SATISFIED MOTHERS

No other medicine gives as great satisfaction to mothers as does Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets are equally good for the newborn babe or the growing child and are absolutely safe. They cannot possibly do harm—always good. The Tablets are mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach, and thus relieve baby of any of the minor ills of childhood such as constipation, indigestion, colic, etc. Concerning them Mrs. Arthur Pillion, St. Sylvester, Que., writes:—"Baby's Own Tablets have been of wonderful benefit to my baby who was suffering from constipation and indigestion. I always keep the Tablets on hand and would advise all mothers to do likewise." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CORRECTION.
In the obituary notice of Mr. Thomas Kelly, who died on Saturday morning, May 17th, three weeks after his return from Victoria General where he was a patient for some six weeks a number of errors unfortunately occurred though the information was given all in good faith.
Mr. Kelly's first wife was Julia Taylor, sister of Conductor Taylor of the D. A. R. and was married to Mr. Kelly thirty years ago at Uniacke. His second wife Miss Sadie Archibald of Upper Musquodoboit. His third and surviving wife, nee Helen Crow of Newton-Stewart, Scotland.

Mr. Avarad Beeler secured between 200 and 300 pounds of Salmon from his work on Monday.
Tomorrow (Thursday) being Ascension Day there will be a celebration of Holy Communion in St. James church at 10 a.m.
Tuesday of next week, June 3rd, the King's Birthday will, we are informed, be observed as usual as a holiday in town. Stores closed on Tuesday all day and evening but will be open Monday evening, June 2nd.

What do other eyes see?

Ask and answer this question honestly

Your mirror can tell you what other eyes see—if you will consult it honestly, and honestly accept its judgment.
But you need not fear its verdict. Because unlovely skin need not remain unlovely. The alluring youthful complexion Nature gave you may be yours today.
Millions of women now follow this simple rule to keep the radiance and beauty of schoolgirl complexion. You can, too.

Just this
Cleanse the skin regularly, authorities say, to keep your complexion lovely, radiant, youthful.

But beware of harsh cleansing methods. They injure skin.
Wash thoroughly with Palmolive Soap—each night before retiring. Rub the creamy, foamy lather well into the tiny pores. Rinse— and repeat the washing. Then rinse again.
Then—if skin is dry—apply a little cold cream. That is all. Skin so cared for is not injured by cosmetics, by wind and sun, or by dirt.

The simple, and correct way
You cannot find a more effective beauty treatment. Because Palmolive Soap is blended of rare palm and olive oils—famous for mild but thorough cleansing qualities since the days of Cleopatra. And it is inexpensive.

Be sure you get Palmolive—which is never sold unwrapped. All dealers have it. After even a short period of this treatment you will see a marked improvement in your skin.
Many now use Palmolive for the bath—letting it do for the whole body what it does for the face.

Volume and efficiency produce 25c quality for 10c

The death took place at 2 o'clock on Friday morning last of Mr. Charles Saunders one of the oldest and most highly esteemed of our citizens. Mr. Saunders was 84 years of age on the 15th of last February and had enjoyed splendid health through life up till about four weeks previous to his death. He leaves to mourn their loss one son Eugene with whom he resided and one daughter, Mrs. A. F. Bull of Brookline, Mass., who arrived home last week. His wife Maria Saunders predeceased him by twenty-five years. One brother Dr. D. O. Saunders of Clarence survives, a brother John died years ago as also three sisters Mrs. Benjamin Miller (Mother of O. S. Miller, barrister of this town) Mrs. Wm. Miller and Mrs. Robert Marsh.
The late Mr. Saunders was born in Clarence and resided there on the homestead till forty years ago when he removed to Bridgetown East where he has since lived. He was an active member of the Baptist church, an industrious and upright citizen, greatly esteemed by all who knew him.
The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Prosser, interment was in Riverside Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs Abner Williams, Clarence Young, Samuel Pratt and Ernest Foster.
Mr. Horace Bishop of Kentville was the guest of his son Mr. Ross Bishop over the week-end.

Local Happenings

On Wednesday last the formal opening of the Tennis grounds for the season took place and the members were at home to the Tennis Clubs of Annapolis, Lawrence town and Middleton. Several friendly games were played and tea served. In the evening a very successful dance at the Court House wound up the days proceedings.

Attend the Grand Recital at the Court House tomorrow (Thursday) evening. Admission 75c, 50c, to those under 16 years of age.

One of the prettiest little towns in Nova Scotia, is Bridgetown in Annapolis County. The scenery there is delightful. But one cannot live on scenery alone. One must have his tea and other things as well. And the people of Bridgetown are very particular about their tea, as you will find if you visit them. The tea they use is MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE, of which there is no superior in any part of the world.

Recital is under the auspices of the Women's Institute of Bridgetown and proceeds for Interprovincial Girls' home at Moncton.
The C. G. I. T. girls of St. James enjoyed a hike around Paradise Tuesday night, twelve miles. Nobody fell out on the route. Mrs. B. N. Messenger leader of the group and Mrs. E. R. Orlando accompanied the girls on the hike.
Mr. Luther Dickens Mott of New York, will be heard in the Recital at the Court House, assisted by Miss Evelyn Meredith Crowell. Do not miss this splendid entertainment at the Court House, Thursday evening, May 29th.

Daniel Owen, K. C., who has been practising law in Boston for the last five years, has returned to Annapolis Royal, and is opening an office there.

The many friends of Jack Ruggles whose marriage is announced in another column, will be pleased to know that Jack is now established in practice as resident practitioner for the chain of hotels in North Carolina at "Pinehurst," where he has been practising for the past three months until the close of the season there.

He and his bride expect to leave the latter part of the month for New York to open up a branch office in that city to continue treatment to his many patients from that city, who spent their winters at "Pinehurst."

Dr. J. D. Logan, author and publicist, has become associated with the Nova Scotia Publicity Bureau, as field officer. Dr. Logan will travel throughout the province for the purpose of explaining the objects of the bureau, and will assist the various county organizations in developing the work in their sections.

The following extract from a letter from Mr. George H. Warey will be of interest to our readers:
"This is one of the days I would like to be back in Nova Scotia, as May 24th is not celebrated this side of the line."

Last night we entertained Jack Warey, Henry Reeks, son of Rev. Mr. Reeks of Round Hill, and James Little who arrived from Bridgetown on Wednesday of this week.

To make the atmosphere as much like Bridgetown as possible, the room was tastefully decorated with various postcards showing the principal streets of Bridgetown, the Presbyterian church and the Annapolis river at high tide, a large Canadian flag adding to the impression we tried to convey.

Perhaps I may also state that the "Monitor" was very much in evidence, having arrived in the afternoon.
