WOMEN and THE HOME

Plumbers and Decorators Now Busy On Queen's Avenue Building.

PLAN FOR ANNUAL Board Arranges For Yearly

Meeting On February 4.

Plumbers and decorators are busily engaged at the new Queen's avenue Y.W.C.A., putting it in readiness for the moving, which will take place between Christmas and New Year's Day. Reports of operations in connection with the new building were made at yesterday's meeting of the board by Mrs. S. L. Taylor, convener of the by Miss M. Morten, general secretary of The whole building on Queen's avenue is to be decorated and cleaned for occupancy early in the new year. Yesterday the coal stored in the King street building was transferred to the residence, the board deciding to keep only the best of the furniture in both residences. The Queen's avenue building will be for administration purpose ing will be for administration purposes only, so bedroom furniture will not be needed. Furniture not needed in the Wellington street residence or at the Queen's avenue building will be taken to the Orendaga camp at Port Bruce, or to Summerholm. Annual on Feb. 4. Arrangements were made for the innual meeting of the association, which will be reld in the new building on Feb. 4, with Miss Mary Dingman, world industrial secretary for the Y. W. C. A., as special speaker. Nine new members are to be elected to the board on this occasion, eight to fill the places automatically vacated by board members who go off this year, ninth to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. B. King's resignation.

The board is made up of twenty-four members in all. A nominating com mittee was named yesterday to suggest names for the vacancies. This comnittee includes Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. James Lambie, Mrs. D. C. McFarland, Mrs. Angus Graham, Mrs. J. H. Cameron. A mmittee was also appointed to look after the program and refreshments for the annual meeting, and includes for the annual meeting, and includes
Mrs. H. E. Boomer and Mrs. Angus

Sunday Home Hours. attending on an average each Sunday.

There are now seventy girls on the Sunday home hour roll. It is expected that this number will increase when the association moves into the new building. And the intermediate in the sunday home hour roll increase when the association moves into the new building. And the intermediate in the sunday home hour roll increase when the association moves into the new building.

a social evening after church each Sun- King street. Miss Elma Mandell of Cleveland will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Mandell, at the Sunday home hour. Next Sunday home hour. will be the hostesses. Other organiz

DAY NURSERY PLANS BIG CHRISTMAS TREE

Kind-Hearted Citizens Will Supply Toys For Children.

nursery are looking forward to next Tuesday afternoon, when Santa Claus will visit that institution and distribute presents from the great Christ-Kelley of Queen's avenue

MCKay.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Annie Ballantyne; first vice-president, Mrs. J. Peebles; second vice-president, Mary Hodge; secretary, Irene Shera; mits become a second vice-president. tribute presents from the great Christ-mas tree, which has been promised them. The rooms are to be gaily well street, are arranging a young day nursery, and afternoon tea will be served them when they arrive to take their children home for the day.

The mothers are to be guests of the day.

Huron college, who will be Christmas westminster guests in Montreal, are going on to Sherbrooke to spend the New Year with their children home for the day.

Huron college, who will be Christmas guests in Montreal, are going on to Sherbrooke to spend the New Year with their children home for the day.

Huron college, who will be Christmas guests in Montreal, are going on to Sherbrooke to spend the New Year with their children home for the day.

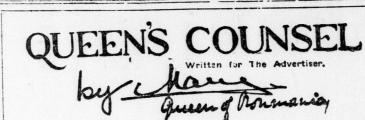

Huron college, who will be Christmas guests in Montreal, are going on to Sherbrooke to spend the New Year with their children home for the day. Already several Londoners have promised to help out with toys and "eats." Mrs. James Lambie has offered toys and Mrs. Charles Keene the ice cream for the occasion. There is still an opportunity here for others to Mrs. William Mel.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meldrum of the president, Mrs. H.D.Crozier, in children home for the day.
eady several Londoners have Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Newton.

