

Bowdoin, flagship of the MacMillan expedition to the Arctic, undergoing repairs at Hopedale, Labrador

The Prince of Wales riding in a native dug-out on the Zambesi river, South Africa

On the summit of Wolverine Pass. These riders are breaking a new trail from Marble Canyon to Lake Ottawa

Nature's shower bath at Clovelly, New South Wales, where waves shoot high on the rocky shore

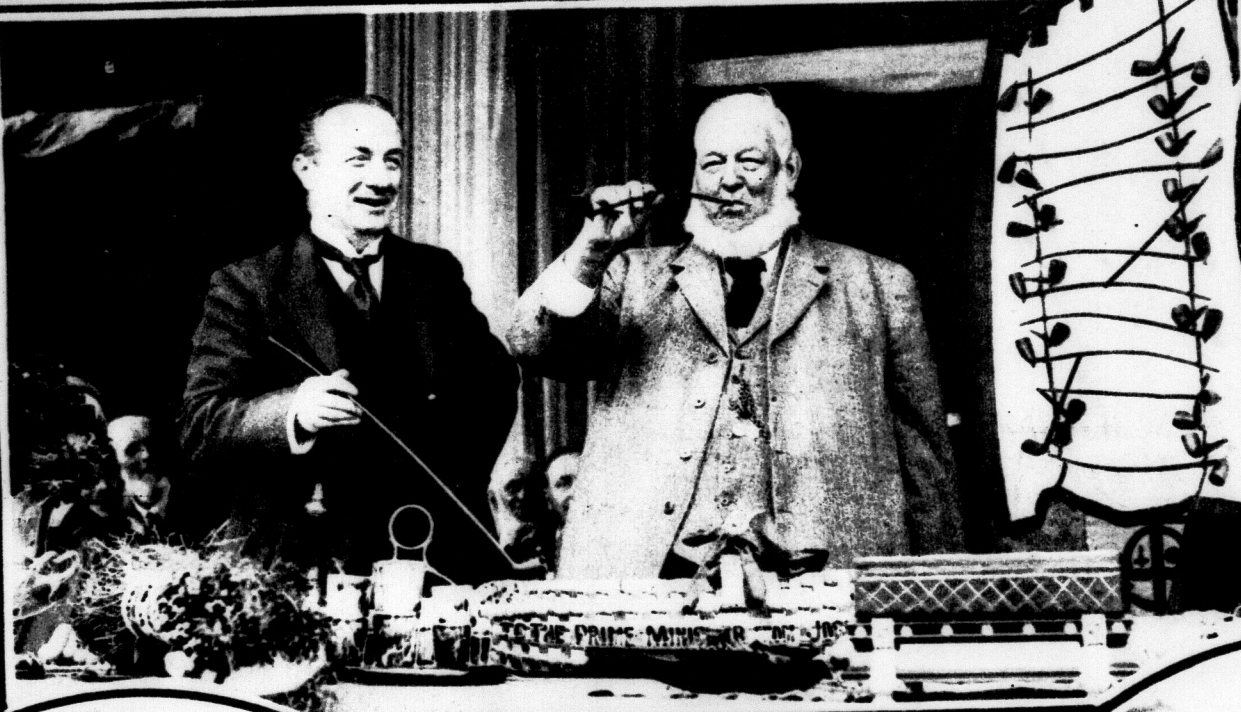

Start of a swimming race for policemen in uniform at Brighton, England

The world's youngest crown prince—Peter of Serbia—on his second birthday

Mrs. Coolidge, wife of the United States president, wearing a lace cap brought from Brittany for her

Premier Baldwin of Great Britain visits Bewdley, his birthplace, and is presented, by ex-Mayor Oakes, on right, with clay pipes and other articles produced in the town

The Marquise Merry Del Val, wife of the Spanish minister to Great Britain

The home of Mr. W. E. Thurston, Toronto artist, being moved, with furnishings intact, on a scow from Bronte to a new site. Bathers ran a cable out from the pier when a gale threatened to blow the house into the lake

Mop fighting at the annual regatta at Brighton, England

The home of Mr. W. E. Thurston, Toronto artist, being moved, with furnishings intact, on a scow from Bronte to a new site. Bathers ran a cable out from the pier when a gale threatened to blow the house into the lake

War memorial to the Rifle Brigade of the British army unveiled by the Duke of Connaught in Grosvenor Gardens, London

Prince and Princess Arthur of Connaught, visiting Luna Park, London, where an entertainment was held to assist a hospital fund

Fording the Credit river at Eldorado Park