SULTAN WAS CAUSE

It is noteworthy that while the revolution of last July was the work of officers, the present movement was carried forward by the soldiers, aided by the religious party, the leaders in the movement being the very troops, the movement being the very troops, the Salonika chausseurs, which hereto-fore had been the mainstay of the committee of union and progress. The rising has resulted in the complete obliteration of this committee and its newspaper organs, while army deputies representing the committee group have resigned or remain in their

During the whole thrilling momentous episode the sallent features of the revolution were the loyalty of the troops and the people to the sultan, whose name was frequently acclaimed, and the absence of attacks on the lives and property of citizens.

The new cabinet held a meeting last The new cannet need a meeting last night to deliberate on the situation. The grand vizier and the Sheikh-Ul-Islam arrived at the Porte in state at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and were cheered by the immense crowd that had gathered there.

On the approach of the cortege an intimation was sent to the troops, and the discharge of musketry ceased like magic. The precincts of the Porte were crowded in every part, and the hall where the ministry was installed was packed to overflowing.
