano) and Mr.

Miss Patherson was to have same with Mr. Rossiter (hardrone).

Miss Fatherson was to have same with Mr. Rossiter in the first number.

Miss Fatherson was to have same with Mr. Rossiter in the first number.

Miss Fatherson was to have same with Mr. Rossiter in the first number.

Miss Fatherson was to have same with Mr. Rossiter in the first number.

Miss Fatherson was to have same with Mr. Rossiter in the first number.

Miss Fatherson was to have same with the first number of the same of the correct one was the Forey.

Miss Fatherson was to have same with the first number of the same of the correct one was to have same with the correct one was the same of the correct one was to have a second the same of the same of the man you to me about the name of the same of th

OF LOCAL I. O. D. E.

Many Activities Reported at General Annual Meeting. A very large at-of a cream fondant, simply formed by ing the last year to have been one of am an elecutionist, and it is so hard o keep supplied with good pieces.

Now, I am, like lots of others, a little form a stiff nester add a little reprile.

Getting New Suit.

Dear Miss Grey,—Please answer this question for me. This is my first visit to your Mail-Box, but I read it every hight. Lam tall and thin with dark

A MOTHER OF ONE.

A MOTHER OF ONE.

A mother of one all undertakings of this chapter. Were all undertakings of this chapter. Were all undertakings of this chapter.

A pattern of this went to school till I was ten years old. The Lord Eighn Chapter, of which through sickness. Hoping you won't through sickness. Hoping you won't throw this aside. While not possessing so large a mem-

West Indies." This ought to reach him.

West Indies. This ought to reach lard at the head, is a most active one. Work for the soldiers' comforts have very good considering what oppor-tunity you bad. oppor-relief fund and Red Cross ambulance, relief fund and relief fund and Red Cross ambulance, relief fund and rel and assisted other organizations in various ways. Quite a large number of Dear Miss Grey,-As other people shirts, socks, pyjamas, and so on, have be.

Ans.—Thank you very much, Adeline, 2. I am 14 years old, 5 feet 4 inches putting on a vaudeville entertainment, for your kindness in procuring this for tall, and weigh 129. Could I enlist in at which some $434 was raised for the army? Hoping to see the songs in print soon. Duchess of Connaught's funds for the I remain of "A FIGHTING CLAN." Eritish sailors. The chapter has A TALE OF THE FRONTIER Dear Miss Grey,—Would you please publish a bill of fare that would be suitable for an Irish supper, which we inable for an Irish supper, which we intend to have on the 17th of Island to have on the 17th of Island to have on the 17th of Island to have a contract the property of the prop publish a bill of fare that would be can able for an Irish supper, which we indeed to have on the 17th of tend to have on the 17th of March. We would like to carry out the idea of having everything as Irish as idea of having everything as Irish as possible. And oblige.

CHURCH WORKER.

Ars.—A pretty decoration for the tables (if you are having long ones) is to have the "Lakes of Killarney," represented by oblong mirrors placed at intervals, and massed around with vines, smilax or anything green you can get. A few shells or pretty stones in among ter, some eight members resigning in order to build up the new organiza-Dear Miss Grey,—So many beautiful old songs are found by writing to your column, I thought I would write and see if any of your readers had heard of the song, the chorus of which types like this.

Order to build up the new organization. The Princess Patricias are now actually had a part in the plot? She looked at him gravely, down into his very soul. "Yes, and—and that burts more than all the rest."

Under the leadership of Mrs. E. B. all the rest. song, the chorus of which runs like this:
Smith the Lord Roberts Chapter has enjoyed a most prosperous year, the Smith the Lord Roberts Chapter has enjoyed a most prosperous year, the membership numbering almost a hundred. Early in the year this chapter devoted its efforts towards a Queen Victoria drinking fountain. This object was later laid aside, when the chapter expended its energies along patriotic works. Meetings for work have been the could but be conscious of those barman could be conscious of these barman could be conscious of those barman could be conscious of these barman could be conscious of these barman could be conscious of these barman could be conscious of the could be conscio latter organization, and Miss Ruth Rob-inson reported for the Sir John Carling

a most enjoyable rectial was held Chapter for the Red Cross Society, The calented pupils, assisted by Miss Gwen- the assistance of the Princess Patricia | the dolyn Anthistle, reader, presenting a and Lord Roberts members was exsumming up of the work accomplished but to but the order in London during the him year, her report dealing more especially with the activities of the Municipal Chapter. The presentation of a rifle "Il est Doux, Il est Bon" from "Herodiade" (Massenet), Miss Leah Thomas:

(a) "The Sleep that Flits on Baby's legiste Rifle Corps' competition upon the Occasion of the visit of Gen. Hughes

"I thought so. The poor devil got the occasion of the visit of Gen. Hughes o London, was the idea of this general eyes to his face.

"I think I have always needed you, she said simply.

"Do you mean," he asked eagerly,
"that you love me?"
"What else could I mean?" she said slowly. "It is not new to me. I have known it for a long while."
"That I loved you?"