John Sinclair exn by Mrs. Alvin Black-occupying the pulpit at both the morn-

It is easier to run away than to stick it out

I am thinking of quarrels between sweethearts or married people. . . . se the noble with the cowardly in these situations. Suppose, for example, the young wife has a real grievance. It So often we confuse the noble with the cowardly in these situations. Supmay be anything from the man's ungenerousness in money matters to his over-generousness in attentions to another woman. It may be drink or some other vice. Or perhaps it is the husband who has just cause for ance and there will be a tree and gifts i and all sorts of goodies. Although some of the 28 residents are much too The first impulse of the self-respecting innocent party is to pick up and go away. I speak, of course, of serious offences not petty misunderstandings. On first thought it seems the noble thing to do, the On first thought it seems the noble thing to do, the dignified thing, the difficult thing. But it is often the easiest thing. The hard thing is to stay and think it out, work it out, analyze the situation and try to find the remedy.

For marriage is a partnership and must be dealt with administration building committee and like any other-thoughtfully, patiently, I was about to say in a businesslike

In honor of Mrs. C. C. Waller of this city, who is a guest with her sister, the

The many friends of Miss Helen onor of Miss Laura Green, a bride hour this week.

with much enthusiasm

There were about 20 guests.

A man entering business is called upon to face innumerable difficulties. A man entering business is called upon to face innumerable difficulties.

His partner behaves unfairly, breaks promises, defaults in money matters, is when a Christmas dinner will be served negligent, selfish, sometimes stupid. The man does not slam his office door and at 5 o'clock, followed by a tree and a give up the whole undertaking even though it may seem very noble to do so, facing as he does heavy losses and a future of solitary effort. He rallies his forces, uses his mind, his tact, his generosity, his powers of Queen's avenue building. Much of the persuasion, patience, endurance, dignity. He and his partner eventually get together on a new basis, smooth out the difficulties, hard as it is sometimes to do cheer at Byron sanatorium was received furniture in the King street building furniture in the King street building will be moved to the Wellington street it, requiring concessions and forgiveness, and emerge into smooth seas at last. Many times have I seen this happen in marriage—the troublous early years tee, when the pupils of Stanley Gem-becoming calm, happy even, because the aggrieved partner held out instead of mell's class at the Lord Roberts school

(Copyright, 1925)

Social and Personal

HER MAJESTY MAPIE

QUEEN OF RUMANIA

Mr. Frank C. Harris of this city spent the week-end in Stratford. Mr. Gordon Screaton of Philadelphia will spend Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Herbert Screaton, Central avenue. The nurses of Victoria hospital are rranging a dance to be held in the Medical school on January 4.

Mr. Cliff Robinson was a recent guest Toronto, stopping at the Carls-Rite

Toronto will be guests in Hamilton for the marriage of Miss Mary Hendrie. Mrs. R. Fowler of Adelaide street has Mrs. Frank Ingram, Jun., in Stratford. Mr. Gordon Bridgeman, Hyman treet, has been spending a few days in

Mr Joe Cake of Detroit will be a Christmas guest with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cake, Quebec street.

ay nome nour ron. It is expected this number will increase when association moves into the new ing. And the intention is to hold all evening after church each Sundial evening after church experiments and after church experiments after the churc the avenue.

Orendag club, a group from the Huron Mrs. W. G. Murray, Richmond street idays for her ception, when over 200 guests were wel-hopes to have more accommodation, and will be able to ask the girls to bring their men friends with them.

Other interesting reports given were the Travellers' Aid report, presented by Mrs. H. E. Boomer, the girls' work may be able to ask the girls to bring their men friends with them.

Other interesting reports given were the Travellers' Aid report, presented by Mrs. H. E. Boomer, the girls' work may blue and yellow lighted candles in silver holders. Mrs. Thompson received her guests wearing a becoming French silver holders. Mrs. Thompson received her guests wearing a becoming French and Mrs. T. T. McG. Stoker of Montreal will be guests in Hamilton for the brown velvet, while Mrs. E. A. Little, Mrs. Boomer, the girls' work with Mrs. E. A. Little, ber sister, who received with her, was

marriage of Miss Mary Hendrie

Miss Olive Cook, R. N., of Detroit, is a guest with Mrs. W. A. McRoberts, Carlton avenue, and will be a guest in the city for the Christians of Miss Drown velvet, while Mrs. E. A. Little, her sister, who received with her, was gowned in a French creation of black with bead trimming, and wore a black with bead trimming, and wore a black hat. Mrs. Ernest Weld invited the guests to the teargon where Mrs. Little, The installation will take place on the Strain of January.

