

Weekly Colonist

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1887. WOMAN SUFFRAGE DEFEATED. The act giving the women of Washington Territory the ballot, has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the Territory.

POLITICAL NOTES.

NOT "RUINED BY AN ARREAR." The funny scene of Wednesday, when the honorable member for Nanaimo received the Times at the end of a pair of tongs, and carrying it out on a ship, left it to rot in the snow, will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed it.

MR. AND MRS. BOWSER.

"Shall we go to church tomorrow?" inquired of Mr. Bowser, the other Saturday night, as we were closing up the shop, and talk him in.

PHENOMENA IN BRITAIN.

A weekly farmer and strong temperance man was asked to Congress. He formed a party of five or six, and went to the city, and he was there for a long time.

SILKEN HOPE FOR PRETTY TOES.

All sorts of novelties in embroidered stockings have appeared this season, from black and white to red and blue.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Mr. Jenny Lind Goldsmith is a neat member of Miss Marie Van Zandt at the Victoria Theatre.

WITHOUT A POLICY.

The party led by Mr. Blake is going to the polls without a clearly defined policy on any subject. The elector who wishes to cast his vote intelligently cannot find in the speeches of the liberal party a clear exposition of the policy which the liberals will pursue if they are successful in the coming election.

RED HERRIN IN THE MIDDLE OF THE BOCKIES.

On the 23rd of June last some of us were beamed at the summit of the Selkirk range. We were travelling in the company of Mr. McLean, a well known sportsman.

THE NEW LIGHT.

To the Editor:—I was amused this morning in reading the article in your paper signed "Subscriber," and giving me such a vivid insight into my own mind.

STRANGE STORIES.

Artistic Gems from the Cleverest Journalists. The school teacher at Osoyoos, W. T., who has been in the habit of writing to his pupils, has been found to be a very clever and successful one.

QUAINT COMMENT.

Atlanta Correspondent: "Family wars" are advertised out west. They are highly interesting to the undertakers.

WHAT COMES DO.

A Comma is a small thing, but the sense of an article is often altered by it. In the following two paragraphs it will be seen that the first one speaks of a good man, and the second one of a bad man.

THE OLEO LIE.

The great head which is running the oleo business is making no bones of its "independent" position. Since we published his disreputable article, written during the last election, and containing a number of gross misstatements, the oleo business has been as silent as an oyster.
