

honorably dropped from the rolls for non-payment of dues. They also recommended the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That a dentist having once appeared as a delegate, and become a permanent member, is not eligible to act again as a delegate until his dues are paid in full.

After a sharp debate this resolution, on a call of yeas and nays, was adopted by a vote of 29 to 28 ; the President voting in the affirmative.

By permission, Dr. Horne changed his vote to the affirmative ; after which he moved a reconsideration, which was rejected.

THIRD DAY.

Dr. H. Judd presented the report of the Publication Committee, which showed a balance of $152.78 to be due them. The Committee published five hundred copies of the Transactions for 1868, at a cost of $475. The report was accepted, and the Committee discharged, with the thanks of the Association, and the balance due ordered paid.

The Nominating Committee reported the names of Standing Committees for the ensuing year. The report was recommitted, with instructions to make certain changes, and to nominate officers.

Dr. Atkinson offered a resolution to refer to the Committee on Dental Literature a new work of Dr. J. E. Garretson, entitled "Diseases and Surgery of the Mouth," which he commended very highly, as the last and most accurate statement of the condition of medical knowledge in this department. The Committee declined to consider the subject, from lack of time, and the resolution was laid on the table.

The Committee on Prize Essays made the usual report, that nothing had been presented for their consideration.

Discussion upon Operative Dentistry was then commenced, and occupied the rest of the morning session.

At the commencement of the afternoon session, after much balloting, the City of Nashville was selected as the next place of meeting.

Dr. Morgan said he wanted every member of the Association to feel that he was bound to be present at the next meeting in Nashville. He related of Professor Agassiz, that on being requested to visit various cities to lecture, he replied that he had not time to be running about making money, he had more important business to attend to. He (Dr. M.) desired members to feel that it was of more
