DR. SMITH HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Former Resident of Granville Ferry Near Mark For Assassin.—Lighting of Granville Bridge.—Departure of Mr. and Mrs. Hanington—Other Notes.

Annapolis Royal—A delegation from Granville Ferry, comprising Capt. W. Collins, F. E. Wood, and S. W. Dickson met the members of the Town Council here on Monday at a special meeting to discuss the lighting of the Granville-Annapolis bridge. After a thorough discussion of methods and cost, it was decided to place the offer of the delegates before the Electric Light Committee, who will report at the regular Town Council meeting on Tuesday evening.

Peter Bartheux, the six-year-old son of Mr. Arthur Bartheux, formerly of Moschelle, was struck by an automobile at Lynn, Mass., where his parents now reside, and sustained a bad fracture of the skull, very little hope being had for his recovery. Mr. Bartheux enlisted in the 6th Mounted Rifles and went overseas in the early days of the war. In 1917, he married Miss Mabel Field of Stamford, England, and their little son was born there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kelly are receiving congratulations this week—a little daughter having arrived at each home. Mrs. A. M. King entertained at a very enjoyable children's party on Saturday afternoon, in honor of the tenth birthday of her little niece, Velyn Crowe.

Miss Evelyn Mills motored to Halifax, on Friday with friends from Granville.

Mrs. Clifford Duncan returned this week from Yarmouth, where she had spent a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Farnsworth, accompanied by their little daughter, Florence, left on Friday for a month's visit in New York and Boston.

Miss Florence Neville returned on Wednesday from a three week's vacation trip to Parrishboro and Halifax.

Miss Josephine Strothard, well known here, while her father, Rev. James Strothard was pastor of the Methodist church, was a visitor in town this week. Miss Strothard has been for some years matron of the Maritime Home for Girls.

The marriage took place at the Church of England rectory at Digby on Thursday, of Miss May Potter of Bear River, to Mr. Kimball Shipley, until recently clerk with W. S. Cummings. The bride and groom left for Boston the day following the ceremony.

An item in the Morning Chronicle of Nov. 25th describes the narrow escape from an assassin's bullet of Dr. John Hall Smith—a former resident of Granville Ferry, son of the late Mrs. Robert Mills. Dr. Smith is well known in Annapolis, where he attended school as a boy, and a few months ago was a guest at the Queen Hotel, accompanied by his wife and little son.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hanington, with their little daughter, Dorothy, started by motor on Tuesday for their new home in Sherbrooke, Guy'sborough Co. They expected to arrive there on Thursday, stopping with friends in Windsor and New Glasgow en route.

W. H. PHINNEY IS HELD UP

Thieves go Through His Pockets And Secure Some $16.—Very Dark Night Favored Operations.—Public Call for Protection.

Mr. W. H. Phinney of Lawrencetown was held up on Friday evening last and robbed of the money he had about his person, something over sixteen dollars in all, Mr. Phinney, it appears was going over to Mr. Frank Posters and had in his pockets Agricultural Society money when suddenly two men jumped out demanding it.

Mr. Phinney tried to resist, but the other went through his pockets. One prevented any outcry by putting a hand over Mr. Phinney's mouth. Two cars it seems, passed about this time and led to a report that the thieves made their escape in one of these. The Monitor has been reliably informed that the pliters had no car. Mr. Phinney is an elderly man and his assailants came upon him so suddenly and the night was very dark. Hence he is not able to give information which would lead to their arrest.

During the past few weeks considerable stealing, burglarizing and attempts at burglarizing have been made in the area of county between Paradise and Middleton. The parties undertaking this work are not believed to reside any great distance from the scenes of their operations. There is a feeling abroad that some drastic steps should be taken to end burglarizing and thieving.

At a meeting held in October, the commissioners appointed a policeman to patrol the streets from six p. m. to six a. m. Evidently his appointment has met with general favor, for at Wednesday's meeting he was appointed to act as night policeman until the annual meeting in February.

The matter of fire protection was dealt with in an enthusiastic way, and the meeting decided to purchase a fire engine and five hundred feet of hose. The engine purchased is a portable one, and the vote in favor was 23 to 10. The commissioners then asked the ratepayers to vote to empower them to raise $2,100 for payment of accounts against the village.

Initial work in getting the rink prepared for another season has been completed so that now all that is wanted is good skating and ice sports weather to get skating and ice sports generally on the move.