Wilson.

The installation will take place on the Strain of January.

WEDNESDAY FOUR O'CLOCKS.

The tenth in the series of Wednesday. work marriage of Miss Mary Hendrie in the city for the Christmas holidays. Rev. Father F. J. Powell of this city week-end with Rev. Fathe aculate Conception church on Sun-Prof. H. S. Walker of the department Mrs. Douglas Weld and Mrs. George botany of the University of Western tario and Mrs. Walker will spend the 'hristmas vacation with the latter's ained at tea recently in honor of Mrs. ing, the Bible study was taken by Mars V. K. Greer, formerly of this city, and Hodge, and the mission study by Isabel Mrs. D. A. Campbell, a recent arrival McKay.

still an opportunity here for others to Meldrum's mother, Mrs. William Mel-help out. Meldrum, Askin street. Miss Betty Straddley of Detroit will be a guest with Miss Viola Stevens, the Brigden United home of Mrs. A. D. be a guest with Aliss violation of Mrs. A. D. week-end coming to town for Miss Nonie Nashs dance a week from Satur-Rev. Mark Turnbull of this city was ceffee loses flavor and strength h evaporation. How much more tory to buy Rideau Hall Coffee in um Sealed tin.

eau Hall FFEE

BEGIN TOMORROW

Military Patients at Byron Will Have Dinner On Tuesday.

The gayest season of the year, Christventorium will give their party, arranged as usual by the Knights of Honor class of the Metropolitan church. Santa Claus will be in attend young to enjoy the party, there are none too small to receive a Christmas gift. On Tuesday, Dec. 22, the annual Christmas dinner of the Byron military vide a splendid individual Christmas stocking and fruit, sweets and candies and other decorations for the dinner table. A program, arranged by the Y. M. C. A., will follow the dinner. Rev. R. D. Mess, chaplain, will preside.

The civilian patients will enjoy their visit from Santa Claus. The members Health Association will provide special arous donation to the Christmas man of the Red Cross visiting commitbrought many gifts of home-cooked dainties, sweets, etc., done up in at-tractive, small parcels. The girls, who are also pupils of Miss Maybelle Stewart's household science class, made the good things themselves, and the boys contributed little special gifts. These will be added to the Christmas party

CLUB NEWS

REBEKAH LODGES.

Helen Johnson entertained at the tea Officers of the two city lodges. Victoria Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, and May The many friends of Miss Helen Doerr, formerly of London, but who is now living in Kitchener, will be interested to learn that she is a member Lodge, No. 208, at the home of the local of the Kitchener ladies' band. This, the only band of its kind in Canada, made its debut on Dec. 6 at the Capitol orated with Christmas colors, and the Theatre, Kitchener, and was greeted table was attractively arranged with

Mrs. Robert Rider was the hostess of narcissi. a delightfully-arranged shower on Sat-urday last, when she entertained in and Mrs. T. R. Waugh pre: ent, addressed before she presented the Lilelect of early January. The early part of the evening was spent in bridge, with lian Rebekah lodge with an ebony gavel, tipped with silver. Mrs. Clargo prethe guest of honor as prize winner. Her sented the noble grand with some lovely prize was a basket filled with tiny pieces of hand-painted china. Both gifts were from the guests from Lonon which were written the hiding-places of her many lovely gifts. don. The balance of the evening was spent in cards and music Mrs A D. Miss Margaret Jordan was the hostess

Mrs. K. P. R. Neville and circle met last evening and elected companion, Mrs. D hat. Mrs. Ernest Weld invited the guests to the tearoom, where Mrs. John Weld and Mrs. Mathewson, aunts of the bride, presided over the pretty tea Art, with the musical director, A. D. table, which was centered with Sunset lable, which was centered with Sunset Jordan, presiding, and presented the roses in a silver bowl and green candles following students: Eleanor Bendle, Mary Leff, Lois Fry, Janet Smith, Jean Simmons. Gladys Chapman, Marion Lewis, Shirley Jeffries, Elsie Wood. Norfolk

ATWOOD MISSION BAND. Atwood, Dec. 15.—At the mission band of the Presbyterian church meet mas tree, which has been promised them. The rooms are to be gaily decorated for the occasion and special good things will be added to the supper menu.

