INDIAN WORK.

From Miss S. Hart.

PORT SIMPSON, B.C., Jan. 5th, 1891.

The busiest season of the year past. How quickly they come and go. Our Christmas and New Year's were very pleasant. All were well and could enjoy the pleasures of the season. We went out Christmas eve as usual to see the illumination in the village, but it had not as grand an effect as usual, as the night was so very light, but looked very pretty. Christmas morning, only the firemen came up to shake hands and cheer us with their band music. We had a good service in the morning, the church quite full. We had our Christmas-tree in the afternoon. We had a little entertainment before the gifts were distributed; the children sang several pieces, and each recited a verse.