Part Two consisted of a playlet enacted by the "Goal Attainer" groups of the C. G. I. T. The title being "The Old Country Aunts Visit to the City." It consisted of two scenes and was most amusing. Where each and all did so well, it would seem almost ludicrous to mention any single one. We think the girls themselves would wish us to say that Miss Lillian Taylor was remarkably good in the title role.

Besides Miss Lillian Taylor, those taking part in this playlet were the Misses Ina and Mary Orlando, Maude Hiltz, Doris Walber, Alice Taylor, Leta Troop, Ethel Dodge and Annie Todd.

The Melody Men were: Mr. Ross Bishop, Messrs Paul, Ches and Ronald Longmire.

On behalf of the inmates of the reformatory and staffs of the respective institutions desire to thank all those who contributed to this delightful evening.

The annual Christmas tree entertainment is scheduled to take place on the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 30th.

The Nawagwee Club has resumed its sessions for the winter months, the first meeting being held at the home of Mrs. J. T. Archibald, Church Street, where a very pleasant evening was spent.

RECREATION HALL ENTERTAINMENT.

Large Number Attend First of Winter Series Given Most Successful by St. James Church

In spite of strong counter attractions the entertainment given in the Recreation Hall on Thursday evening last by St. James church, was well attended.

Every number of the carefully arranged programme was well received, each effort being rewarded with prolonged applause.

The evening commenced with a stirring overture by "The Bridgetown Melody Men," and here the audience positively insisted on an encore. The Rev. Canon Underwood then followed with bright and taking song entitled "The Ballad of Capt. Meg."

Then there was a piano duet by the Misses Ina and Mary Orlando and the satisfaction this gave was unmistakable. Miss Dearness next sang very sweetly "At Dawn." "The Melody Men" followed with a selection, and then Mr. Chas. Wheeler sang "Over the Hills to Home."

The seventh and number was undoubtedly the outstanding feature of the evening, this was a piano solo by Miss Ethel Daniels, "Fatching-wank aus Wein," by Schumann. It would be difficult in a few words to do justice to this effort. In the judgment of those who heard it, it was like the number seven—"the perfect number."

For the balance of the first part of the programme, Canon Underwood sang, "A Merry Sort of Life," Mr. Wheeler, "A Merry Heart," and Miss Dearness, "Come Sing to me," whilst Miss Daniels played a "Pantasia in C Minor" by Mozart and the "Melody Men" a medley, each number being received with very evident appreciation.

NOTES AND NEWS OF LAWRENCETOWN

Many Friends Call on Mrs. Israel Daniels on Her 84th Birthday.—Would-be Burglars on the Move.—Social Aid Personal Items.

Lawrencetown—Mrs. W. Archibald, Wolfville, was a guest at the home of Mrs. H. Freeman, Bridge St. Mrs. Fullerton is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. C. F. A. Patterson.

Mrs. Bent, Granville Ferry, was a guest of Mrs. McLearn for a few days. Mrs. McLearn went on Thursday to St. John, on church business, also to say a word for her loved Acadia.

Miss S. Troop, Belleisle, was a visitor at the home of Mrs. W. P. Morse. Miss C. Peters has gone to Melrose, Mass., where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. E. Wilson, Clarence, was in town for a day. Capt. W. and Mrs. Morris, spent some days at the home of their daughter Mrs. Aubrey Whitman. They left for Boston on Thursday.

Mrs. Simpson and Miss Simpson went to Yarmouth on Thursday from there they go to Florida to spend the winter. Miss Simpson has a position in the High school at Clermont. All regret these very popular ladies will not be in Lawrencetown any longer. Miss K. Bancroft is out of town for a week.

Miss Troop, Wolfville, spent the week-end with Miss S. Banke. Mrs. J. Santford had visitors for the week-end from Aylesford.

Mrs. A. Ward has been in Middleton for a week. Rev. L. W. Wallace is now doing mission work at Jeddore.

Rev. L. W. Wallace is in Boston. Miss Jean Wallace is faithfully attending her course in the hospital. She greatly enjoyed a call from Dr. R. Morse.

Dr. W. Archibald and his mother have moved into the house recently occupied by Mr. F. Porter.

Mrs. Israel Daniels has had her 84th birthday. This lady is well, takes an interest in church and state, and is ever busy stepping down the street one would never imagine that so many years had passed over her.

Friends called, and wished the good lady many years yet to enjoy her beautiful home, and the care of her devoted daughter, Mrs. W. P. Morse.