PRACTICE DAILY. It

1.ondon ADVERTISER & TTERN DEPT. Music

The Essence of Pure Fruits. MADE IN CANADA

The Last Eight Pullman Daven-ports at 25 Per Cent Off. A regular $57 Davenport now $42.50 A regular $49 Davenport now $38.00 A regular $39 Davenport now $29.75 Others as low as $20.00. See these in our window while they last.

H. Wolf & Sons

263-265 Dundas St. South Side.

was later laid aside, when the chapter expended its energies along patriotic lines. Meetings for work have been held twice weekly in Cronyn Hall, and a large number of knitted articles and garments, donated to soldiers' comforts, the secret of the quality in "SAL-ADA" packets is in the immensity of the sales. The more people who buy "SALADA," the smaller becomes the necessary profit per pound, and consequently, the greater value it is possible to give you for your money. With the bulk tea merchant the temptation is to make a greater profit at your expense by supplying an inferior tea.

Was later laid aside, when the chapter salong patriotic expended its energies along patriotic lines. Meetings for work have been lines. With the minimal lines. Meetings for work have daries and large number of knitted articles and large num his challenge.
"That was nothing," she protested,
"That was nothing," she protested,

inson reported for the Sir John Carling Chapter, the sum of $15 raised for soldiers' comforts at a tea-danaante recently given. Mrs. Cl. T. Campbell welcomed the two new chapters into the municipal fold.

Mrs. Duncan told in an interesting way of the work of the Scott Memorial Chapter for the Red Cross Society. The children were most enthusiastic over their sewing. Much appreciation for the assistance of the Princess Patricia and Lord Roberts members was expressed.

Mrs. R. M. Graham gave a splendid summing up of the work accomplished by the order in London during the

the wrong man."
"Why? Were these two enemies?"
"Why? Were these two enemies?" chapter.

The Officers.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Honorary regent, Mrs. H. A. Boomer (by a standing vote); regent, Mrs. W. E. Hodgins: first vice-regent, Mrs. Niven; second vice-regent, Mrs. Withit wam; secretary, Mrs. R. M. Graham; treasurer, Mrs. Cl.

"Why? Were these two enemies?" "They had been partners, stealing and running cattle. Dupont had cheated Hughes out of his share, and there was bad blood between them. I ran across the fellow up on the Cimarron, waiting for Dupont to come back to his old range, Did you ever hear Dupont called by any other name?" She shook her head questioningly. "No; wasn't that his real name. The the stain on my name, or any less desirous of wringing the truth from Gene Le Fevre's lips, but even the memory of that past can keep me silent no longer. You are alone in the world new, alone, and in the shadow of disgrace—you need me."

Advertiser Patterns

He stopped, amazed at the boldness of his own words, and, in the silence of that hesitation, Molly lifted her eyes to his face.

she said simply.

He did not touch her, except to clasp the extended hands. The loneliness of the girl, here, helpless, alone with him in that wilderness of snow, bore in upon his consciousness with a suddenness that robbed him of all sense of triumph. He had spoken passionately, recklessly, inspired by her nearness, her dependence upon him. He had faith that she cared, her eyes, her manner had told him this, yet even now he could not realize all that was meant by that quiet confession. The iron discipline of years would not relax instantly; in spite of the boldness of his utterrance, he was still the soldier, feel, ing the chasm of rank. Her very confession, so simply spoken, tended to confuse and mystify him.

"Do you mean," he asked eagerly,

To Bo Continued,

Musical Study-Home Conditions

onservatory

354-6 Dundas St. Phone 1101. Lottle L. Armstrong, Regis-trar; F. Linforth Willgoose, Mus.Bac. (Dunelm), Principal.

The Clean-Up

Our Mid-Winter Furniture Sale

"Sweetheart" Jelly Powders 10 Cents, 3 for a Quarter.

To Remove Blackheads

Sprinkle a little Po Theoline (pro-curable at any drug store), on a hot. wet sponge, and rub briskly over the affected parts. Then rince and note how the blackheads have disappear-ed. Anyone troubled with these un-sightly blemishes should certainly try this method.

VEGETABLES

SPECIAL: CELERY

CHOICE HOME-GROWN All other Vegetables supplied. Inquiries by telephone or mail

MAIN & COLLYER

the Counter

will tell you how popular "Easifirst" is becoming with the great majority of his customers.

him fire?"
"Yes, but it was so sudden I could not even cry out. He was upon one knee, and his revolver waved like this as he tried to aim. Dupont saw it, and himself with the could be supported by the other women say of "Easifirst."

This ideal "shortening" is rapidly becoming known and appreciated among Canadian women. Friend is telling friend how it improves baking results. and what a great economy it effects in the kitchen.

Next time you give a grocery order, say to the man behind the counter, Usit Manufacturing Company, Limited 444 Roncesvalles Avenue, Toronto.

Phone Junction 6142.

cordurey bridge.

and healthy complexion.