The mothers are to be guests of the the mothers are to be guests of the things college, who will be Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. McCormick, Burdellier Blackwell; assistant, Irene McCutcheon; superintendent, Mrs. Hodge; assistant, Mrs. J. Hanna; lookout and program committee. Miss Easson, Miss Agnes Dickson, Mrs. Peebles, Mrs. Hungo college, who will be Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. McCormick, Burdellier Blackwell; assistant, Irene McCutcheon; superintendent, Mrs. Hodge; assistant, Mrs. J. Hanna; lookout and program committee. Miss Easson, Miss Agnes Dickson, Mrs. Peebles, Mrs. Hodge, Mrs

n silver holders. Yellow and blue andles were also used in the tearcom.

Assisting in serving the guests were

WESTMINSTER GUILD.

Thorndale, Dec. 15.—The W. A. of St. George's Anglican church, Thorndale, met at the rectory. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Mrs. A. C. Cummer, president: Mrs. O.

I took seemed to do me any good. Lindsay, vice-president; Mrs. W. Logan, secretary; Miss L. Lee, treasurer, Plans were discussed for the coming seaso A letter was read by the secretary received from Mrs. (Rev.) Ellis of Union Lake, Sask., acknowledging the splen-did bale which the W. A. of this branch recently sent to them. Afternoon tea was served by the hostess. GRENFELL MISSION.

The members of the London branch of the Grenfell mission have arranged to hold a public meeting in the interests of the mission in Warner hall on December 28. Dr. A. J. Lamont, of the University of Western Ontariostaff, who spent last summer in Labrador, will give an illustrated lecture on his visit there. The slides were made by him from photographs taken during his trip, and are exceedingly his trip, and are exceedingly interesting and instructive. An excel-lent musical program is also being arranged, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Little and her executive.

erous in helping out the hour. Next Suntition of St. Andrew's ses. Other organizated as hostesses Student Christian E University, the University, the see Hours of Chicago Will State of Christian and Mrs. Sidney Mandell, Colborne street.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Mandell, Colborne street.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Mandell, Colborne street.

Miss Lois Purdom of Chicago will Stathleen Richardson, Margaret McCallum, Torry Brener, Sylvia Granger, College Street Woods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. May Halidane; the Moods; sub-chief, Mrs. A. Sheridan; minute secretary, Mrs. A smart event of yesterday was Mrs. guard, Mrs. G. Hutchinson; entertaining at the tea hour Septimus Thompson's post-nuptial re- guard, Mrs. George Dorkin; pianist daughter, Miss Eulalie Murray.

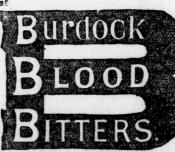

in the new building after the g of the year, the committee g of the year, the year,

Marjorie Lewis, Marion Keen, Beth Harkness, Georgina Gordon, Dorothy Heard, Margaret Macmillan, Mary Macauley, Marion Pickering, Ethel Gurney Rose Zankan, Dorothy Edwards, Grac Tambling, Margaret Wyatt, and Billy Irene Burns, Alberta Tory, Hazel Taylor, Mabel Stevens, Doris Werner, Mil dred Chantler, Dorothy Munroe, Irene Foster, and Gladys Roedding.

EALING MOTHERS' CLUB. The members of the Ealing Mothers' club gathered at the home of Mrs. Mc-Falls. Hume street, last evening to present their president, Mrs. Mark Ayres, with an umbrella. Mrs. Ayres is leaving for England this week. The presentation was made by Mrs. Tandy.

following an address read by Mrs. Stur With Large, Red Pimples

Miss Greta Carlisle, 23 Leonard St., Brantford, Ont., writes:—"A short while ago, my face was completely covered with large red pimples, and it seemed that it was almost impossible One day I noticed an advertisement

For the past 47 years B.B.B. has been put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GRAY'S, LIMITED

SALE NOW O

IN OUR STORE-3RD AND 4TH FLOOR - STARTS DAILY, 9 A.M.

LONDON

Paris Ready-To-Wear | Villa La Mode STRATFORD

LADIES' AND MISSES' READY-TO-WEAR

Values to $20.00

Values to $47.00

Values to $65.00

COATS

AT AMAZING PRICES.

