WEATHER BOARD
If you are building or going to complete some unfinished rooms, let us show you some colored samples, illustrating the beautiful color effects obtained by using this sanitary and durable board for walls and ceilings in all classes of buildings.
We carry a large stock in assorted sizes.

MAIL ORDERS.
We solicit out of town orders which receive our personal attention. The length of time taken to fill orders is governed very largely by how busy we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods, it is important to place orders as far ahead as possible. Orders are filled by us in the rotation in which they are received, and customers can always depend on our doing everything in reason to give prompt despatch.

Our Office is connected with the N. B. Telephone by two separate lines insuring prompt attention.
Office Hours—8 A. M. to 5 P. M.

THE CARELESS SMOKER
is apt to be equally careless about his fire insurance. Better to set aside a small yearly premium for his fire insurance policy. That's safer!

ROYAL WELCOME FOR PRINCE

Enthusiastically Received Upon Visit to Loyalist City—Many Veterans There.

St. John, Aug. 15.—The Prince of Wales arrived here at ten o'clock this morning on the warship Dragon and was warmly welcomed. A drizzling rain failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the great concourse of people from all sections of the province. The landing was made from a tender at historic Bell's Point and the Prince set foot on Canadian soil for the first time. He was cordially greeted by His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, Lieut. Governor Pugsley, Sir Robert Borden, Premier Foster, Mayor Hayes and others. It was the greatest gala of the town that St. John has seen at one time in many years.

The landing of the Prince was marked by a salute of 21 guns fired by a detachment at West St. John and others at Queen Square. A guard of honor from the 26th Battalion was drawn up on the wharf and after the Prince had inspected it he listened to the doxology and patriotic Canadian songs rendered by one thousand children on a stand near the head of the wharf.

The Royal visitor then entered an auto and in company with the Governor General and Lieut. Governor Pugsley he was driven through the cheering crowds and gallantly decorated streets to the armory where addresses were presented.

The Prince replied briefly to the addresses. He spoke very distinctly and with a strong English accent, and could be heard in all parts of the great hall. In the course of his remarks he expressed regret that time did not permit him to visit Fredericton, the seat of government, and asked that his regrets be conveyed to the people of that city.

His Royal Highness and party next repaired to Barracks Square, where colors were presented to the 26th Battalion and a number of war medals distributed.

On leaving the Barracks Square the Prince unveiled a tablet to fallen soldiers in the post office and afterwards visited the military hospital at Lancaster.

BIG ATTRACTION COMING.
A Melodrama of the smashing type is announced for the Opera House on Saturday, Aug. 24th, when the "Seven Days' Leave" will open an engagement. This play enjoys the distinction of being played simultaneously by six companies in four continents. Essentially a melodrama, it was written by an English actor, Walter Howard, as a protest against the German spy system long before this country became embroiled in the war. It is in four acts and six scenes. After the United States entered the war, the London play was brought to New York, "caught on" and remained for the rest of the theatrical year. "Seven Days' Leave" has all the traditional punch and spectacular features. There are numerous comedy features to brighten the strenuous entertainment in addition to the heart interest aroused the romance.

PROFESSIONAL.
Dr. A. Pierce Crockett, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, of St. John, will be at the St. Louis Hotel, Campbellton Friday, Aug. 23rd, where he may be consulted professionally.—2-pd.

CHILD LOST IN THE WOODS

Eleven Year Old Girl Wandered Nearly Nine Days in Woods.

A week ago last Thursday evening two girls named Grant, the youngest aged eleven years, natives of Elm Tree Gloucester county went to hunt the cows. Later the elder of the two returned but the little sister did not and she no doubt became separated from her sister and strayed into the woods.

Friday neighbors searched the locality, but nothing but a torn piece of her dress was found and it was feared she had been devoured by bears, signs of which had been seen.

However Saturday, Sunday and for days the search was kept up without avail. On Sunday hundreds of searchers riddled the woods for eight miles was thoroughly searched, but without avail. The parents had given up all hope of seeing their child alive.

