Middleton.

There will be an ice cream sociable this evening, at the residence of Mr. Frank Andrews. Should the night prove favorable all who attend will be insured a pleasant time. The proceeds are in aid of the Baptist Church.

Lawrencetown has been lately talking plum language in a very high key. But there is no doubt that Middleton leads the procession. One gentleman among our many plum growers has already picked 500 pecks, and is just fairly getting under way.

Miss Flora Phinney of Boston, accompanied by her friend Miss Isabel Groves, has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Andwers. After spending two weeks, filled with delightful trips through the Valley and over the N. S. Central, they left for home on Saturday last.

Mr. Ernest Neily, one of Brooklyn's most enterprising and successful farmers, is erecting a large storehouse near the railway station which he intends using for storing pressed hay. Mr. Neily raised about 150 tons of hay this year, a part of which he has already pressed and shipped.

An insurance agent who has been spending the past few months here suddenly departed the other day, leaving behind a large unpaid hotel bill. We understand that this is only one of many similar actions the same gentleman has performed in other towns in the valley. Hotel keepers should place "budding" geniuses of this sort upon the black list.

Mr. W. J. Mulhall has just returned from the Magdalen Islands, where he spent a week on business. He brings back a favorable report of this out of the way corner of the universe. The population he says, consists of about 5,000 people, nearly all fishermen, although he saw some fine farming lands on the islands. Fishing operations this season have been fairly successful. Among other things he found sixty-five lobster factories on the islands.

Rev. Mr. Gaetz, pastor of the Methodist church, while passing through Nictaux on Sunday, Sept. 9th, met with rather an unpleasant accident. His horse becoming alarmed by something upon the roadside, proved unmanageable, and Mr. Gaetz was thrown from his waggon and received some flesh injuries but nothing serious. He also met with a similar accident on Friday while at Wilmot. His horse is very young and easily frightened.

A gentleman from Hantsport is now in Middleton with the intention of starting a newspaper, should the field prove sufficiently inviting. During the last two years four papers have been started here, viz:—The "Pioneer" the "Valley Scribe," "Clarke's Monthly" and the "Echo." All of these have one by one been quietly laid to rest in the graveyard of journalism. With the previous record so gloomy, it would seem to require a good deal of courage to attempt a fifth venture. But some people appear to think "there's millions in it," this newspaper business, and perhaps there is.

The Misses Gates and sister, Mrs. E. B. Drew returned to their respective homes in Boston, a few days ago. We shall miss them, but trust they will be spared to return to make their annual visits.

H. O. Dodge, photographer, returned from Springfield, Saturday, where he has been spending a few weeks in the interests of his profession. His work proves him to be an artist of no mean ability. His studio is now at Melvern Square.

The Sheehan & Devine Co. gave one of their concerts here on the 14th to a full house, and all went away well satisfied. Should the company visit us again a good house would await them.

ERRATUM.—We spoke of Mr. H. T. Phinney having taken charge of the New Germany station, in your last issue. We should have said that Mr. P. is only filling that position for a short time, while the station agent is absent.

Miss Beryl James, daughter of H. T. James, Esq., left us last week for a year at the Halifax Ladies College. Besides other studies, she is to take the special courses of the Art Studio, and Conservatory of Music. As Miss James is a young lady of no ordinary ability. We take very much interest in this step for an advanced education.

WEDDING.—At the house of the bride's father, Mr. Whitfield McNayr, on Wednesday, 12th inst., at 12.30 noon, Miss Cora A. McNayr and Mr. John Morrison, of Kentville, were united in marriage, by Rev. J. T. Eaton. The bride was tastefully and becomingly attired and carried a beautiful bouquet of choice blossoms, the gift of Mrs. H. T. James. Miss Maud McNayr, of Springfield, was bridesmaid, and the bride's little sister, Verna, maid of honor. The groom was supported by the brother of the bride. The presents were numerous and appropriate and attested to the high esteem in which the bride is held. The happy couple left for Kentville by the afternoon express, where they will in future reside. We wish them a long and pleasant voyage through life.

Mrs. Margaret Delap and Mrs. John A. Delap of Bear River have been visiting friends here for a few days. Mrs. John A. Delap's husband, we are pleased to learn, has been appointed chief officer, S. S. Earnwood, plying between Philadelphia and Cuba.

Mr. Edward Farnsworth, on the violin, and his sister Mrs. Elms, of Boston, on the organ, rendered some splendid music, readings, recitations and dialogues interspersed were all well rendered. We could not draw comparisons, but Mr. John E. Bent, in two comic selections, was too funny for anything and kept everybody laughing. It was deservedly pronounced good. Proceeds $15 towards church funds. This church will be opened on Sept. 30th.

Upper Granville.

Mr. Archie and Miss Lucy Covert of Karsdale, are spending a few days with their aunt, Mrs. P. L. Chesley.