FUR TRIMMED COATS, high quality fabrics and best

Values to $30.00 $15.95

Values to $37.50 $19.95

$9.95

$25.95

$35.00

$5.00

All New and Up-To-Date Garments at Bankrupt Sale Prices

SILK DRESSES

A wonderful collection of Lovely Frocks, of Plain and $4.95 Values to $15.00 $5.95 Values to $20.00 $9.95 Values to $25.00

BEADED AND AFTERNOON DRESSES. One-Third of the Regular Prices.

FLANNEL DRESSES $4.95

Third Floor.

SUITS

Ensemble Suits—Half Price

WINTER COATS, warm and service-

Beautifully Tailored Suits, in poiret twills and $19.95 serges, navy and black. Values to $50.00

SKATING SUITS, of brush wool.

Third Floor.

able, self-collars. Values to $20.00.

New fashionable shapes, of the seasons most popular fabrics

BANKRUPT SALE PRICES. Sale price .

$1.00 | 50 Hats. Sale price $2.95 75 pattern Hats $5.95

Fourth Floor.

GRAY'S, LIMITED

50 Hats.

Sale price

140 DUNDAS STREET.

trim them, but he could keep watchdanger might be. It was enough for while the others worked, and this was them that they had been warned. There

Paddy Is Delayed

DEC 17-BURGES BEDTIME BY THORNTON W. BURGESS. Peter Rabbit felt very proud of being atchman for the Beaver family as worked in the grove of poplars on es shore of their new pond in the Green erest. He felt quite important, did eter. He couldn't cut trees or help

By False Alarm

ENGAGEMENTS ($1.00 for 2 insertions) on the Women's Page is made for notices under this heading. Orders for inserting of engagement notices must bear the name and addition of sender and must be in this office by 9 o'clock on the evening preceding first day of insertion.

Mrs. William Whittle, 428 Pall Mall St., announces the engagement of her daughter Jessie, to George J. Vincent Koch, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. It. How the Beaver, Mrs. Paddy and the two young Beavers dropped their work and Koch of Lyndrook, Long Island, N. Y. the marriage to take place in Lyndrook on Dec. 26.

and headed for a handy hollow log as fast as his legs could take him.

At the sound of that thump Paddy the Beaver, Mrs. Paddy and the two young Beavers dropped their work and the waste of time. Yu see they didn't dare go ashore and they waited for Peter Rabbitto appear. They didn't stop to find out what the et in Mrs. Ayres absence the host-really helping. Hadn't Paddy the Beaver said so?

keep that in mind." Peter promised that he would and began his duties as watchman. He kept is wobbly little nose wobbling all the me to test the air for the scent of any one approaching. He kept his long ears up and open for any suspicious sound. Every now and then he looked all about this way and that way. But he didnt put much faith in his eyes. It was too dark to see far anyway. By this time each of the Beavers had cut down a tree and all were now busy trimming off the limbs and getting ready to cut the trunks in logs which could be handled. Peter scent.

But though they looked and ist ame so interested in watching that became so interested in watching that he forgot that he was supposed to be the watchman. Yes, sir, he forgot it completely. Suddenly a wandering Little Night Breeze blew right in Peter's face and brought the scent of Reddy Fox. It was so strong that Peter knew that Reddy must be very near. Instantly Peter thumped with his hind feet. He thumped with all his might and headed for a handy hollow log as fast as his legs could take him.

At the sound of that thump Paddy the Beaver, Mrs. Paddy and the two young Beavers dropped their work and most politely.

But though they looked and istened would be time enough to find out later the four brown heads appeared above what the danger was. Almost at once what the danger was. Almost at once what the water but each one still there. They were sure that it was freshments were served by the hoses.

GIRLS' CANADIAN CLUB.

The regular supper meeting of the Girls' Canadian club was held at Lenmore last evening. The tables were gay with Jerusalem cherry trees and gay with Jerusalem cherry trees and faring skirts arranged over baskets of faring skirts arranged above the tables wand little header over the swam a little header pect. I really didn't mean to hold up your work, Paddy." Paddy fairly snorted with disgust, "All-that time lost," he muttered, and led the way ashore. (Copyright, 1925, by T. W. Burgess)