Saturday about noon, a local hunter of Jacques River was travelling through the woods when in the distance he saw a peculiar object setting on a log beside a hauling road. He could not make out just what it was, as the child's hair had become matted and hung about its face and neck. He approached it cautiously and was horror-stricken to discover it was a little child, bare of foot, with its clothes in tatters. When the child saw him approaching it struggled to its feet and endeavored to run into the woods and hide, but was pursued and caught. He cared for it as tenderly as possible, and proceeded at once to the settlements where a physician was called and every attention given that the little wanderer is rapidly recovering.

In her wanderings the little girl in the nine days and nights had travelled about twenty miles in a westerly direction from her home. She had subsisted on berries and it is expected she will be little the worse of her trying experience.

OBITUARY.
Lloyd A. Targett.

Citizens of Campbellton learned with regret of the death of Lloyd Alexander Targett, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Targett, of Richville, which occurred at the Hotel Dixie Hospital on July 29th after a short illness of pneumonia. Deceased was 21 years and 7 months of age. He was a Great War Veteran, first enlisted for garrison duty at Newcastle, in August 1914, afterwards enlisting for overseas in August 1915 in the 64th Battalion, remaining in Halifax until April 1916. Thence to England on the S. S. Olympic, being anxious to get in the thick of the fight, he was transferred to the "Victoria" 24th Battalion in Belgium.

He was in many of the heavy engagements, including the Sugar Refinery and Concolette. He was gassed in February 1917 and as soon as he was able to travel he was sent back to Canada for treatment in the hospitals in St. John and Fredericton, but he never fully recovered from the effects of the gas. He was highly respected by all who knew him, and he was a devoted son and brother, he leave to mourn besides his father and mother, four brothers, Emerson, shortly returned from overseas and Everett, Melvin and Gordon at home, and two sisters, Mrs. R. W. L. Worrell of Campbellton and Beatrice at home.

The funeral service was held at his home on Friday afternoon, which was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Rowley officiating.

The pall-bearers were all relatives: Duane McDonald, Gilbert McDonald, Edgar McDonald, Alonzo Fearon, Joseph Targett and James Adams.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Deceased will be sadly missed by all who knew him, and the heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family.

GREAT FUTURE IN STORE FOR CANADA

United States Today Only a Prototype of Canada at Close of Century.

(A. B. Cooper, C. A. P.)
London, Aug. 15.—I met Sir Arthur Bann, and knowing that he is deeply interested in Imperial questions, and in Canada especially, I took the opportunity of asking him to talk to the subject.

"Now that Canada has made such a leap forward," said Sir Arthur, "achieving in a decade what she might have achieved in half a century, what are we going to do to establish that new found position, to make it a platform from which this vast dominion, with its mighty promise of greatness in achievement, may go on to even higher prospects. This is destined to be Canada's century. I could easily prophesy, and if I did so venture I would say that the United States of today is only a prototype of what Canada will be at the close of the twentieth century, and what I prophesy of Canada I prophesy also of Australia, New Zealand and South Africa."

Personally, I am inclined to think that the basis of trade relations, superimposed, of course, upon the sense of natural kinship of which I have already spoken, is the most promising road to these great ends. I see that the Canadian Government has sent to London a trade mission which has already done very notable work in directing Canada's policy of trade. Surely this is a good precedent. What Canada has done who should not the other dominions do? Why, indeed, should not the Mother Country do likewise? If a trade mission comes from Ottawa, why should not a trade mission go there from London? Why do not Melbourne and Wellington and Cape Town send one? And why should we not have drawn from all of the missions and delegations a sort of Imperial trade union which should watch every coast, whose duty it should be to assist and further any enterprise which is for the well-being and prosperity of the Empire?

WILD CATS ARE KILLING GAME

Demand Made That Bounty be Increased. Guide Kills Cat and Kittens.