We hear some more of our citizens are thinking of the Sunny South. Wedding bells may soon be heard in Lawrencetown.

Meeting of ladies interested in raising funds for Acadia, was held Monday night at Mrs. H. Freeman's home, Bridge Street.

Pantry sale on Saturday afternoon by ladies of the Methodist church, was a success, quite a good amount of money was taken.

One of our citizens heard a noise at his window, decided to give the visitor a surprise, the gentleman sent a weapon through the window, but it was only Thomas Cat wishing to return home.

But more serious matters are related. A house on Main Street was disturbed at a late hour by unwelcome visitors, but the gentleman of the house was awakened, got up and the would be robbers decamped.

We hear that Mr. W. Phinney, West Lawrencetown on his way home was held up by two men and his money taken.

Sherlock Holmes is needed here or Mr. Horace Reid. One day last week a beautiful collie dog in some way became plastered with burdock burs. The animal was most uncomfortable. Three Boy Scouts seeing the trouble, nobly came to his rescue, very gently they took out the burs and relieved the pup. These are the kind of splendid boys we have in Lawrencetown. All honor to them.

The stores are now filled with bright and beautiful goods for the Christmas season.

Mr. Alister Taylor, South Lawrencetown, has gone to visit friends in Maine, then he will go to Florida for the winter.

The order of services in the Lawrencetown circuit will be completely changed on Sunday, Dec. 7th. Service will be held in the Lawrencetown church in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The choir of the United church, Middleton, that was heard with delight by hundreds of persons from all parts of the county at the re-opening of the renovated church, will be present and give a good program of anthems and other numbers. It is expected that large numbers will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this notable aggregation of singers.

Service at Inglisville will be held in the evening at 7.30 when the church will be re-opened after the work of beautifying the interior has been completed. A special program of music is being prepared.

Mrs. Carl Thies receives. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Carl Thies was "At Home" to her friends for the first time since her marriage and about a hundred and twenty ladies called.

Mrs. G. O. Thies, dressed in black lace received with the bride, who was attired in green beaded crepe de chene. The guests were ushered to the dining room by Mrs. J. Herbert Hicks, who was dressed in grey satin.

Little Dorothy Dargie, dressed in yellow, attended the door. Mrs. E. A. Hicks, dressed in black velvet and Mrs. W. R. Longmire in black satin, poured.

Miss Iva Piggott, in Rose shot taffeta, Miss Lou Troop, in brown Trefalgar crepe, Miss Frances Fowler, in black Canton crepe and Mrs. Harry Dargie, in gold satin, assisted in serving.

Mrs. LeMoine Ruggles, dressed in brown satin, cut the feast. The color scheme was yellow and white and in the dining room was a profusion of handsome yellow and white chrysanthemums, in the drawing room pink and white carnations. The general effect was very pretty indeed.

SUDDEN DEATH OF PARRISHBORO MAYOR.

Stewart T. Salter Succumbs to Apoplexy.—Prominent in Civil and Business.

Parrishboro—Stewart T. Salter, Mayor of Parrishboro, died at his residence here at midnight following an attack of apoplexy.

Mayor Salter, who was 57 years of age, had been in apparent good health and during the day had been supervising the loading of one of his vessels, the Burpee L. Tucker, which sailed for New York Friday with a load of lumber. He had, during the last few days, complained of trouble with the back of his neck, but beyond suffering some pain he thought nothing of it.

Tonight, soon after supper, he left his home to pay a visit to some friends, and while walking along the street he suddenly dropped to the ground. Friends rushed to his aid and carried him back to his home, where medical attention was summoned. The stroke had done its work, however, and just as the clock struck the midnight hour Mayor Salter passed away.

Stewart Townsend Salter, a son of the late Samuel Salter of Diligent River, was one of the most prominent business men in the province and had occupied the positions of trust in his home town. A prominent citizen and shipowner he had been seven times elected Mayor of Parrishboro and had, previous to his election as chief magistrate, served as a councillor twice.

He was the chief owner of the vessel Burpee L. Tucker and Stewart T. Salter, besides owning and operating a combined block shop and wood-working factory. He was a sea captain, and many of the shipping men of the province will remember him, as for several years he coasted out of the Bay of Fundy to United States and West Indian ports. He sailed as captain on the E. Mayfield, Corinto, Silver Leaf, and the Burpee L. Tucker.