The work of picking and packing apples for market, has begun. Although the crop is not up to the average, yet the fruit is of good quality and the yield will be much larger than was expected.

Owing to the long-continued spell of dry weather the root crops have suffered considerably, and the afterfeed is very poor, the upland fields looking as bare as in midwinter. A good rain just now would be a great boon to our farmers and would be most gratefully received by all.

On the 11th inst., the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowe were gladdened by the arrival of a little daughter, and we extend a hearty welcome to the little stranger. Mr. Crowe had just returned home on the 10th inst., from a pleasant visit among friends in Halifax.

While at home they took an active part in Sunday-school and church work, generally, and in many ways helped to brighten the social atmosphere of our community. Their many friends will look ahead with pleasure to their return another summer.

The quarterly meeting of the district lodge was held here on the 11th inst. A large amount of practical work was done through the day. A well attended public meeting was held in the evening at which the sum of $25, was subscribed for promoting juvenile work in the district. The next quarterly meeting will be held at Melvern Square.

The dry weather is welcomed by the summer travellers who are still moving, but the farmers are hoping great things of the change of weather due on the 20th.

An interesting meeting was held in the church on Thursday evening last, and a Baptist Young People's Union was organized with Dea. E. J. Elliot as President; Avard Wilson, Vice-President; Chas. Jackson, Sectty.; Miss Gertrude A Marshall, Treas.; and Miss Nellie J. Roach, Cor.-Secty. Meetings to be held every Sunday evening in the church at 7.30.

Handsome Decorations.

We clip from the Colchester Sun's report of the decorations in honor of Lord Aberdeen's visit at Truro, an extract which will be of interest to many of our readers as referring to the home of a young lady who at one time resided here, as a teacher in our public school, Miss Agnes Hamilton:—

It was said by a gentleman in our hearing, that there was more 'organized thought' exhibited in the decorations at 'Irwin Cottage," Queen Street, than at any place he had seen. Here Mrs. Hamilton and her three daughters by their own hands displayed a centre piece, including screen door and hall windows, designed to represent Great Britain and Canada. In upper part of door was a handsome crown in gilt, with letters V. R. in white. Above this 'Welcome' in white—below 'Aberdeen 1894,' in gilt. The background of the whole being red decorated with maple leaves. In the surrounding hall windows were the Union Jack and other national flags. In the lower part of door was St. George's Cross,—in the large window to the right was St. Andrew's Cross and to the left St. Patrick's Cross. The grounds were completely surrounded with festoons of Kindergarten chains, in red, white and blue, which met in a triple arch over the gate. The front of house was draped with the same, meeting in three Kindergarten arches over the door, and a profusion of small flags met the eye everywhere.

Generation after generation, have used and blessed Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Try it.

Golden Wedding.

There are several in Annapolis county who have had the pleasure, during the last few years, of celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. It is very doubtful if any were as hearty and youthful looking as Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Willett, of Granville Centre, who celebrated their anniversary on Wednesday evening. Mr. Willett was seventy-two years of age on August 11th, and Mrs. Willett will be 66 if spared to see the 17th of December. On Sept. 12th, 1844, they were married at Lower Granville and there are not a great number in Granville who can remember that day.

A celebration was talked of some time ago but was given up. A few days ago two friends of the family, Mr. Corr, of Boston, and I. D. Short, Esq., of St. John, came to Granville, and they would not consent to such a think as giving up the anniversary. Accordingly, on Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning invitations were sent out to relatives and friends to meet at the old homestead on Wednesday evening.

A sumptuous repast was served to all the guests and many a good joke was cracked over the table. After that pleasant part of evening's entertainment was over, everyone went in for a good time. Reminiscences of bye-gone days were brought up and the conversation never lagged. Some played whist while others tripped the light fantastic. A motion was all of a sudden made that Hon. W. B. Troop take the chair. The honorable gentleman did so, and proposed toasts to the Queen, followed by one to the host and hostess. Mr. Willett and son Rupert replied in very feeling terms. Other toasts were given by several of the guests. In the wee sma' hours of the morn this delightful evening's entertainment came to a close.—Spectator.

Plain Living and High Thinking.

The two go together. But high living cannot be associated with high thinking. It utterly deranges the system and makes mental labor of any kind an effort. It leads to dyspepsia which however may be completely cured, as it has been in hundreds of cases, by a systematic course of Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic and Hawker's liver pills. Sold by all druggists.

—At Kentville a society has been formed to be known as the Town Improvement Society, and its object is to "assist in every way possible the town council in their endeavors to make Kentville attractive, which is now one of the neatest and cleanest towns in Nova Scotia." Some other towns might follow so good an example.

—Rev. Geo. M. Adams, D.D., Auburndale, Mass., writes: "I recommend K. D. C. very strongly; in my case it has proved singularly efficient; when I could find nothing else to give relief it was a prompt remedy. I should be unwilling to be without it."