(Frederick Gleener.)
Wild cats are seriously harassing the deer in the woods of New Brunswick and will wipe out an exceedingly large number of game animals unless proper steps are taken immediately to combat the danger, according to reports which reached The Gleener today.

Robert Lowe, of Allamand, the well known woodsman and guide, reports that in the Shogomoc where his hunting and trapping camps are located, that wild cats are more plentiful than ever and have done a great deal of harm. A number of young deer have been killed already and earlier in the season some of the farmers had limbs killed within a short distance of their barns.

A few days ago Mr. Lowe killed a lion with three kittens while at Conk Lake in the Shogomoc country. They had started to swim from the mainland to an island and he started after them, thinking they were muskrats. He was surprised to find the four objects were a big wildcat with three kittens, but he quickly killed them all with a large pole which he had in his canoe. Mr. Lowe saw five other wildcats in the same vicinity about the same time and says that throughout his territory they are much more in evidence than usual.

The bounty now paid on wild cats in New Brunswick is $3 while in Maine it is $10, and there is a growing demand that the bounty here be increased so as to make it worth while killing the animals for the protection of the game.

MORE BOATS ON PULPWOOD ROUTE

Meigs Pulpwood Co., Planning for Increase in Sailings From Ba. Chaleur.

(A. B. Cooper, C. A. P.)
Meigs, president of the Pulpwood Company, Inc., owner of East Cove, and operators of an pulpwood terminal there, and the forwarding business installed in this port this summer, is in town today inspecting the company's property, where the steamer Morrow is now unloading the first consignment of 1,200 cords of pulpwood to come into this port in some years.

Mr. Meigs' company operates about twelve terminals and pulpwood negotiations in Canada and this country, and if present plans work out satisfactorily, according to statements made today, Oswego will be kept busy for some years to come taking care of pulpwood. Mr. Meigs told local business men, who were interested in the proposition to get the concern located here, that at a conference between forwarders and shipping interests held in New York city yesterday an agreement was reached to put four additional steamers on the route carrying pulpwood to Oswego from lower Canada. These steamers are now on their way to Gaspe to be loaded for this port.

The Meigs interests are already working on a more extended proposition in lower Canada for next year, which will keep the terminal here busy all next season. In any event the plans call for utilization of the local plant to the fullest extent, and it may be that its capacity will have to be enlarged to care for increased business next season.

The unloading of the steamer Morrow has required several days longer than will be the case with steamers that follow. It is hoped to cut the round trip time down considerably and certain changes will be made to the conveyors and unloading devices at the plant in East Cove, which will speed up the trans-shipment time.

The officers of the Meigs' company are well pleased with the plant here, and the location, and impressed with the advantages that are offered here, and prediction is being made that the plant will soon be enlarged. If the plans of the Meigs company work out along lines that have been arranged, the next twelve months will be big business months for the paper manufacturers and consequently for the companies furnishing raw materials, and from now until the end of the season the company will do everything possible to stock up the local terminal which has a capacity of 60,000 cords. The average stock of cargo will range from 1,000 to 1,500 cords. Mr. Meigs told the longshoremen at work on the Morrow, that he believes they will have steady work from now on until the close of navigation and perhaps longer.

The Meigs Pulpwood Co. has its head office for this district at Campbellton with branches at Cascapedia, New Richmond and other points.

FORD BILLS HEAVY; LITTLE COSTS AWARD

Mount Clemens, Mich., Aug. 15.—The amount of costs that Henry Ford may receive from the Chicago Daily Tribune, in addition to the six cents damage awarded him by a jury, which he answered his libel suit against the Chicago newspaper, will not exceed $10. Under a Michigan law where nominal damages are awarded, not more than $50 costs can be assessed against the losing party.

PERMANENT STREETS.

The first section of permanent street is being laid down. The large stone has been laid from front of the Post Office, extending down towards the water and the steam roller is giving it its first rolling down.