He was a Past Master of the Masonic Lodge and a Mystic Shriner of Philae Temple.

The late Mayor Salter is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Annie F. Smith, a daughter of the late Charles Smith, of Port Greville, three sons, six brothers and two sisters. The sons are Clair and Harry, who reside at home, and Kenneth, in Boston. The brothers are Jacob and George who are living in Bridgetown, Homer and Robert, of Diligent River, J. Trueman Salter, who is master of the schooner Burpee L. Tucker, and Captain Charles W. Salter, who commands the Stewart T. Salter. Mrs. Freeman Hattfield, of Parrishboro, and George Salter, of New York, are sisters.

R. S. Jackson, Boston, Mass., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. C. Chute, Clarence, for a few weeks.

Board of Trade, died suddenly here Sunday of heart trouble, Mr. Campbell, County Academy, A son Richard, and a brother, Frank, reside in Chicago.

Acadia! how sweet the name. Acadia! how wide her fame. Proud sons and daughters dot the globe. And stand for her a royal robe. Of which she is the crown.

Acadia—her call we hear. Acadia—she need not fear. O'er eighty years the test she stood, And by herself she has made good.—Let now her glory shine.

Acadia—will stand by now. Acadia—to her we'll vow. A million dollars help her find, And to big money add our kind. Of gifts and prayers combined.

Acadia will have new halls. Acadia will rear new walls. The time has come for her to stand, And for herself send forth a band. Of learned men made strong.

Acadia—her praise we'll sing. Acadia—loud echoes ring. Brave men have made her some, And to her now a great soul's given. To build her life anew.

Acadia! how sweet the name. Acadia! how great her fame. Then once again let history tell "Twas sacrifice, success did spell.—Our College on the Hill.

PERSONAL MENTION

One of the nicest courtesies you can show your friends is let them learn through this column of your visit whenever you go away. Let us know when you have visitors consider it a courtesy whenever you give us an item of this kind. Write or phone No. 12 or 102.

Mr. Andrew Gow of Bridgewater, is visiting in town, the guest of her sister, Miss Una Cameron.

Miss Gladys Ritchie of the Wolfville Public School teaching staff was a visitor in town recently.

Mrs. (Dr.) Morrison of Halifax, President of the Provincial W. C. T. U. was a guest of Mrs. Fred Bath during her recent visit to town.

Mrs. Karl Freeman arrived home last week from a five weeks visit in Halifax with her aunt, Mrs. L. A. Miles and other friends and relatives. Mrs. (Dr.) W. L. Archibald, of Wolfville, returned with her and was her guest for a few days.

Sheriff Edwards of Annapolis, was a visitor in town on Thursday last.

Mr. Ellsworth Fowler of Sackville, N. B., was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bath.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Caldwell leave for Middleton this week, where they will spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. K. H. McNeil and Mr. McNeil at the "American House."

Miss Amy Leitch of Kentville, who has for over a year efficiently performed the duties of operator at the Western Union here, has been transferred to Windsor and left for the scene of her new duties on Friday last. She is succeeded here by Miss Janet Estabrooks of Sackville, N. B.

Mr. J. W. Peters, President of the Baptist Brotherhood, and Mrs. Peters entertained the members at their hospitable home on Tuesday night and about forty were present.

A discussion was entered into and plans made to increase the membership of this important class in the church. During the evening there were both vocal and musical selections rendered. Mr. Percy Burns gave solos and Mr. Zwicker of Chester, who has been a guest at Mr. John Hutchinson's gave several pleasing selections on the piano. Dainty refreshments were served and the occasion was much enjoyed by all present.

Miss Ethel Johnson of St. Stephens, Vice-President of the Rebekah Assembly of the Maritime Provinces arrived here on Saturday and was a week-end guest of Mrs. J. W. Peters and also made an official visit to Autumn Leaf Rebekahs of this town.

He Drove 100 Miles

A dealer in a New Brunswick town recently drove fifty mile one way and fifty miles return for the purpose of selecting his Christmas stock of Mole's Chocolates, although in the meanwhile he had opportunities to buy other chocolates from Travellers who came right to his store. However he knew what his customers wanted. And went after it.

Mr. J. E. Dicketts, for many years in the cable service in Nova Scotia, but for the past fifteen years stationed in New Zealand, left after a holiday in his old home for Montreal then to New Zealand. He is taking a five pound package of Mole's Chocolates along with him to distribute amongst friends in New Zealand.
